15. Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: it may be that the Lord God of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph.

(b) Ruth iii. 12. And now it is true that I am thy near kinsman: howbeit, there is a kinsman nearer than I.

2 And he took ten men of (d) the elders of the city, and said, Sit ye down here. And they sat down.

(d) Deut. xxix. 10. Ye stand this day all of you before the Lord your God; your captains of your tribes, your elders, and your officers, with all the men of Israel.

(e) Ps. cxii. 5. A good man sheweth favour, and lendeth: he will guide his affairs with discretion.

Prov. xiii. 10. Only by pride cometh contention: but with the well-advised is wisdom.

4 And I thought to advertise thee, saying, (f) Buy it (g) before the inhabitants, and before the elders of my people. If thou wilt redeem it, redeem it; but if thou wilt not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know: (h) for there is none to redeem it beside thee: and I am after thee. And he said, I will redeem it.

(f) Jer. xxxii. 7. Behold, Hanameel, the son of Shallum, thine uncle, shall come unto thee, saying, Buy thee my field that is in Anathoth; for the right of redemption is thine to buy it.

8. So Hanameel, mine uncle's son, came to me in the court of the prison, according to the word of the Lord, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin: for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine; buy it for thyself. Then I knew that this was the word of the Lord.

9. And I bought the field of Hanameel, mine uncle's son, that was in Anathoth, and weighed him the money, even seventeen shekels of silver.

(g) Gen. xxiii. 18. Unto Abraham for a possession, in the presence of the children of Heth, before all that went in at the gates of his city.

27. Then let him count the years of the sale thereof, and restore the overplus unto the man to whom he sold it, that he may return unto his possession.

28. But if he be not able to restore it to him, then that which is sold shall remain in the hand of him that hath bought it until the year of jubilee: and in the jubilee it shall go out, and he shall return unto his possession.

29. And if a man sell a dwelling-house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it is sold; within a full year may he redeem it.

5 Then said Boaz, What day thou buyest the field of the hand of Naomi, thou must buy it also of Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the dead, (i) to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance.

(i) Gen. xxxviii. 8. And Judah said unto Onan, Go in unto thy brother's wife, and marry her, and raise up seed to thy brother.

Matt. xxii. 24. Saying, Master, Moses said, If a man die having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

6 And the kinsman said, I cannot redeem it for myself, lest I mar mine own inheritance: redeem thou my right to thyself; for I cannot redeem it.

7 Now this was the manner in former time in Israel, concerning redeeming, and concerning changing, for to confirm all things; (k) a man plucked off his shoe, and gave it to his neighbour: and this was a testimony in Israel.

(k) Deut. xxv. 7. And if the man like not to take his brother's wife, then let his brother's wife go up to the gate unto the elders, and say, My husband's brother refuseth to raise up unto his brother a name in Israel, he will not perform the duty of my husband's brother:

8. Then the elders of his city shall call him, and speak unto him: and if he stand to it, and say, I like not to take her;

9. Then shall his brother's wife come unto him in the presence of the elders, and loose his shoe from off his foot, and spit in his face, and shall answer and say, So shall it be done unto that man that will not build up his brother's house.

10. And his name shall be called in Israel, The house of him that hath his shoe loosed.

8 Therefore the kinsman said unto Boaz, Buy it for thee: so he drew off his shoe.

9 And Boaz said unto the elders, and unto all the people, (l) Ye are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was Elimelech's, and all that was Chilion's and Mahlon's, of the hand of Naomi.

12. And I gave the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, in the sight of Hanameel, mine uncle's son, and in the presence of the witnesses that subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the prison.

10 Moreover Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, (m) have I purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, that (n) the name of the dead be not cut off from among his brethren, and from the gate of his place: (o) ye are witnesses this day.

CHAPTER I.

NOW there was a certain man of (a) Ramathaim-zophim, of (b) Mount Ephraim, and his name was (c) Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an (d) Ephrathite:

24. And Laban gave unto his daughter Leah, Zilpah, his maid, for a handmaid.

25. And it came to pass, that, in the morning, behold, it was Leah: and he said to Laban, What is this thou hast done unto me? did not I serve with thee for Rachel? wherefore then hast thou beguiled me?

26. And Laban said, It must not be so done in our country, to give the younger before the firstborn.

27. Fulfil her week, and we will give thee this also, for the service which thou shalt serve with me yet seven other years.

14. Therefore will I do unto this house, which is called by my name, wherein ye trust, and unto the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to Shiloh.

(i) 1 Sam. iv. 4. So the people sent to Shiloh, that they might bring from thence the ark of the covenant of the Lord of hosts, which dwelleth between the cherubims: and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

3 And when they of Ashdod arose early on the morrow, behold, (e) Dagon was fallen upon his face to the earth, before the ark of the LORD. And they took Dagon, and (f) set him in his place again.

19. And none considereth in his heart, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burnt part of it in the fire; yea, also I have baked bread upon the coals thereof; I have roasted flesh, and eaten it; and shall I make the residue thereof an abomination? shall I fall down to the stock of a tree?

20. He feedeth on ashes: a deceived heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand?

xlvi. 7. They bear him upon the shoulder, they carry him, and set him in his place, and he standeth; from his place shall he not remove; yea, one shall cry unto him, yet can he not answer, nor save him out of his trouble.

(h) Ps. cxv. 4. Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands.

2. Though they dig into hell, thence shall mine hand take them; though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down:

3 And though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them:

4. And though they go into captivity before their enemies, thence will I command the sword, and it shall slay them: and I will set mine eyes upon them for evil, and not for good.

(s) Ps. lxxviii. 66. And he smote his enemies in the hinder parts; he put them to a perpetual reproach.

10 Therefore they sent the ark of God to (t) Ekron. And it came to pass as the ark of God came to Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, They have brought about the ark of the God of Israel to us, to slay us and our people.

CHAPTER VI.

(a) Gen. xli. 8. And it came to pass in the morning that his spirit was troubled; and he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt, and all the wise men thereof: and Pharaoh told them his dreams; but there was none that could interpret them unto Pharaoh.

Dan. ii. 2. Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, for to show the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king.

v. 7. The king cried aloud to bring in the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. And the king spake, and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whosoever shall read this writing, and show me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.

Matt. ii. 4. And when he, [Herod] had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

3 And they said, If ye send away the ark of the God of Israel, send it not (b) empty; but in any wise return him (c) a trespass-offering: then ye shall be healed, and it shall be (d) known to you, why his hand is not removed from you.

(b) Ex. xxxiv. 20. But the firstling of an ass thou shalt redeem with a lamb: and if thou redeem him not, then shalt thou break his neck. All the first-born of thy sons thou shalt redeem: and none shall appear before me empty.

9 And it was so, that, after they had carried it about, the hand of the Lord was against the city with a very great destruction: and he smote the men of the city, both small and great, and they had emerods in their secret parts.

11. So they sent and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines; and said, Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go again to his own place, that it slay us not, and our people: for there was a deadly destruction throughout all the city: the hand of God was very heavy there.

4 Then said they, What shall be the trespass-offering which we shall return to him? They answered, (e) Five golden emerods, and five golden mice, according to the number of the lords of the Philistines: for one plague was on you all, and on your lords.

(e) Josh. xiii. 3. From Sihon, which is before Egypt, even unto the borders of Ekron northward, which is counted to the Canaanite: five lords of the Philistines; the Gazathites, and the Ashdothites, the Eshkalonites, the Gittites, and the Ekronites; also the Avites.

Judg. iii. 3. Namely, five lords of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites that dwelt in Mount Lebanon, from Mount Baal-hermon unto the entering in of Hamath.

5 Wherefore, ye shall make images of your emerods, and images of your (f) mice that mar the land; and ye shall (g) give glory unto the God of Israel: peradventure he will (h) lighten his hand from off you, and from (i) off your gods, and from off your land.

(f) Ex. viii. 5. And the Lord spake unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch forth thy hand with thy rod over the streams, over the rivers, and over the ponds, and cause frogs to come up upon the land of Egypt.

24. And the Lord did so: and there came a grievous swarm of flies into the house of Pharaoh, and into his servants' houses, and into all the land of Egypt; the land was corrupted by reason of the swarms of flies.

x. 14. And the locusts went up over all the land of Egypt, and rested in all the coasts of Egypt: very grievous were they; before them there were no such locusts as they, neither after them shall be such:

15. For they covered the face of the whole earth, so that the land was darkened, and they did eat every herb of the land, and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left: and there remained not any green thing in the trees, or in the herbs of the field, through all the land of Egypt.

(g) Josh. vii. 19. And Joshua said unto Achan, My son, give, I pray thee, glory to the Lord God of Israel, and make confession unto him; and tell me now what thou hast done; hide it not from me.

Is. xix. 1. The burden of Egypt. Behold, the Lord rideth upon a swift cloud, and shall come into Egypt; and the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence, and the heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it.

6 Wherefore then do ye (k) harden your hearts, as (l) the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? When he had wrought wonderfully among them, (m) did they not let the people go, and they departed?

(k) Job ix. 4. He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: who hath hardened himself against him, and hath prospered?

32. Also take your flocks and your herds, as ye have said, and be gone: and bless me also.

33. And the Egyptians were urgent upon the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste: for they said, we be all dead men.

7 Now therefore make a (n) new cart, and take two milch-kine, (o) on which there hath come no yoke, and tie the kine to the cart, and bring their calves home from them.

(n) 2 Sam. vi. 3. And they set the ark of God upon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab that was in Gibeah: and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drave the new cart.

Ps. cvi. 34. They did not destroy the nations, concerning whom the Lord commanded them.

15 ¶ And Samuel (c) judged Israel all the days of his life.

(c) Acts xiii. 20. And after that, he gave unto them judges about the space of four hundred and fifty years, until Samuel the prophet.

21. And afterward they desired a king: and God gave unto them Saul the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of forty years.

16 And he went from year to year in circuit to Beth-el, and Gilgal, and Mizpeh, and judged Israel in all those places.

17 And (d) his return was to Ramah; for there was his house; and there he judged Israel; and there (e) he built an altar unto the Lord.

(d) 1 Sam. viii. 4. Then all the elders of Israel gathered themselves together, and came to Samuel unto Ramah.

(e) Gen. xii. 7. And the Lord appeared unto Abram, and said, Unto thy seed will I give this land: and there builded he an altar unto the Lord, who appeared unto him.

8. And he removed from thence unto a mountain on the east of Beth-el, and pitched his tent, having Beth-el on the west, and Hai on the east; and there he builded an altar unto the Lord, and called upon the name of the Lord.

xxxiii 20. And he [Jacob] erected there an altar, and called it El-elohe-Israel.

Judg. xxi. 4. And it came to pass on the morrow, that the people rose early, and built there an altar, and offered burnt-offerings and peace-offerings.

CHAPTER VIII.

AND it came to pass, when Samuel was old, that he (a) made his (b) sons judges over Israel.

(a) Deut. xvi. 18. Judges and officers shalt thou make thee in all thy gates, which the Lord thy God giveth thee, throughout thy tribes: they shall judge the people with just judgment.

19. Thou shalt not wrest judgment; thou shalt not respect persons, neither take a gift: for a gift doth blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words of the righteous.

Judg. viii. 22. Then the men of Israel said unto Gideon, Rule thou over us, both thou and thy son, and thy son's son also; for thou hast delivered us from the hand of Midian.

23. And Gideon said unto them, I will not rule over you, neither shall my son rule over you: the Lord shall rule over you.

3 Chr. xix. 5. And he [Jehoshaphat] set judges in the land, throughout all the fenced cities of Judah, city by city,

6. And said to the judges, Take heed what ye do: for ye judge not for man, but for the Lord, who is with you in the judgment.

(b) Judg. x. 4. And he [Jair] had thirty sons that rode on thirty ass-colts, and they had thirty cities, which are called Havoth-jair, unto this day, which are in the land of Gilead.

xii. 14. And he [Abdon] had forty sons, and thirty nephews, that rode on threescore and ten ass-colts: and he judged Israel eight years.

2 Now the name of his first-born was (c) Joel, and the name of his second Abiah: they were judges in Beer-sheba.

(c) 1 Chr. vi. 28. And the sons of Samuel; the first-born Jashni, and Abiah.

33. And these are they that waited, with their children. Of the sons of the Kohathites; Heman, a singer, the son of Joel, the son of Shemuel.

3 And (d) his sons walked not in his ways, (e) but turned aside after lucre, and took bribes, and perverted judgment.

(d) 1 Kings xii. 6. And king Rehoboam consulted with the old men that stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, and said, How do you advise, that I may answer this people?

7. And they spake unto him, saying, If thou wilt be a servant unto this people this day, and wilt serve them, and answer them, and speak good words to them, then they will be thy servants forever.

8. But he forsook the counsel of the old men, which they had given him, and consulted with the young men that were grown up with him, and which stood before him:

9. And he said unto them, What counsel give ye that we may answer this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke which thy father did put upon us lighter?

10. And the young men that were grown up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou speak unto this people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it lighter unto us; thus shalt thou say unto them, My little finger shall be thicker than my fathers's loins.

11. And now whereas my father did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke: my father hath chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

2 Kings xxi. 1. Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign, and reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hephzi-bah.

2. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, after the abominations of the heathen, whom the Lord cast out before the children of Israel.

3. For he built up again the high places which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; and he reared up altars for Baal, and made a grove, as did Ahab king of Israel; and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them.

Ec. ii. 19. And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man, or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have shewed myself wise under the sun.

Jer. xxii. 15. Shalt thou reign because thou closest thyself in cedar? did not thy father eat and drink, and do judgment and justice, and then it was well with him?

16. He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well with him: was not this to know me? saith the Lord.

17. But thine eyes and thine heart are not but for thy covetousness, and for to shed innocent blood, and for oppression, and for violence, to do it.

(e) Deut. xvi. 19. Thou shalt not wrest judgment; thou shalt not respect persons, neither take a gift: for a gift doth blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words of the righteous.

Ps. xv. 5. He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent. He that doeth these things shall never be moved.

xxvi. 10. In whose hands is mischief, and their right hand is full of bribes.

1 Tim. iii. 3. Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous.

vi. 10. For the love of money is the root of all evil; which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

4 Then all (f) the elders of Israel gathered themselves together, and came to Samuel unto Ramah.

(f) Ex. iii. 16. Go, and gather the elders of Israel together, and say unto them, The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, appeared unto me, saying, I have surely visited you, and seen that which is done to you in Egypt.

xxiv. 1. And he said unto Moses, Come up unto the Lord, thou, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel, and worship ye afar off.

2 Sam. v. 3. So all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron; and king David made a league with them in Hebron before the Lord: and they anointed David king over Israel.

5 And said unto him, Behold, thou art old, and thy sons walk not in thy ways: now (g) make us a king to judge us like all the nations.

(g) Deut. xxii. 14. When thou art come unto the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, and shalt possess it, and shalt dwell therein and shalt say, I will set a king over me, like as all the nations that are about me.

Hos. xiii. 10. I will be thy king: where is any other that may save thee in all thy cities? and thy judges, of whom thou saidst, Give me a king and princes?

11. I gave thee a king in mine anger, and took him away in my wrath.

Acts xiii. 21. And afterward they desired a king: and God gave unto them Saul the son of Cit, a man of the tribe of Benjamin by the space of forty years.

6 But the thing displeased Samuel, when they said, Give us a king to judge us. And Samuel (h) prayed unto the Lord.

(h) Ex. xxxii. 31. And Moses returned unto the Lord, and said, Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, and have made them gods of gold;

32. Yet now, if thou wilt forgive their sin: and if not, blot me, I pray thee, out of thy book which thou hast written.

Ezra ix. 3. And when I [Ezra] heard this thing, I rent my garment and my mantle, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down astonished.

4. Then were assembled unto me every one that trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of those that had been carried away; and I sat astonished until the evening sacrifice.

5. And at the evening sacrifice I arose up from my heaviness; and having rent my garment and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, and spread out my hands unto the Lord my God.

Ps. cix. 4. For my love they are my adversaries: but I gave myself unto prayer.

Luke vi. 12. And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God.

7 And the Lord said unto Samuel, (i) Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee: for (k) they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them.

(i) Ps. lxxxi. 11. But my people would not hearken to my voice: and Israel would none of me.

12. So I gave them up unto their own hearts' lust; and they walked in their own counsels.

Is. lxvi. 4. I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear; but they did evil before mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not.

(k) Ex. xvi. 8. And Moses said, This shall be, when the Lord shall give you in the evening flesh to eat, and in the morning bread to the full; for that the Lord heareth your murmurings which ye murmur against him: and what are we? your murmurings are not against us, but against the Lord.

Luke x. 16. He that heareth you heareth me; and he that despiseth you despiseth me; and he that despiseth me, despiseth him that sent me.

xix. 14. But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us.

27. But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither and slay them before me.

8 According (l) to all the works which they have done, since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even unto this day, wherewith they have forsaken me, and served other gods; so do they also unto thee.

(l) Ex. xiv. 11. And they said unto Moses, Because there were no graves in Egypt, hast thou taken us away to die in the wilderness? wherefore hast thou dealt thus with us, to carry us forth out of Egypt?

12. Is not this the word that we did tell thee in Egypt, saying, Let us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians? for it had been better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness.

xvi. 3. And the children of Israel said unto them, Would to God we had died by the hand of the Lord in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the flesh pots, and when we did eat bread to the full! for ye have brought us forth into this wilderness, to kill this whole assembly with hunger.

xvii. 2. Wherefore the people did chide with Moses, and said, Give us water that we may drink. And Moses said unto them, Why chide you with me? wherefore do ye tempt the Lord?

xxxii. 1. And when the people saw that Moses delayed to come down out of the mount, the people gathered themselves together unto Aaron, and said unto him, Up, make us gods which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt: we wot not what is become of him.

Num. xiv. 2. And all the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron: and the whole congregation said unto them, Would God that we had died in the land of Egypt! or, would God we had died in this wilderness!

3. And wherefore hath the Lord brought us into this land, to fall by the sword, that our wives and our children should be a prey? were it not better for us to return into Egypt;

4. And they said one to another, Let us make a captain, and let us return into Egypt?

xvi. 2. And they rose up before Moses, with certain of the children of Israel, two hundred and fifty princes of the assembly, famous in the congregation, men of renown.

3. And they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and said unto them, Ye take too much upon you, seeing all the congregation are holy, every one of them, and the Lord is among them: wherefore then lift you up yourselves above the congregation of the Lord?

41. But on the morrow, all the congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses, and against Aaron, saying, Ye have killed the people of the Lord.

Deut. ix. 24. You have been rebellious against the Lord from the day that I knew you.

Ps. lxxviii. 56. Yet they tempted and provoked the most high God, and kept not his testimonies;

57. But turned back, and dealt unfaithfully like their fathers: they were turned aside like a deceitful bow.

58. For they provoked him to anger with their high places, and moved him to jealousy with their graven images.

59. When God heard this, he was wroth, and greatly abhorred Israel:

evi. 14. But lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, and tempted God in the desert.

15. And he gave them their request; but sent leanness into their soul.

16. They envied Moses also in the camp, and Aaron the saint of the Lord.

17. The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram.

18. And a fire was kindled in their company; the flame burnt up the wicked.

19. They made a calf in Horeb, and worshipped the molten image.

20. Thus they changed their glory into the similitude of an ox that eateth grass.

21. They forgat God their saviour, which had done great things in Egypt;

34. They did not destroy the nations, concerning whom the Lord commanded them;

35. But were mingled among the heathen, and learned their works.

36. And they served their idols; which were a snare unto them,

37. Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto devils.

9 Now therefore, hearken unto their voice; (m) howbeit, yet protest solemnly unto them, and shew them the manner of the king that shall reign over them.

(m) Ez. iii. 17. Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me.

18. When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity: but his blood will I require at thine hand.

19. Yet if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity: but thou hast delivered thy soul.

20. Again, when a righteous man doth turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumbling-block before him, he shall die: because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he hath done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

10 ¶ And Samuel told all the words of the Lord unto the people, that asked of him a king.

11 And he said, (n) This will be the manner of the king that shall reign over you: (o) He will take your sons, and appoint them for himself, for his chariots, and to be his horsemen; and some (p) shall run before his chariots.

(n) Deut. xvii. 14. When thou art come unto the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, and shall possess it, and shalt dwell therein, and shalt say, I will set a king over me, like as all the nations that are about me;

15. Thou shalt in any wise set him king over thee whom the Lord thy God shall choose; one from among thy brethren shalt thou set king over thee: thou mayest not set a stranger over thee, which is not thy brother.

16. But he shall not multiply horses to himself, nor cause the people to return to Egypt, to the end that he should multiply horses: forasmuch as the Lord hath said unto you, Ye shall henceforth return no more that way.

17. Neither shall he multiply wives to himself, that his heart turn not away; neither shall he greatly multiply to himself silver and gold.

18. And it shall be when he sitteth upon the throne of his kingdom, that he shall write him a copy of this law in a book, out of that which is before the priests the Levites:

19. And it shall be with him, and he shall read therein all the days of his life; that he may learn to fear the Lord his God, to keep all the words of this law, and these statutes, to do them:

20. That his heart be not lifted up above his brethren, and that he turn not aside from the commandment, to the right hand or to the left; to the end that he may prolong his days in his kingdom, he and his children, in the midst of Israel.

(o) 1 Sam. xiv. 52. And there was sore war against the Philistines all the days of Saul: and when Saul saw any strong man, or any valiant man, he took him unto him.

2 Chr. xxvi. 10. Also he built towers in the desert, and digged many wells: for he had much cattle, both in the low country and in the plains; husbandmen also and vine-dressers in the mountains, and in Carmel: for he loved husbandry.

(p) 2 Sam. xv. 1. And it came to pass, after this, that Absalom prepared him chariots, and horses, and fifty men to run before him.

xviii. 46. And the hand of the Lord was on Elijah: and he girded up his loins, and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

12 And he will (q) appoint him captains over thousands, and captains over fifties, (r) and will set them to ear his ground, and to reap his harvest, and to make his instruments of war, and instruments of his chariots.

(q) 1 Chr. xxvii. 1. Now the children of Israel after their number, to wit, the chief fathers and captains of thousands and hundreds, and their officers that served the king in any matter of the courses which came in and went out month by month, throughout all the months of the year, of every course were twenty and four thousand.

13 And he will take your daughters to be confectionaries, and to be cooks, and to be bakers.

14 And he will (s) take your fields, and your vineyards, and your olive-yards, even the best of them, and (t) give them to his servants.

16 And he will take your men-servants, and your maid-servants, and your goodliest young men, and your asses, and put them to his work.

22 And the LORD said to Samuel, Hearken unto their voice, and make them a king. And Samuel said unto the men of Israel, Go ye every man unto his city.

(b) 1 Sam. xvi. 7. But the Lord said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him; for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart.

4 And he passed through (e) Mount Ephraim, and passed through the land of (f) Shalisha, but they found them not: then they passed through the land of (g) Shalim, and there they were not; and he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they found them not.

(q) Is. i. 18. Come now, and let us reason together saith the Lord: Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

Ez. xviii. 25. Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. Hear now, O house of Israel, Is not my way equal? are not your ways unequal?

26. When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and dieth in them; for his iniquity that he hath done shall he die.

27. Again, when the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive.

28. Because he considereth and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

29. Yet saith the house of Israel, The way of the Lord is not equal. O house of Israel, are not my ways equal? are not your ways unequal?

30. Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord God. Repent and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin.

Mic. vi. 2. Hear ye, O mountains, the Lord's controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for the Lord hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel.

4. For I brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the house of servants; and I sent before thee Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

3. Every place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon, that have I given unto you, as I said unto Moses.

4. From the wilderness and this Lebanon, even unto the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and unto the great sea, toward the going down of the sun shall be your coast.

6. Be strong and of a good courage; for unto this people shalt thou divide for an inheritance the land, which I sware unto their fathers to give them.

iii. 10. And Joshua said, Hereby ye shall know that the living God is among you, and that he will without fail drive out from before you the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Hivites, and the Perizzites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Jebusites.

11. Behold, the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth passeth over before you into Jordan.

12. Now therefore take you twelve men out of the tribes of Israel, out of every tribe a man.

13. And it shall come to pass, as soon as the soles of the feet of the priests that bear the ark of the Lord; the Lord of all the earth, shall rest in the waters of Jordan, that the waters of Jordan shall be cut off from the waters that come down from above; and they shall stand upon a heap.

15. Now, if thou shalt kill all this people as one man, then the nations, which have heard the fame of thee, will speak, saying,

16. Because the Lord was not able to bring this people into the land which he sware unto them, therefore he hath slain them in the wilderness.

17. And now, I beseech thee, let the power of my Lord be great, according as thou hast spoken, saying,

18. The Lord is long-suffering, and of great mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression, and by no means clearing the guilty; visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation.

20 But all the Israelites went down to the Philistines, to sharpen every man his share, and his coulter, and his axe, and his mattock.

11. Then the king sent to call Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, the priests that were in Nob: and they came all of them to the king.

38. And it was so: for he rose up early on the morrow, and thrust the fleece together, and wringed the dew out of the fleece, a bowl-full of water.

39. And Gideon said unto God, Let not thine anger be hot against me, and I will speak but this once: let me prove, I pray thee, but this once with the fleece; let it now be dry only upon the fleece, and upon all the ground let there be dew.

40. And God did so that night: for it was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

CHAPTER XV.

SAMUEL also said unto Saul, (a) The LORD sent me to anoint thee to be king over his people, over Israel: now therefore (b) hearken thou unto the voice of the words of the LORD.

(a) 1 Sam. ix. 16. To-morrow, about this time, I will send thee a man out of the land of Benjamin; and thou shalt anoint him to be captain over my people Israel, that he may save my people out of the hand of the Philistines: for I have looked upon my people, because their cry is come unto me.

11. Serve the Lord with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts. (c) I remember that which (d) Amalek did to Israel, how he laid wait for him in the way when he came up from Egypt.

(c) Hos. vii. 2. And they consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have beset them about; they are before my face.

11. And it came to pass, when Moses held up his hand, that Israel prevailed; and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed.

12. But Moses' hands were heavy; and they took a stone, and put it under him, and he sat thereon; and Aaron and Hur stayed up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side; and his hands were steady until the going down of the sun.

13. And Joshua discomfited Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

14. And the Lord said unto Moses, Write this for a memorial in a book, and rehearse it in the ears of Joshua; for I will utterly put out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven.

18. How he met thee by the way, and smote the hindmost of thee, even all that were feeble behind thee, when thou wast faint and weary; and he feared not God.

19. Therefore it shall be, when the Lord thy God hath given thee rest from all thine enemies round about, in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to possess it, that thou shalt blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven; thou shalt not forget it.

3 Now go, and smite Amalek, and (e) utterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not; but (f) slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, (g) ox and sheep, camel and ass.

19. But all the silver, and gold, and vessels of brass and iron; are consecrated unto the Lord: they shall come into the treasury of the Lord.

20. So the people shouted when the priests blew with the trumpets: and it came to pass, when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout, that the wall fell down flat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city.

21. And they utterly destroyed all that was in the city, both man and woman, young and old, and ox and sheep, and ass, with the edge of the sword.

(k) Num. xxiv. 21. And he looked on the Kenites, and took up his parable, and said, Strong is thy dwelling-place, and thou puttest thy nest in a rock.

13. For we will destroy this place, because the cry of them is waxen great before the face of the Lord; and the Lord hath sent us to destroy it.

14. And Lot went out and spake unto his sons-in-law, which married his daughters, and said, Up, get ye out of this place; for the Lord will destroy this city. But he seemed as one that mocked unto his sons-in-law.

15. And when the morning arose, then the angels hastened Lot, saying, Arise, take thy wife, and thy two daughters, which are here; lest thou be consumed in the iniquity of the city.

31. And he said, Leave us not, I pray thee; forasmuch as thou knowest how we are to encamp in the wilderness, and thou mayest be to us instead of eyes.

32. And it shall be, if thou go with us, yea, it shall be, that what goodness the Lord shall do unto us, the same will we do unto thee.

32. So they girded sackcloth on their loins, and put ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said, Thy servant Ben-hadad saith, I pray thee let me live. And he said, Is he yet alive? he is my brother.

33. Now the men did diligently observe whether any thing would come from him, and did hastily catch it: and they said, Thy brother Ben-hadad. Then he said, Go ye, bring him. Then Ben-hadad came forth to him; and he caused him to come up into the chariot.

34. And Ben-hadad said unto him, The cities which my father took from thy father I will restore; and thou shalt make streets for thee in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria. Then said Ahab, I will send thee away with this covenant. So he made a covenant with him, and sent him away.

36. Then said he unto him, Because thou hast not obeyed the voice of the Lord, behold, as soon as thou art departed from me, a lion shall slay thee. And as soon as he was departed from him, a lion found him, and slew him.

37. Then he found another man, and said, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man smote him, so that in smiting he wounded him.

38. So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and disguised himself with ashes upon his face.

39. And as the king passed by, he cried unto the king: and he said, Thy servant went out into the midst of the battle; and, behold, a man turned aside, and brought a man unto me, and said, Keep this man: if by any means he be missing, then shall thy life be for his life, or else thou shalt pay a talent of silver.

40. And as thy servant was busy here and there, he was gone. And the king of Israel said unto him, so shall thy judgment be; thyself hast decided it.

41. And he hasted, and took the ashes away from his face; and the king of Israel discerned him that he was of the prophets.

19. Notwithstanding, if the land of your possession be unclean, then pass ye over unto the land of the possession of the Lord, wherein the Lord's tabernacle dwelleth, and take possession among us: but rebel not against the Lord, nor rebel against us, in building you an altar, besides the altar of the Lord our God.

19 Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.

22. And Saul commanded his servants, saying, Commune with David secretly, and say, Behold, the king hath delight in thee, and all his servants love thee: now, therefore, be the king's son-in-law.

26 And David spake to the men that stood by him, saying, What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistine, and taketh away the (g) reproach from Israel? for who is this (h) uncircumcised Philistine, that he should (i) defy the armies of the living God?

20. And Jacob served seven years for Rachel, and they seemed unto him but a few days, for the love he had to her.

xxxiv. 3. And his [Shechem's] soul clave unto Dinah the daughter of Jacob; and he loved the damsel, and spake kindly unto the damsel.

1 Kings xi. 1. But king Solomon loved many strange women, (together with the daughter of Pharaoh,) women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonians, and Hittites:

2. Of the nations concerning which the Lord said unto the children of Israel, Ye shall not go in to them, neither shall they come in unto you: for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods. Solomon clave unto these in love.

Hos. iii. 1. Then said the Lord unto me, Go yet, love a woman beloved of her friend, yet an adulteress, according to the love of the Lord toward the children of Israel, who look to other gods, and love flagons of wine.

21 And Saul said, I will give him her, that she may be (i) a snare to him, and that (k) the hand of the Philistines may be against him. Wherefore Saul said to David, Thou shalt this day be my son-in-law in the one of the twain.

(i) Ex. x. 7. And Pharaoh's servants said unto him, How long shall this man be a snare unto us? Let the men go, that they may serve the Lord their God: Knowest thou not yet that Egypt is destroyed?

Ps. xxxviii. 12. They also that seek after my life lay snares for me; and they that seek my hurt, speak mischievous things, and imagine deceits all the day long.

Jer. v. 26. For among my people are found wicked men: they lay wait as he that setteth snares: they set a trap, they catch men.

ix. 8. Their tongue is as an arrow shot out; it speaketh deceit: one speaketh peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth; but in heart he layeth his wait.

(k) 1 Sam. xix. 11. Saul also sent messengers unto David's house, to watch him, and to slay him in the morning: and Michal, David's wife, told him, saying, If thou save not thy life to-night, to-morrow thou shalt be slain.

12. So Michal let David down through a window: and he went, and fled, and escaped.

22 And Saul (l) commanded his (m) servants, saying, Commune with David secretly, and say, Behold the king hath delight in thee, and all his servants love thee: now therefore be the king's son-in-law.

(l) Ps. xxxvi. 1. The transgression of the wicked saith within my heart, that there is no fear of God before his eyes.

2. For he flattereth himself in his own eyes, until his iniquity be found to be hateful.

3. The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit: he hath left off to be wise, and to do good.

(m) 2 Sam. xxviii. 29. And the servants of Absalom did unto Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose, and every man gat him up upon his mule, and fled.

Prov. xxix. 12. If a ruler hearken to lies, all his servants are wicked.

23 And Saul's servants spake those words in the ears of David. And David said, Seemeth it to you a light thing to be a king's son-in-law, seeing that I am (n) a poor man, and lightly esteemed?

(n) Prov. xiv. 20. The poor is hated even of his own neighbour: but the rich hath many friends.

Prov. xix. 6. Many will entreat the favour of the prince: and every man is a friend to him that giveth gifts.

7. All the brethren of the poor do hate him; how much more do his friends go far from him? he pursueth them with words, yet they are wanting to him.

Ec. ix. 15. Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man.

16. Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless, the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

24 And the servants of Saul told him, saying, On this manner spake David.

25 And Saul said, Thus shall ye say to David, The king desireth not any (o) dowry, but a hundred (p) foreskins of the Philistines, (q) to be avenged of the king's enemies. But Saul (r) thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.

(o) Gen. xxxiv. 12. Ask me never so much dowry and gift, and I will give according as ye shall say unto me; but give me the damsel to wife.

Ex. xxii. 16. And if a man entice a maid that is not betrothed, and lie with her, he shall surely endow her to be his wife.

17. If her father utterly refuse to give her unto him, he shall pay money according to the dowry of virgins.

(p) Gen. xvii. 11. And ye shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin; and it shall be a token of the covenant betwixt me and you.

Josh. v. 3. And Joshua made him sharp knives, and circumcised the children of Israel at the hill of the foreskins.

(q) 1 Sam. xiv. 24. And the men of Israel were distressed that day: for Saul had adjured the people, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth any food until evening, that I may be avenged on mine enemies. So none of the people tasted any food.

(r) 2 Sam. xvii. 8. For, said Hushai, thou knowest thy father and his men, that they be mighty men, and they be chafed in their minds, as a bear robbed of her whelps in the field: and thy father is a man of war, and will not lodge with the people.

9. Behold he is hid now in some pit, or in some other place: and it will come to pass, when some of them be overthrown at the first, that whosoever heareth it will say, There is a slaughter among the people that follow Absalom.

10. And he also that is valiant, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, shall utterly melt: for all Israel knoweth that thy father is a mighty man, and they which be with him are valiant men.

11. Therefore I counsel, that all Israel be generally gathered unto thee, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, as the sand that is by the sea for multitude, and that thou go to battle in thine own person.

26 And when his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to be the king's son-in-law: and the days were not expired.

27 Wherefore David arose, and went, he and his men, and (s) slew of the Philistines two hundred men; and David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full tale to the king, that he might be the king's son-in-law. And Saul gave him Michal his daughter to wife.

(s) Judg. xiv. 19. And the Spirit of the Lord came upon him [Samson], and he went down to Ashkelon, and slew thirty men of them, and took their spoil, and gave change of garments unto them which expounded the riddle: and his anger was kindled, and he went up to his father's house.

2 Sam iii. 14. And David sent messengers to Ish-bosheth, Saul's son, saying, Deliver me my wife Michal, which I espoused to me for a hundred foreskins of the Philistines.

28 And Saul (t) saw and knew that the LORD was with David, and that Michal, Saul's daughter, loved him.

(t) 1 Sam. xxiv. 20. And now, behold, I know well that thou shalt surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in thy hand.

xxvi. 25. Then Saul said to David, Blessed be thou, my son David: thou shalt both do great things, and also shalt still prevail. So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

29 And Saul was, (u) yet the more afraid of David, and (x) Saul became David's enemy continually.

(u) Ps. xxxvii. 12. The wicked plotteth against the just, and gnasheth upon him with his teeth.

13. The Lord shall laugh at him; for he seeth that his day is coming.

(x) John xi. 53. Then from that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death.

1 John iii. 12. Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

13. Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you.

14 We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death.

15. Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.

30 Then the princes of the Philistines (y) went forth: and it came to pass, after they went forth, that David (z) behaved himself more wisely than all the servants of Saul; so that his name was much set by.

(y) 2 Sam. xi. 1. And it came to pass, after the year was expired, at the time when kings go forth to battle, that David sent Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah. But David tarried still at Jerusalem.

(z) Luke xxi. 15. For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist.

Eph. v. 15. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise.

CHAPTER XIX.

AND (a) Saul spake to Jonathan his son, and to all his servants, that they should kill David.

(a) Prov. xxvii. 4. Wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous; but who is able to stand before envy?

2 But Jonathan, Saul's son, (b) delighted much in David: and (c) Jonathan told David, saying, Saul my father seeketh to kill thee: now therefore, I pray thee, take heed to thyself until the morning, and abide in a secret place, and hide thyself.

(b) 1 Sam. xviii. 1. And it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking unto Saul, that the soul of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David; and Jonathan loved him as his own soul.

2. And Saul took him that day, and would let him go no more home to his father's house.

3. Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul.

(c) 1 Sam. xx. 2. And he said unto him, God forbid: thou shalt not die: behold, my father will do nothing, either great or small, but that he will show it me; and why should my father hide this thing from me? it is not so.

Prov. xvii. 17. A friend loveth at all times, and a brother is born for adversity.

Acts ix. 24. But their laying await was known of Saul. And they watched the gates day and night, to kill him.

xxiii. 16. And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

3 And I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where thou art, and I will commune with my father of thee; and (d) what I see, that I will tell thee.

(d) 1 Sam. xx. 9. And Jonathan said, Far be it from thee: for if I knew certainly that evil were determined by my father to come upon thee, then would not I tell it thee?

13. The Lord do so and much more to Jonathan: but if it please my father to do the evil, then I will show it thee, and send thee away, that thou mayest go in peace: and the Lord be with thee, as he hath been with my father.

4 And Jonathan (e) spake good of David unto Saul his father, and said unto him, Let not the king (f) sin against his servant, against David, because he hath not sinned against thee, and (g) because his works have been to thee-ward very good.

(e) 1 Sam. xx. 32. And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said unto him, Wherefore shall he be slain? what hath he done?

xxii. 14. Then Ahimelech answered the king, and said, And who is so faithful among all thy servants as David, which is the king's son-in-law, and goeth at thy bidding, and is honourable in thy house?

Prov. xxiv. 11. If thou forbear to deliver them that are drawn unto death, and those that are ready to be slain;

12. If thou sayest, Behold, we know it not; doth not he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man according to his works?

xxxi. 8. Open thy mouth for the dumb in the cause of all such as are appointed to destruction.

9. Open thy mouth, judge righteously, and plead the cause of the poor and needy.

1 Sam. ii. 25. If one man sin against another, the judge shall judge him: but if a man sin against the Lord, who shall entreat for him? Notwithstanding, they hearkened not unto the voice of their father, because the Lord would slay them.

(g) Ps. xxxv. 12. They rewarded me evil for good, to the spoiling of my soul.

cix. 4. For my love they are my adversaries: but I give myself unto prayer.

5. And they have rewarded me evil for good, and hatred for my love.

Prov. xvii. 13. Whoso rewardeth evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house.

5 For he did (h) put his life in his hand, and (i) slew the Philistine, and the LORD (k) wrought a great salvation for all Israel: thou sawest it, and didst rejoice; wherefore then wilt thou (l) sin against innocent blood, to slay David (m) without a cause?

(h) Judg. xii. 3. And when I saw that ye delivered me not, I put my life in my hands, and passed over against the children of Ammon, and the Lord delivered them into my hand: wherefore then are ye come up unto me this day to fight against me?

1 Sam. xxvii. 21. And the woman came unto Saul, and saw that he was sore troubled, and said unto him, Behold, thy handmaid hath obeyed thy voice, and I have put my life in my hand, and have hearkened unto thy words which thou spakest unto me.

(i) 1 Sam. xvii. 49. And David put his hand into his bag, and took thence a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, that the stone sunk into his forehead; and he fell upon his face to the earth.

50. So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Philistine, and slew him; but there was no sword in the hand of David.

51. Therefore, David ran, and stood upon the Philistine, and took his sword, and drew it out of the sheath thereof, and slew him, and cut off his head therewith. And when the Philistines saw their champion was dead, they fled.

(k) 1 Sam. xi. 13. And Saul said, There shall not a man be put to death this day: for to-day the Lord hath wrought salvation in Israel.

xiv. 45. And the people said unto Saul, Shall Jonathan die, who hath wrought this great salvation in Israel? God forbid: as the Lord liveth, there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground: for he hath wrought with God this day. So the people rescued Jonathan, that he died not.

Heb. ii. 3. How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him?

(l) Jer. xxvi. 15. But know ye for certain, that, if ye put me to death, ye shall bring innocent blood upon yourselves, and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof: for of a truth the Lord hath sent me unto you, to speak all these words in your ears.

Matt. xxvii. 24. When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.

(m) Ps. xxv. 3. Yea, let none that wait on thee be ashamed: let them be ashamed which transgress without cause.

lxix. 4. They that hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of my head: they that would destroy me, being mine enemies wrongfully, are mighty; then I restored that which I took not away.

John xv. 25. But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause.

6 And Saul hearkened unto the voice of Jonathan: and Saul (n) sware, As the LORD liveth, he shall not be slain.

(n) 1 Sam. xiv. 39. For, as the Lord liveth, which saveth Israel, though it be in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die. But there was not a man among the people that answered him.

xxviii. And Saul sware to her by the Lord, saying, As the Lord liveth, there shall no punishment happen to thee for this thing.

7 And Jonathan called David, and Jonathan showed him all those things: and Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence (o) as in time past.

(o) 1 Sam. xvi. 21. And David came to Saul, and stood before him: and he loved him greatly; and he became his armour-bearer.

33. He maketh my feet like hind's feet, and setteth me upon my high places.

34. He teacheth my hands to war, so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.

35. Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation: and thy right hand hath holden me up, and thy gentleness hath made me great.

36. Thou hast enlarged my steps under me, that my feet did not slip.

37. I have pursued mine enemies, and overtaken them: neither did I turn again till they were consumed.

38. I have wounded them, that they were not able to rise: they are fallen under my feet.

39. For thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle: thou hast subdued under me those that rose up against me.

40. Thou hast also given me the necks of mine enemies, that I might destroy them that hate me.

41 They cried, but there was none to save them: even unto the Lord, but he answered them not.

42. Then did I beat them small as the dust before the wind: I did cast them out as the dirt in the streets.

43. Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of the people; and thou hast made me the head of the heathen: a people whom I have not known shall serve me.

44. As soon as they hear of me they shall obey me: the strangers shall submit themselves unto me.

45. The strangers shall fade away, and be afraid out of their close places.

xxvii. 3. Though a host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident.

9 And (q) the evil spirit from the LORD was upon Saul, as he sat in his house with his javelin in his hand: and David played with his hand.

(q) 1 Sam. xvi. 14. But the Spirit of the Lord departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the Lord troubled him.

xviii. 10. And it came to pass on the morrow, that the evil spirit from God came upon Saul, and he prophesied in the midst of the house; and David played with his hands as at other times: and there was a javelin in Saul's hand.

11. And Saul cast the javelin; for he said, I will smite David even to the wall with it. And David avoided out of his presence twice.

10 And Saul (r) sought to smite David even to the wall with his javelin; but (s) he slipped away out of Saul's presence, and he smote the javelin into the wall: and David fled, and escaped that night.

Matt. xii. 43. When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none.

44. Then he saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished.

45. Then goeth he, and taketh with himself, seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation.

2 Pet. ii. 20. For if, after they have escaped the pollutions of the world, through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

21. For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn away from the holy commandment delivered unto them.

22. But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and, The sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire.

John x. 39. Therefore they sought again to take him: but he escaped out of their hand.

11 Saul also (t) sent messengers unto David's house (u) to watch him, and to slay him in the morning: and Michal, David's wife, told him, saying, If thou save not thy life to-night, to-morrow thou shalt be slain.

(t) Ps. lix. 1. Deliver me from mine enemies, O my God: defend me from them that rise up against me.

2. Deliver me from the workers of iniquity, and save me from bloody men.

3. For, lo, they lie in wait for my soul; the mighty are gathered against me; not for my transgression, nor my sin, O Lord.

4. They run and prepare themselves without my fault: awake to help me, and behold.

5. Thou therefore, O Lord God of hosts, the God of Israel, awake to visit all the heathen: be not merciful to any wicked transgressors. Selah.

6. They return at evening: they make a noise like a dog, and go round about the city.

7. Behold, they belch out with their mouth: swords are in their lips; for who, say they, doth hear?

8. But thou, O Lord, shalt laugh at them; thou shalt have all the heathen in derision.

(a) 1 Sam. xxii. 17. And the king said unto the footmen that stood about him, Turn, and slay the priests of the Lord; because their hand also is with David, and because they knew when he fled, and did not show it to me. John xviii. 28. Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the hall of judgment: and it was early: and they themselves went not into the judgment-hall, lest they should be defiled, but that they might eat the passover.

25 And the king sat upon his seat, (h) as at other times, even upon a seat by the wall: and Jonathan arose, and Abner sat by Saul's side, and David's place was empty.

(h) Judg. xvi. 20. And she said, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his sleep, and said, I will go out, as at other times before, and shake myself. And he wist not that the Lord was departed from him.

26 Nevertheless Saul spake not any thing that day: for he thought, Something hath befallen him, (i) he is not clean; surely he is not clean.

(i) 1 Sam. vii. 21. Moreover the soul that shall touch any unclean thing, as the uncleanness of man, or any unclean beast, or any abominable unclean thing, and eat of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace-offerings which pertain unto the Lord, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

xi. 27. And whatsoever goeth upon his paws, among all manner of beasts that go on all four, those are unclean unto you: whoso toucheth their carcass shall be unclean until the coming.

23. And if it be on her bed, or on any thing whereon she sitteth, when he toucheth it, he shall be unclean until the even.

27 And it came to pass on the morrow, which was the second day of the month, that David's place was empty; and Saul said unto Jonathan his son, Wherefore cometh not the (k) son of Jesse to meat, neither yesterday nor to-day?

(k) 1 Sam. xxii. 7. Then Saul said unto his servants that stood about him, Hear now, ye Benjamites; will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards, and make you all captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds;

8. That all of you have conspired against me, and there is none that showeth me that my son hath made a league with the son of Jesse; and there is none of you that is sorry for me, or showeth unto me that my son hath stirred up my servant against me; to lie in wait, as at this day?

9. Then answered Doeg the Edomite, which was set over the servants of Saul, and said, I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub.

xv. 10. And Nabal answered David's servants, and said, Who is David? and who is the son of Jesse? There be many servants nowadays that break away every man from his master.

2. And the Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge, and of the fear of the Lord.

28 And Jonathan answered Saul, David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Beth-lehem:

29 And he said, Let me go, I pray thee, for our family hath a sacrifice in the city; and my brother, he hath commanded me to be there: and, now, if I have found favour in thine eyes, let me get away, I pray thee, and all my brethren: therefore he cometh not unto the king's table.

30 Then (l) Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said unto him, Thou son of the perverse rebellious woman, do not I know that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse to thine own confusion, and unto the confusion of thy mother's nakedness?

(m) 1 Sam. xix. 6. And Saul hearkened unto the voice of Jonathan: and Saul sware, As the Lord liveth, he shall not be slain.

12. So Michal let David down through a window: and he went, and fled, and escaped.

13. And Michal took an image, and laid it in the bed, and put a pillow of goat's hair for his bolster, and covered it with a cloth.

14. And when Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, He is sick.

15. And Saul sent the messengers again to see David, saying, Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may slay him.

32 And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said unto him, (n) Wherefore shall he be slain? (o) what hath he done?

(n) 1 Sam. xix. 5. For he did put his life in his hand, and slew the Philistine, and the Lord wrought a great salvation for all Israel: thou sawest it, and didst rejoice; wherefore then wilt thou sin against innocent blood, to slay David without a cause?

Prov. xxiv. 11. If thou forbear to deliver them that are drawn unto death, and those that are ready to be slain;

12. If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall he not render to every man according to his works?

33 And Saul (p) cast a javelin at him to smite him: (q) whereby Jonathan knew that it was determined of his father to slay David.

(p) 1 Sam. xviii. 11. And Saul cast the javelin; for he said, I will smite David even to the wall with it. And David avoided out of his presence twice.

(q) Ec. vii. 9. Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry: for anger resteth in the bosom of fools.

35 ¶ And it came to pass in the morning, that Jonathan went out into the field (t) at the time appointed with David, and a little lad with him.

(t) 2 Sam. xx. 5. So Amasa went to assemble the men of Judah; but he tarried longer than the set time which he had appointed him.

36 And he said unto his lad, Run, find out now the arrows which I shoot. And as the lad ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.

37 And when the lad was come to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the lad, and said, Is not the arrow beyond thee?

38 And Jonathan cried after the lad, (u) Make speed, haste, stay not. And Jonathan's lad gathered up the arrows, and came to his master.

39 But the lad knew not any thing: only Jonathan and David knew the matter.

40 And Jonathan gave his artillery unto his lad, and said unto him, Go, carry them to the city.

41 And as soon as the lad was gone, David arose out of a place toward the south, (x) and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himself three times: (y) and they kissed one another, and wept one with another, until (z) David exceeded.

CHAPTER XXI.

THEN came David to (a) Nob, to (b) Ahimelech the priest: and Ahimelech was (c) afraid at the meeting of David, and said unto him, Why art thou alone, and no man with thee?

(a) 1 Sam. xxii. 19. And Nob, the city of the priests, smote he [Saul] with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and sucklings, and oxen, and asses, and sheep, with the edge of the sword.

Is. x. 32. As yet shall he remain at Nob that day: he shall shake his hand against the mount of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.

(b) 1 Sam. xxii. 9. Then answered Doeg the Edomite, which was set over the servants of Saul, and said, I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub.

10. And he inquired of the Lord for him, and gave him victuals, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine.

11. Then the king sent to call Abimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, the priests that were in Nob: and they came all of them to the king.

12. And Saul said, Hear now, thou son of Ahitub. And he answered, Here I am, my lord.

13. And Saul said unto him, Why have ye conspired against me, thou and the son of Jesse, in that thou hast given him bread, and a sword, and hast inquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?

14. Then Ahimelech answered the king, and said, And who is so faithful among all thy servants as David, which is the king's son-in-law, and goeth at thy bidding, and is honourable in thine house?

15. Did I then begin to inquire of God for him? be it far from me. Let not the king impute any thing unto his servant, nor to all the house of my father: for thy servant knew nothing of all this, less or more.

16. And the king said, Thou shalt surely die, Ahimelech, thou, and all thy father's house.

17. And the king said unto the footmen that stood about him, Turn, and slay the priests of the Lord; because their hand also is with David, and because they knew when he fled, and did not show it to me. But the servants of the king would not put forth their hand to fall upon the priests of the Lord.

18. And the king said to Doeg, turn thou, and fall upon the priests. And Doeg the Edomite turned, and he fell upon the priests, and slew on that day fourscore and five persons that did wear a linen ephod.

19. And Nob, the city of the priests, smote he with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and sucklings, and oxen, and asses, and sheep, with the edge of the sword.

Mark. ii. 26. How he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high priest, and did eat the show-bread, which is not lawful to eat but for the priests, and gave also to them which were with him?

(c) 1 Sam. xvi. 4. And Samuel did that which the Lord spake, and came to Beth-lehem: and the elders of the town trembled at his coming, and said, Comest thou peaceably?

2 And David said unto Abimelech the priest, (d) The king hath commanded me a business, and hath said unto me, Let no man know any thing of the business whereabout I send thee, and what I have commanded thee:

and I have appointed my servants to such and such a place.

(d) Gen. xxvii. 20. And Isaac said unto his son, How is it that thou hast found it so quickly, my son? And he said, Because the Lord thy God brought it to me.

1 Kings xiii. 18. He said unto him, I am a prophet also as thou art; and an angel spake unto me by the word of the Lord, saying, Bring him back with thee unto thy house, that he may eat bread and drink water. But he lied unto him.

Gal. ii. 12. For before that certain came from James, he [Peter] did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13. And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.

Col. iii. 9. Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds.

3 Now therefore what is (e) under thine hand? give me five loaves of bread in mine hand, or what there is present.

(e) Judg. ix. 29. And would to God this people were under my hand! then would I remove Abimelech. And he said to Abimelech, Increase thine army, and come out.

Is. iii. 6. When a man shall take hold of his brother, of the house of his father, saying, Thou hast clothing, be thou our ruler, and let this ruin be under thy hand.

4 And the priest answered David, and said, There is no common bread under mine hand, but there is (f) hallowed bread; (g) if the young men have kept themselves at least from women.

(f) Ex. xxv. 30. And thou shalt set upon the table show-bread before me always.

Lev. xxiv. 5 And thou shalt take fine flour, and bake twelve cakes thereof: two tenth deals shall be in one cake.

6. And thou shalt set them in two rows, six on a row, upon the pure table before the Lord.

7. And thou shalt put pure frankincense upon each row, that it may be on the bread for a memorial, even an offering made by fire unto the Lord.

8. Every sabbath he shall set it in order before the Lord continually, being taken from the children of Israel by an everlasting covenant.

9. And it shall be Aaron's and his sons; and they shall eat it in the holy place: for it is most holy unto him of the offerings of the Lord made by fire by a perpetual statute.

Matt. xii 3. But he said unto them, have ye not read what David did when he was a hungered, and they that were with him;

4. How he entered into the house of God, and did eat the show-bread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, but only for the priests?

(g) Ex. xix. 15. And he said unto the people, Be ready against the third day: come not at your wives.

1 Cor. vii. 5. Defraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinency.

5 And David answered the priest, and said unto him, Of a truth women have been kept from us about these three days, since I came out, and (h) the vessels of the young men are holy, and the bread is (i) in a manner common, yea, though it were sanctified this day in the vessel.

(h) 1 Thes. iv. 3. For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication:

4. That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour.

2 Tim. ii. 20. But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour.

21. If a man, therefore, purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work.

(i) Lev. xxiv. 9. And it shall be Aaron's and his sons'; and they shall eat it in the holy place: for it is most holy unto him of the offerings of the Lord made by fire, by a perpetual statute.

6 So the priest (k) gave him hallowed bread: for there was no bread there but the show-bread, that was taken from before the Lord, to put (l) hot bread in the day when it was taken away.

(k) Luke vi. 3. And Jesus answering them said, Have ye not read so much as this, what David did, when himself was a hungered, and they which were with him;

4. How he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the show-bread, and gave also to them that were with him; which is not lawful to eat, but for the priests alone?

(l) Lev. xxiv. 8. Every sabbath he shall set it in order before the Lord continually, being taken from the children of Israel by an everlasting covenant.

7 Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, (m) detained before the Lord; and his name was (n) Doeg, an Edomite, the chiefest of (o) the herdmen that belonged to Saul.

27. And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him.

(n) 1 Sam. xxii. 9. Then answered Doeg the Edomite, which was set over the servants of Saul, and said, I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub.

Ps. lii. 1. Why boastest thou thyself in mischief, O mighty man? the goodness of God endureth continually.

2. Thy tongue deviseth mischiefs, like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

3. Thou lovest evil more than good, and lying rather than to speak righteousness. Selah.

4. Thou lovest all-devouring words, O thou deceitful tongue.

5. God shall likewise destroy thee for ever; he shall take thee away, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling-place, and root thee out of the land of the living. Selah.

6. The righteous also shall see, and fear, and shall laugh at him:

7. Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength; but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness.

8. But I am like a green olive-tree in the house of God: I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever.

9. I will praise thee for ever, because thou hast done it; and I will wait on thy name; for it is good before thy saints.

(o) Gen. xxvi. 20. And the herdmen of Gerar did strive with Isaac's herdmen, saying, The water is ours: and he called the name of the well Ezek; because they strove with him.

1 Chr. xxvii. 29. And over the herds that fed in Sharon, was Shitrai the Sharonite; and over the herds that were in the valleys, was Shaphat the son of Adlai.

2 Chr. xxvi. 10. Also he built towers in the desert, and digged many wells: for he had much cattle, both in the low country and in the plains; husbandmen also, and vine dressers in the mountains, and in Carmel: for he loved husbandry.

8 And David said unto Ahimelech, And is there not here under thine hand spear or sword? for I have neither brought my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king's business required haste.

9 And the priest said, (p) The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom thou slewest in (q) the valley of Elah, behold, it is here wrapped in a cloth (r) behind the ephod: if thou wilt take that, take it: for there is no other save that here. And David said, There is none like that; give it me.

(p) 1 Sam. xvii. 51. Therefore David ran, and stood upon the Philistine, and took his sword, and drew it out of the sheath thereof, and slew him, and cut off his head therewith. And when the Philistines saw their champion was dead, they fled.

52. And the men of Israel and of Judah arose, and shouted, and pursued the Philistines, until thou come to the valley, and to the gates of Ekron: and the wounded of the Philistines fell down by the way to Shaaraim, even unto Gath, and unto Ekron.

53. And the children of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistines, and they spoiled their tents.

54. And David took the head of the Philistine, and brought it to Jerusalem: but he put his armour in his tent.

(q) 1 Sam. xvii. 2. And Saul and the men of Israel were gathered together, and pitched by the valley of Elah, and set the battle in array against the Philistines.

(r) Ex. xxviii. 6. And they shall make the ephod of gold, of blue, and of purple, of scarlet, and fine twined linen, with cunning work.

7. It shall have the two shoulder-pieces thereof joined at the two edges thereof; and so it shall be joined together.

8. And the curious girdle of the ephod, which is upon it, shall be of the same, according to the work thereof; even of gold, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

9. And thou shalt take two onyx-stones, and grave on them the names of the children of Israel:

10. Six of their names on one stone, and the other six names of the rest on the other stone, according to their birth.

11. With the work of an engraver in stone, like the engravings of a signet, shalt thou engrave the two stones with the names of the children of Israel: thou shalt make them to be set in ouches of gold.

12. And thou shalt put the two stones upon the shoulders of the ephod, for stones of memorial unto the children of Israel: and Aaron shall bear their names before the Lord, upon his two shoulders, for a memorial.

13. And thou shalt make ouches of gold,

14. And two chains of pure gold at the ends; of wreathen-work shalt thou make them, and fasten the wreathen chains to the ouches.

10 ¶ And David arose, and (s) fled that day for fear of Saul, and went (t) to Achish the king of Gath.

(s) 1 Sam. xxvii. 1. And David said in his heart, I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul: there is nothing better for me than that I should speedily escape into the land of the Philistines; and Saul shall despair of me, to seek me any more in any coast of Israel: so shall I escape out of his hand.

Ps. liv. 3. For strangers are risen up against me, and oppressors seek after my soul: they have not set God before them.

2 Then (c) Saul arose, and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, having (d) three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph.

(c) 1 Sam. xxiii. 23. See therefore, and take knowledge of all the lurking places where he hideth himself, and come ye again to me with the certainty, and I will go with you: and it shall come to pass, if he be in the land, that I will search him out throughout all the thousands of Judah.

24. And they arose, and went to Ziph before Saul: but David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the plain on the south of Jeshimon.

25. Saul also and his men went to seek him. And they told David: wherefore he came down into a rock, and abode in the wilderness of Maon; and when Saul heard that, he pursued after David in the wilderness of Maon.

8. Grant not, O Lord, the desires of the wicked: further not his wicked device; lest they exalt themselves. Selah.

9. As for the head of those that compass me about, let the mischief of their own lips cover them.

(d) 1 Sam. xxxiv. 2. Then Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seek David and his men upon the rocks of the wild goats.

3 And Saul pitched in the hill of (e) Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon, by the way. But David abode in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness.

(e) Ps. xviii. 2. The Lord is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.

4 David therefore (f) sent out spies, and understood that Saul was come in very deed.

(f) Josh. ii. 1. And Joshua the son of Nun sent out of Shittim two men to spy secretly, saying, Go view the land, even Jericho. And they went, and came into a harlot's house, named Rahab, and lodged there.

Matt. x. 16. Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves.

5 And David arose, and came to the place where Saul had pitched: and David beheld the place where Saul lay, and (g) Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his host: and Saul lay in the trench, and the people pitched round about him.

(g) 1 Sam. xiv. 50. And the name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam, the daughter of Ahimaaz; and the name of the captain of his host was Abner, the son of Ner, Saul's uncle:

2 Sam. ii. 8. But Abner the son of Ner, captain of Saul's host, took Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and brought him over to Mahanaim:

9. And made him king over Gilead, and over the Ashurites, and over Jezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over all Israel.

10. Ish-bosheth, Saul's son, was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and reigned two years. But the house of Judah followed David.

11. And the time that David was king in Hebron, over the house of Judah, was seven years and six months.

12. And Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon.

13. And Joab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David, went out, and met together by the pool of Gibeon: and they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool, and the other on the other side of the pool.

14. And Abner said to Joab, Let the young men now arise, and play before us. And Joab said, Let them arise.

15. Then there arose, and went over by number, twelve of Benjamin, which pertained to Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David.

16. And they caught every one his fellow by the head, and thrust his sword in his fellow's side; so they fell down together: wherefore that place was called Helkath-hazzurim, which is in Gibeon.

iii. 7. And Saul had a concubine, whose name was Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah: and Ish-bosheth said to Abner, Wherefore hast thou gone in unto my father's concubine?

8. Then was Abner very wroth, for the words of Ish-bosheth, and said, Am I a dog's head, which against Judah do show kindness this day unto the house of Saul thy father, to his brethren, and to his friends, and have not delivered thee into the hand of David, that thou chargest me to-day with a fault concerning this woman?

6 Then answered David and said to Ahimelech the (h) Hittite, and to (i) Abishai the son of (k) Zeruiah, brother to Joab, saying, (l) Who will go down with me to Saul to the camp? And Abishai said, I will go down with thee.

(h) Gen. xv. 20. And the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Rephaims.

2 Sam. xi. 6. And David sent to Joab, saying, Send me Uriah the Hittite. And Joab sent Uriah to David.

xii. 9. Wherefore hast thou despised the commandment of the Lord, to do evil in his sight? Thou hast killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slain him with the sword of the children of Ammon.

xxiii. 39. Uriah the Hittite: thirty and seven in all.

(i) 2 Sam. ii. 18. And there were three sons of Zeruiah there, Joab, and Abishai, and Asahel; and Asahel was as light of foot as a wild roe.

1 Chr. ii. 16. Whose sisters were Zeruiah, and Abigail. And the sons of Zeruiah; Abishai, and Joab, and Asahel, three.

(k) 2 Sam. xvi. 9. Then said Abishai the son of Zeruiah unto the king, Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? let me go over, I pray thee, and take off his head.

10. And the king said, What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah? So let him curse, because the Lord hath said unto him, Curse David. Who shall then say, Wherefore hast thou done so?

(l) Judg. vii. 10. But if thou fear to go down, go thou with Phurah thy servant down to the host:

11. And thou shalt hear what they say; and afterward shall thy hands be strengthened to go down unto the host. Then went he down with Phurah his servant unto the outside of the armed men that were in the host.

1 Sam. xiv. 6. And Jonathan said to the young man that bare his armour, Come, and let us go over unto the garrison of these uncircumcised: it may be that the Lord will work for us: for there is no restraint to the Lord to save by many or by few.

7. And his armour-bearer said unto him, Do all that is in thy heart: turn thee; behold, I am with thee according to thy heart.

7 So David and Abishai came to the people by night: and, behold, Saul lay (m) sleeping within the trench, and his spear stuck in the ground at his bolster: but Abner and the people lay round about him.

(m) 1 Thess. v. 2. For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

3. For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

8 Then said Abishai to David, (n) God hath delivered thine enemy into thine hand this day: now therefore let me smite him, I pray thee, with the spear, even to the earth at once, and I will not smite him (o) the second time.

(n) Josh. xxi. 44. And the Lord gave them rest round about, according to all that he sware unto their fathers: and there stood not a man of all their enemies before them; the Lord delivered all their enemies into their hand.

Judg. i. 4. And Judah went up; and the Lord delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand: and they slew of them in Bezek ten thousand men.

1 Sam. xxiii. 14. And David abode in the wilderness in strong holds, and remained in a mountain in the wilderness of Ziph: and Saul sought him every day; but God delivered him not into his hand.

xxiv. 4. And the men of David said unto him, Behold the day of which the Lord said unto thee, Behold, I will deliver thine enemy into thy hand, that thou mayest do to him as it shall seem good unto thee. Then David arose, and cut off the skirt of Saul's robe privily.

18. And thou hast showed this day how that thou hast dealt well with me: forasmuch as, when the Lord had delivered me into thy hand, thou killedst me not.

(o) Nah. i. 9. What do ye imagine against the Lord? he will make an utter end: affliction shall not rise up the second time.

9 And David said to Abishai, Destroy him not: for (p) who can stretch forth his hand against the LORD's anointed and be guiltless?

(p) 1 Sam. xxiv. 6. And he said unto his men, The Lord forbid that I should do this thing unto my master, the Lord's anointed, to stretch forth my hand against him, seeing he is the anointed of the Lord.

7. So David stayed his servants with these words, and suffered them not to rise against Saul. But Saul rose up out of the cave, and went on his way.

2 Sam. i. 14. And David said unto him, How, wast thou not afraid to stretch forth thy hand to destroy the Lord's anointed?

Ps. cv. 15. Saying, touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm.

10 David said furthermore, As (q) the LORD liveth, the LORD shall smite him; or (r) his day shall come to die; or (s) he shall descend into battle, and perish.

(q) 1 Sam. xxv. 38. And it came to pass, about ten days after, that the Lord smote Nabal, that he died.

Ps. xciv. 23. And he shall bring upon them their own iniquity, and shall cut them off in their own wickedness; yea, the Lord our God shall cut them off.

2 Sam. xiv. 14. For we must needs die, and are as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again: neither doth God respect any person; yet doth he devise means that his banished be not expelled from him.

Job vii. 1. Is there not an appointed time to man upon earth? are not his days also like the days of an hireling?

Ps. xxxviii. 13. The Lord shall laugh at him; for he seeth that his day is coming.

(s) 1 Sam. xxxi. 6. So Saul died, and his three sons, and his armour-bearer, and all his men, that same day together.

11 The LORD forbid that I should stretch forth mine hand against the Lord's anointed: but, I pray thee, take thou now the spear that is at his bolster, and the cruse of water, and let us go.

12 So David took (t) the spear and the cruse of water from Saul's bolster; and they gat them away, and no man saw it, nor knew it, neither awaked: for they were all asleep; because (u) a deep sleep from the LORD was fallen upon them.

(t) 1 Sam. xxiv. 5. And it came to pass afterward, that David's heart smote him, because he had cut off Saul's skirt.

(u) Gen. ii. 21. And the Lord God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept; and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof.

xv. 12. And when the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram; and, lo, a horror of great darkness fell upon him.

Is. xxix. 10. For the Lord hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and hath closed your eyes: the prophets, and your rulers, the seers, hath he covered.

13 ¶ Then David went over to the other side, and stood on (x) the top of the hill afar off; a great space being between them:

(x) Judg. ix. 7. And when they told it to Jotham, he went and stood in the top of Mount Gerizim, and lifted up his voice, and cried, and said unto them, Hearken unto me, ye men of Shechem, that God may hearken unto you.

1 Sam. xxiv. 8. David also rose afterwards, and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul, saying, My lord the king. And when Saul looked behind him, David stooped with his face to the earth, and bowed himself.

14 And David cried to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, Answerest thou not, Abner? Then Abner answered and said, Who art thou that criest to the king?

15 And David said to Abner, Art not thou a valiant man? and who is like to thee in Israel! wherefore then hast thou not kept thy lord the king? for there came one of the people in to destroy the king thy lord.

16 This thing is not good that thou hast done. As the LORD liveth ye are worthy to die, because ye have not kept your master, the LORD's anointed. And now see where the king's spear is and the cruse of water that was at his bolster.

17 And Saul knew David's voice, and said, (y) Is this thy voice, my son David? And David said, It is my voice, my lord, O king.

11. And the servants of Achish said unto him, Is not this David the king of the land? did they not sing one to another of him in dances, saying, Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands?

12. And David laid up these words in his heart, and was sore afraid of Achish the king of Gath.

13. And he changed his behaviour before them, and feigned himself mad in their hands, and scrabbled on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle fall down upon his beard.

14. Then said Achish unto his servants, Lo, ye see the man is mad; wherefore then have ye brought him to me?

15. Have I need of madmen, that ye have brought this fellow to play the madman in my presence? shall this fellow come into my house?

(f) 1 Sam. xxv. 39. And when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, Blessed be the Lord, that hath pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and hath kept his servant from evil: for the Lord hath returned the wickedness of Nabal upon his own head. And David sent and communed with Abigail, to take her to him to wife.

40. And when the servants of David were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spake unto her, saying, David sent us unto thee to take thee to him to wife.

41. And she arose, and bowed herself on her face to the earth, and said, Behold, let thine handmaid be a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord.

42. And Abigail hasted, and arose, and rode upon an ass, with five damsels of her's that went after her; and she went after the messengers of David, and became his wife.

7 And the time that David dwelt in the country of the Philistines was a full year and four months.

8 ¶ And David and his men went up, and invaded the (k) Geshurites, and (l) the Gezrites, and (m) the Amalekites: for those nations were of old the inhabitants of the land, (n) as thou goest to Shur, even unto the land of Egypt.

(k) Josh. xiii. 2. This is the land that yet remaineth: all the borders of the Philistines and all Geshuri.

18. How he met thee by the way, and smote the hindmost of thee, even all that were feeble behind thee, when thou wast faint and weary; and he feared not God.

19. Therefore it shall be when the Lord thy God hath given thee rest from all thine enemies round about, in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to possess it, that thou shalt blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven; thou shalt not forget it.

3. Namely, five lords of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites that dwelt in Mount Lebanon, from Mount Baal-hermon unto the entering in of Hamath.

4. And they were to prove Israel by them, to know whether they would hearken unto the commandments of the Lord, which he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.

(b) 1 Sam. xxix. 2. And the lords of the Philistines passed on by hundreds and by thousands: but David and his men passed on in the rearward with Achish.

18. And Hushai said unto Absalom, Nay, but whom the Lord, and this people, and all the men of Israel, choose, his will I be, and with him will I abide.

18. And this did she many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned, and said to the spirit, I command thee, in the name of Jesus Christ, to come out of her. And he came out the same hour.

19. And when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the market-place unto the rulers.

19. For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, How are we spoiled! we are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because our dwellings have cast us out.

20. Yet hear the word of the Lord, O ye women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth, and teach your daughters wailing, and every one her neighbour lamentation:

21. For death is come up into our windows, and is entered into our palaces, to cut off the children from without, and the young men from the streets.

10 Ish-bosheth, Saul's son, was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and reigned two years: but the house of Judah followed David.

13 And (u) Joab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David, went out and met together by the (x) pool of Gibeon: and they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool, and the other on the other side of the pool.

(u) 2 Sam. viii. 16. And Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was over the host; and Jehoshaphat, the son of Ahilud, was recorder.

xx. 23. Now Joab was over all the host of Israel: and Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, was over the Cherethites, and over the Pelethites.

1 Kings i. 7. And he conferred with Joab, the son of Zeruiah, and with Abiathar the priest: and they, following Adonijah, helped him.

ii. 28. Then tidings came to Joab; for Joab had turned after Adonijah, though he turned not after Absalom; and Joab fled unto the tabernacle of the Lord, and caught hold on the horns of the altar.

29. And it was told king Solomon that Joab was fled unto the tabernacle of the Lord; and behold, he is by the altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, Go, fall upon him.

30. And Benaiah came to the tabernacle of the Lord, and said unto him, Thus saith the king, Come forth. And he said, Nay; but I will die here. And Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me.

31. And the king said unto him, Do as he hath said, and fall upon him, and bury him; that thou mayest take away the innocent blood which Joab shed from me, and from the house of my father.

32. And the Lord shall return his blood upon his own head, who fell upon two men more righteous and better than he, and slew them with the sword, my father David not knowing thereof, to wit, Abner the son of Ner, captain of the host of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, captain of the host of Judah.

33. Their blood shall therefore return upon the head of Joab, and upon the head of his seed for ever: but upon David and upon his seed, and upon his house, and upon his throne, shall there be peace for ever from the Lord.

34. So Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and fell upon him, and slew him; and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness.

35. And the king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his room over the host; and Zadok the priest did the king put in the room of Abiathar.

(x) Jer. xli. 12. Then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, and found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon.

14 And Abner said to Joab, Let the young men now arise, and (y) play before us. And Joab said, Let them arise.

15 Then there arose and went over by number twelve of Benjamin, which pertained to Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David.

16 And they caught every one his fellow by the head, and thrust his sword in his fellow's side; so they fell down together: wherefore that place was called Helkath-haggarim, which is in Gibeon.

17 And there was a very sore battle that day: and Abner was beaten, and the men of Israel, before the servants of David.

18 And there were (z) three sons of Zeruiah there, Joab, and Abishai, and Asahel: and Asahel (a) was as light of foot as a wild roe.

(z) 1 Chr. ii. 15. Ozem the sixth, David the seventh:

19 And Asahel pursued after Abner; and in going he (b) turned not to the right hand nor to the left, from following Abner.

(b) Josh. i. 7. Only be thou strong and very courageous, that thou mayest observe to do according to all the law which Moses my servant commanded thee: turn not from it to the right hand or to the left, that thou mayest prosper whithersoever thou goest.

20 Then Abner looked behind him, and said, Art thou Asahel? And he answered I am.

21 And Abner said to him, Turn thee aside to thy right hand or to thy left, and lay thee hold on one of the young men, and take thee his armour. But Asahel would not turn aside from following of him.

22 And Abner said again to Asahel, Turn thee aside from following me; (c) wherefore should I smite thee to the ground? (d) how then should I hold up my face to Joab thy brother?

(c) Kings xiv. 10. Thou hast indeed smitten Edom, and thine heart hath lifted thee up: glory of this, and tarry at home; for why shouldest thou meddle to thy heart, that thou shouldest fall, even thou, and Judah with thee?

(d) 2 Sam. iii. 27. And when Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside in the gate, to speak with him quietly; and smote him there under the fifth rib, that he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother.

23 Howbeit he refused to turn aside: wherefore Abner with the hinder end of the spear smote him under (e) the fifth rib, that the spear came out behind him; and he fell down there, and died in the same place: and it came to pass, that as many as came to the place where Asahel fell down and died, (f) stood still.

(e) 2 Sam. iv. 6. And they came thither into the midst of the house, as though they would have fetched wheat: and they smote him under the fifth rib: and Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped.

(f) 2 Sam. xx. 12. And Amasa wallowed in blood in the midst of the highway: and when the man saw that all the people stood still he removed Amasa out of the highway into the field, and cast a cloth upon him, when he saw that every one that came by him stood still.

24 Joab also and Abishai pursued after Abner: and the sun went down when they were come to the hill of Ammah, that lieth before Giah, by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon.

25 And the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and became one troop, and stood on the top of an hill.

26 Then Abner called to Joab, and said, Shall the (g) sword devour for ever? knowest thou not that it will be bitterness in the latter end? (h) how long shall it be then ere thou bid the people return from following their brethren?

(g) 2 Sam. xi. 25. Then David said unto the messenger, Thus shalt thou say unto Joab, Let not this thing displease thee: for the sword devoureth one as well as another: make thy battle more strong against the city, and overthrow it, and encourage thou him.

27 And Joab said, As (i) God liveth, (k) unless thou hadst spoken, surely then in the morning the people had gone up every one from following his brother.

(i) 1 Sam. xxv. 26. Now, therefore, my lord, as the Lord liveth, and as thy soul liveth, seeing the Lord hath withholden thee from coming to shed blood, and from avenging thyself with thine own hand, now let thine enemies, and they that seek evil to my lord, be as Nabal.

(k) Prov. xv. 1. A soft answer turneth away wrath: but grievous words stir up anger.

28 So Joab blew a trumpet, and all the people stood still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they any more.

29 And Abner and his men walked all that night through the plain, and passed over Jordan, and went through all (l) Bithron, and they came to Mahanaim.

(l) Cant. ii. 17. Until the day break, and the shadows flee away: turn, my beloved; and be thou like a roe, or a young hart, upon the mountains of Bether.

10. And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and spread it for her upon the rock, from the beginning of harvest until water dropped upon them out of heaven, and suffered neither the birds of the air to rest on them by day nor the beasts of the field by night.

8 Then was Abner (o) very wroth for the words of Ish-bosheth, and said, Am (p) I a dog's head, which against Judah do show kindness this day unto the house of Saul thy father, to his brethren and to his friends, and have not delivered thee into the hand of David, that thou chargest me to-day with a fault concerning this woman?

42. And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, Because the king is near of kin to us: wherefore then be ye angry for this matter? have we eaten at all of the king's cost? or hath he given us any gift?
43. And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, We have ten parts in the king, and we have also more right in David than ye: why then did ye despise us, that our advice should not be first had in bringing back our king? And the words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

(z) 1 Sam. xviii. 20. And Michal, Saul's daughter, loved David: and they told Saul, and the thing pleased him.

22. And Saul commanded his servants, saying, Commune with David secretly, and say, Behold, the king hath delight in thee, and all his servants love thee: now, therefore, be the king's son-in-law.
23. And Saul's servants spake those words in the ears of David. And David said, Seemeth it to you a light thing to be a king's son-in-law, seeing that I am a poor man, and lightly esteemed?
24. And the servants of Saul told him, saying, On this manner spake David.
25. And Saul said, Thus shall ye say to David, The king desireth not any dowry, but an hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to be avenged of the king's enemies. But Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.
26. And when his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to be the king's son-in-law: and the days were not expired.
27. Wherefore David arose, and went, he and his men, and slew of the Philistines two hundred men; and David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full tale to the king, that he might be the king's son-in-law. And Saul gave him Michal his daughter to wife.
28. And Saul saw and knew that the Lord was with David, and that Michal, Saul's daughter, loved him.
xix. 11. Saul also sent messengers unto David's house to watch him, and to slay him in the morning: and Michal, David's wife, told him, saying, If thou save not thy life to-night, to-morrow thou shalt be slain.

17 And Abner had communication with the elders of Israel, saying, Ye sought for David in times past to be king over you:

33. And the man of thine, whom I shall not cut off from mine altar, shall be to consume thine eyes, and to grieve thine heart: and all the increase of thine house shall die in the flower of their age.

34. And this shall be a sign unto thee, that shall come upon thy two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas; in one day they shall die both of them.

35. And I will raise me up a faithful priest, that shall do according to that which is in mine heart, and in my mind: and I will build him a sure house; and he shall walk before mine Anointed for ever.

36. And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left in thine house shall come and crouch to him for a piece of silver and a morsel of bread, and shall say, Put me, I pray thee, into one of the priest's offices, that I may eat a piece of bread.

Ps. cix. 8. Let his days be few, and let another take his office.

9. Let his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow.

10. Let his children be continually vagabonds, and beg: let them seek their bread also out of their desolate places.

11. Let the extortioner catch all that he hath; and let the stranger spoil his labour.

12. Let there be none to extend mercy unto him; neither let there be any to favour his fatherless children.

13. Let his posterity be cut off; and in the generation following let their name be blotted out.

14. Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with the Lord; and let not the sin of his mother be blotted out.

15. Let them be before the Lord continually, that he may cut off the memory of them from the earth.

16. Because that he remembered not to show mercy, but persecuted the poor and needy man, that he might even slay the broken in heart.

17. As he loved cursing, so let it come unto him; as he delighteth not in blessing, so let it be far from him.

18. As he clothed himself with cursing like as with his garment, so let it come into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones.

19. Let it be unto him as the garment which covereth him, and for a girdle wherewith he is girded continually.

(u) Lev. xiii. 44. He is a leprous man, he is unclean: the priest shall pronounce him utterly unclean: his plague is in his head.

45. And the leper, in whom the plague is, his clothes shall be rent, and his head bare, and he shall put a covering upon his upper lip, and shall cry, Unclean, unclean.

46. All the days wherein the plague shall be in him he shall be defiled; he is unclean: he shall dwell alone; without the camp shall his habitation be.

2 Kings v. 1. Now Naaman, captain of the host of the king of Syria, was a great man with his master, and honourable; because by him the Lord had given deliverance unto Syria: he was also a mighty man in valour; but he was a leper.

30 So Joab and Abishai his brother (x) slew Abner, (y) because he had slain their brother Asahel at Gibeon in the battle.

(x) Prov. xxviii. 17. A man that doeth violence to the blood of any person shall flee to the pit; let no man stay him.

(y) 2 Sam. ii. 23. Howbeit, he refused to turn aside: wherefore Abner, with the hinder end of the spear, smote him under the fifth rib, that the spear came out behind him; and he fell down there, and died in the same place: and it came to pass, that as many as came to the place where Asahel fell down and died, stood still.

31 And David said to Joab, and to all the people that were with him, (z) Rend your clothes, and gird you with sackcloth, and mourn before Abner. And king David himself followed the bier.

2 Kings xix. 1. And it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the Lord.

32 And they buried Abner in Hebron: and the king (a) lifted up his voice, and wept at the grave of Abner; and all the people wept.

(a) 1 Sam. xxx. 4. Then David and the people that were with him lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep.

33 And the king lamented over Abner, and said, Died Abner (b) as a fool dieth.

(b) 2 Sam. xiii. 28. Now Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, Mark ye now when Amnon's heart is merry with wine; and when I say unto you, Smite Amnon, then kill him, fear not: have not I commanded you? be courageous, and be valiant.

29. And the servants of Absalom did unto Amnon as Absalom had commanded: then all the king's sons arose, and every man gat him up upon his mule and fled.

Ec. ii. 15. Then said I in my heart, As it happeneth to the fool, so it happeneth even to me; and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity.

16. For there is no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool for ever; seeing that which now is in the days to come shall all be forgotten: and how dieth the wise man? as the fool.

Luke xii. 19. And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.

20. But God said unto him, Thou fool! this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be which thou hast provided?

34 Thy (c) hands were not bound, nor thy feet put into fetters: as a man falleth before wicked men, so fellest thou. And all the people wept again over him.

22. And ye shall do as I have done: ye shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men.

(e) Judg. xx. 26. Then all the children of Israel and all the people, went up, and came unto the house of God, and wept, and sat there before the Lord, and fasted that day until even, and offered burnt-offerings and peace-offerings before the Lord.

37 For all the people, and all Israel, understood that day, that it was not of the king to slay Abner the son of Ner.

38 And the king said unto his servants, Know ye not that there is (g) a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?

(g) 1 Sam. xiv. 50. And the name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam, the daughter of Ahimaaz: and the name of the captain of his host was Abner, the son of Ner, Saul's uncle:

51. And Kish was the father of Saul; and Ner, the father of Abner, was the son of Abiel.

Job xxxii. 9. Great men are not always wise; neither do the aged understand judgment.

39 And (h) I am this day weak, though anointed king; and these men, (i) the sons of Zeruiah, be (k) too hard for me: (l) the LORD shall reward the doer of evil according to his wickedness.

(h) Ex. xxi. 12. He that smiteth a man, so that he die, shall be surely put to death.

(k) 2 Sam. xix. 7. Now therefore, arise, go forth, and speak comfortably unto thy servants: for I swear by the Lord, if thou go not forth, there will not tarry one with thee this night: and that will be worse unto thee than all the evil that befel thee from thy youth until now.

(l) 1 Kings ii. 5. Moreover, thou knowest also what Joab, the son of Zeruiah, did to me, and what he did to the two captains of the host of Israel, unto Abner the son of Ner, and unto Amasa, the son of Jether, whom he slew, and shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war upon his girdle that was about his loins, and in his shoes that were on his feet.

6. Do, therefore, according to thy wisdom, and let not his hoar head go down to the grave in peace.

33. Their blood shall, therefore, return upon the head of Joab, and upon the head of his seed for ever: but upon David, and upon his seed, and upon his house, and upon his throne, shall there be peace for ever from the Lord.

34. So Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, went up, and fell upon him, and slew him; and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness.

(b) Matt. ii. 3. When Herod the king had heard these things he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

2 And Saul's son had two men that were (c) captains of bands; the name of the one was Baanah, and the name of the other Rechab, the sons of Rimmon a Beerothite, of the children of Benjamin: (for (d) Beeroth also was reckoned to Benjamin:

(c) 2 Kings v. 2. And the Syrians had gone out by companies, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maid, and she waited on Naaman's wife.

vi. 23. And he prepared great provision for them: and when they had eaten and drunk he sent them away, and they went to their master. So the bands of Syria came no more into the land of Israel.

(d) Josh. ix. 17. And the children of Israel journeyed, and came unto their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon, and Chephirah, and Beereth, and Kirjath-jearim.

3 And the Beerothites (e) fled to Gittaim, and where sojourners there until this day.)

(e) 1 Sam. xxxi. 7. And when the men of Israel that were on the other side of the valley, and they that were on the other side Jordan, saw that the men of Israel fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook the cities, and fled; and the Philistines came, and dwelt in them.

4 And Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son that was lame of his feet. He was five years old when (f) the tidings came of Saul and Jonathan out of Jezreel, and his nurse took him up and fled: and it came to pass, as she made haste to flee, that he fell, and became lame. And his name was (g) Mephibasheth.

(f) 1 Sam. xxix. 1. Now the Philistines gathered together all their armies to Aphek: and the Israelites pitched by a fountain which is in Jezreel.

And when they were departed from him (for they left him in great diseases) his own servants conspired against him, for the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the priest, and slew him on his bed, and he died: and they buried him in the city of David, but they buried him not in the sepulchres of the kings.

1 Thess. v. 3. For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

4. But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

5. Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.

6. Therefore let us not sleep, as do others, but let us watch and be sober.

7. For they that sleep, sleep in the night; and they that be drunken, are drunken in the night.

6 And they came thither into the midst of the house, as though they would have fetched wheat? and they smote him (k) under the fifth rib: and Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped.

(k) 2 Sam. iii. 27. And when Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside in the gate, to speak with him quietly; and smote him there under the fifth rib, that he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother.

Then he wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, If ye be mine, and if ye will hearken unto my voice, take ye the heads of the men your master's sons, and come to me to Jezreel by to-morrow this time. Now the king's sons, being seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, which brought them up.

7. And it came to pass, when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons, and slew seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent him them to Jezreel.

29. And when his disciples heard of it they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

8 And they brought the head of Ish-bosheth unto David to Hebron, and said to the king, Behold the head of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, thine enemy, which (m) sought thy life; and (n) the LORD hath avenged my lord the king this day of Saul, and of his seed.

(m) 1 Sam. xviii. 11. And Saul cast the javelin; for he said, I will smite David even to the wall with it. And David avoided out of his presence twice.

xix. 2. But Jonathan, Saul's son, delighted much in David: and Jonathan told David, saying, Saul my father seeketh to kill thee. Now therefore, I pray thee, take heed to thyself until the morning, and abide in a secret place, and hide thyself:

3. And I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where thou art, and I will commune with my father of thee; and what I see, that I will tell thee.

4. And Jonathan spake good of David unto Saul his father, and said unto him, Let not the king sin against his servant, against David; because he hath not sinned against thee, and because his works have been to thee-ward very good:

5. For he did put his life in his hand, and slew the Philistine, and the Lord wrought a great salvation for all Israel: thou sawest it, and didst rejoice: wherefore then wilt thou sin against innocent blood, to slay David without a cause?

6. And Saul hearkened unto the voice of Jonathan; and Saul sware, As the Lord liveth, he shall not be slain.

7. And Jonathan called David, and Jonathan showed him all those things: and Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence, as in times past.

8. And there was war again: and David went out and fought with the Philistines, and slew them with a great slaughter; and they fled from him.

9. And the evil spirit from the Lord was upon Saul, as he sat in his house with his javelin in his hand: and David played with his hand.

10. And Saul sought to smite David even to the wall with the javelin; but he slipped away out of Saul's presence, and he smote the javelin into the wall: and David fled, and escaped that night.

Luke xviii. 7. And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with him?

8. I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?

Rev. vi. 10. And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and revenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

xviii. 20. Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her.

18. And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

10 When (p) one told me, saying, Behold, Saul is dead, (thinking to have brought good tidings,) I took hold of him, and slew him in Ziklag, who thought that I would have given him a reward for his tidings:

(p) 2 Sam. i. 2. It came even to pass on the third day, that, behold, a man came out of the camp from Saul, with his clothes rent, and earth upon his head: and so it was when he came to David, that he fell to the earth, and did obeisance.

3. And David said unto him from whence comest thou? And he said unto him, Out of the camp of Israel am I escaped.

4. And David said unto him, How went the matter? I pray thee, tell me. And he answered, That the people are fled from the battle, and many of the people also are fallen and dead; and Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also.

5. And David said unto the young man that told him, How knowest thou that Saul and Jonathan his son be dead?

6. And the young man that told him said, As I happened by chance upon Mount Gilboa, behold, Saul leaned upon his spear; and, lo, the chariots and horsemen followed hard after him.

7. And when he looked behind him, he saw me, and called unto me: and I answered, Here am I.

8. And he said unto me, Who art thou? And I answered him, I am an Amalekite.

He said unto me again, Stand, I pray thee, upon me, and slay me; for anguish is come upon me, because my life is yet whole in me.

10. So I stood upon him, and slew him, because I was sure that he could not live after that he was fallen; and I took the crown that was upon his head, and the bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them hither unto my lord.

11. Then David took hold on his clothes, and rent them; and likewise all the men were with him.

12. And they mourned, and wept, and fasted until even, for Saul, and for Jonathan his son, and for the people of the Lord, and for the house of Israel; because they were fallen by the sword.

13. And David said unto the young man that told him, Whence art thou? And he answered, I am the son of a stranger, an Amalekite.

16. And David said unto him, Thy blood be upon thy head; for thy mouth hath testified against thee, saying, I have slain the Lord's anointed.

11 How much more, (q) when wicked men have slain a righteous person in his own house upon his bed! shall I not therefore now (r) require his blood of your hand, and take you away (s) from the earth?

(q) 1 Kings ii. 32. And the Lord shall return his blood upon his own head, who fell upon two men more righteous and better than he, and slew them with the sword; my father David not knowing thereof, to wit, Abner, the son of Ner, captain of the host of Israel, and Amasa, the son of Jether, captain of the host of Judah.

5. That I may perform the oath which I have sworn unto your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day. Then answered I, and said, So be it, O Lord.

Ez. xxxvi. 37. Thus saith the Lord God, I will yet for this be inquired of by the house of Israel to do it for them; I will increase them with men like a flock.

12. Both riches and honour come of thee, and thou reignest over all; and in thine hand is power and might, and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all.

24. Let it even be established, that thy name may be magnified for ever, saying, The Lord of hosts is the God of Israel, even a God to Israel: and let the house of David thy servant be established before thee.

27 For thou, O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, hast revealed to thy servant, saying, I will build thee an house: therefore hath thy servant (p) found in his heart to pray this prayer unto thee.

(p) 1 Chr. xvii. 25. For thou, O my God, hast told thy servant, that thou wilt build him an house; therefore thy servant hath found in his heart to pray before thee.

26. And now, Lord, thou art God, and hast promised this goodness unto thy servant.

Ps. x. 17. Lord, thou hast heard the desire of the humble: thou wilt prepare their heart, thou wilt cause thine ear to hear.

19. And there was again a battle in Gob with the Philistines, where Elhanan the son of Jaare-oregim, a Beth-lehemite, slew the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

20. And there was yet a battle in Gath, where was a man of great stature, that had on every hand six fingers, and on every foot six toes, four and twenty in number; and he also was born to the giant.

21. And when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimeah, the brother of David, slew him.

22. These four were born to the giant in Gath, and fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

2 And (b) he smote Moab, and (c) measured them with a line, casting them down to the ground; even with two lines measured he to put to death, and with one full line to keep alive: (d) and so the Moabites became David's servants, and (e) brought gifts.

2. And the king said unto Ziba, What meanest thou by these? And Ziba said, The asses be for the king's household to ride on; and the bread and summer-fruit for the young men to eat: and the wine, that such as be faint in the wilderness may drink.

3. And the king said, And where is thy master's son? And Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he abideth at Jerusalem: for he said, To-day shall the house of Israel restore me the kingdom of my father.

4. Then said the king to Ziba, behold, thine are all that pertain unto Mephibosheth. And Ziba said, I humbly beseech thee that I may find grace in thy sight, my lord, O king.

xix. 17. And there were a thousand men of Benjamin with him, and Ziba, the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons, and his twenty servants with him, and they went over Jordan before the king.

3 And the king said, Is there not yet any of the house of Saul, that I may show (d) the kindness of God unto him? And Ziba said unto the king, Jonathan hath (e) yet a son, which is lame on his feet.

(d) Deut. iv. 37. And because he loved thy fathers, therefore he chose their seed after them, and brought them out in his sight with the mighty power out of Egypt.

4. But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared.

(e) 2 Sam. iv. 4. And Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son that was lame of his feet. He was five years old when the tidings came of Saul and Jonathan out of Jezreel, and his nurse took him up, and fled: and it came to pass, as she made haste to flee, that he fell, and became lame; and his name was Mephibosheth.

xix. 26. And he answered, My lord, O king, my servant deceived me: for thy servant said, I will saddle me an ass, that I may ride thereon, and go to the king; because thy servant is lame.

4 And the king said unto him, Where is he? And Ziba said unto the king, Behold he is in the house of (f) Machir, the son of Ammiel, in Lo-debar.

(f) 2 Sam. xvii. 27. And it came to pass, when David was come to Mahanaim, that Shobi, the son of Nahash of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and Machir, the son of Ammiel of Lodebar, and Barzillai the Gileadite of Rogelim,

28. Brought beds, and basins, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and flour, and parched corn, and beans, and lentiles, and parched pulse,

29. And honey, and butter, and sheep, and cheese of kine, for David, and for the people that were with him, to eat: for they said, The people is hungry, and weary, and thirsty, in the wilderness.

5 Then king David sent, and fetched him out of the house of Machir, the son of Ammiel, from Lo-debar.

6 Now when Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, was come unto David, (g) he fell on his face, and did reverence. And David said, Mephibosheth. And he answered, Behold thy servant.

(g) Gen. xviii. 2. And he lifted up his eyes and looked, and, lo, three men stood by him: and, when he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent-door, and bowed himself toward the ground.

30. And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary; for thou hast found favour with God.

(i) 2 Sam. xix. 28. For all of my father's house were but dead men before my lord the king; yet didst thou set thy servant among them that did eat at thine own table; what right, therefore, have I yet to cry any more unto the king?

1 Kings ii. 7. But show kindness unto the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be of those that eat at thy table: for so they came to me when I fled because of Absalom thy brother.

Jer. lii. 33. And changed his prison-garments; and he did continually eat bread before him all the days of his life.

34. And for his diet there was a continual diet given him of the king of Babylon, every day a portion, until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

(k) Matt. xv. 26. But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs.

27. And she said, Truth, Lord; yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their master's table.

9 Then the king called to Ziba, Saul's servant, and said unto him, (l) I have given unto thy master's son all that pertained to Saul, and to all his house.

(l) Is. xxxii. 8. But the liberal deviseth liberal things, and by liberal things shall he stand.

10 Thou, therefore, and thy sons, and thy servants, shall till the land for him, and thou shalt bring in the fruits, that thy master's son may have food to eat: but Mephibosheth thy master's son shall eat bread alway, at my table. Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.

11 Then said Ziba unto the king, According to all that my lord the king hath commanded his servant, so shall thy servant do. As for Mephibosheth, said the king, he shall eat at my table, as one of the king's sons.

12 And Mephibosheth had a young (m) son, whose name was Micha: and all that dwelt in the house of Ziba were servants unto Mephibosheth.

(m) 1 Chr. viii. 34. And the son of Jonathan was Merib-baal; and Merib-baal begat Micah.

CHAPTER X.

AND it came to pass after this, that the (a) king of the children of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his stead.

(a) 1 Chr. xix. 1. Now it came to pass after this, that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his stead.

2 Then said David, I will (b) show kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, (c) as his father showed kindness unto me. And David sent to comfort him, by the hand of his servants, for his father. And David's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon.

(b) Deut. xxiii. 3. An Ammonite or Moabite shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord: even to their tenth generation shall they not enter into the congregation of the Lord for ever:

4. Because they met you not with bread and with water in the way, when ye came forth out of Egypt; and because they hired against thee Balaam the son of Beor, of Pethor of Mesopotomia, to curse thee.

5. Nevertheless the Lord thy God would not hearken unto Balaam; but the Lord thy God turned the curse into a blessing unto thee, because the Lord thy God loved thee.

6. Thou shalt not seek their peace nor their prosperity all thy days for ever.

Neh. xiii. 1. On that day they read in the book of Moses in the audience of the people; and therein was found written, that the Ammonite and the Moabite should not come into the congregation of God for ever;

2. Because they met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Balaam against them, that he should curse them: howbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing.

3. Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.

(c) 1 Sam. xxii. 3. And David went thence to Mizpeh of Moab: and he said unto the king of Moab, Let my father and my mother, I pray thee, come forth, and be with you, till I know what God will do for me.

4. And he brought them before the king of Moab, and they dwelt with him all the while that David was in the hold.

3 And the princes of the children of Ammon said unto Hanun their lord, Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? (d) hath not David rather sent his servants unto thee, to search the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it?

(d) Gen. xlxi. 9. And Joseph remembered the dreams which he dreamed of them; and said unto them, Ye are spies; to see the nakedness of the land ye are come.

4 Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, (e) and shaved off the one half of their beards, and (f) cut off their garments in the middle, even to their buttocks, and sent them away.

(e) Lev. xix. 27. Ye shall not round the corners of your heads, neither shalt thou mar the corners of thy beard.

1 Chr. xix. 4. Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the midst, hard by their buttocks, and sent them away.

(f) Is. xx. 4. So shall the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptians prisoners, and the Ethiopians captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, even with their buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt.

xlvii. 2. Take the millstones, and grind meal: uncover thy locks, make bare the leg, uncover the thigh, pass over the rivers.

3. Thy nakedness shall be uncovered, yea, thy shame shall be seen: I will take vengeance, and I will not meet thee as a man.

Jer. xli. 5. That there came certain from Sheshem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even fourscore men, having their beards shaven, and their clothes rent, and having cut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to bring them to the house of the Lord.

5 When they told it unto David, he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed: and the king said, Tarry at (g) Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

(g) Josh. vi. 25. And Joshua saved Rahab the harlot alive, and her father's household, and all that she had; and she dwelleth in Israel even unto this day; because she hid the messengers which Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

26. And Joshua adjured them at that time, saying, Cursed be the man before the Lord that riseth up and buildeth this city Jericho: he shall lay the foundation thereof in his first-born, and in his youngest son shall he set up the gates of it.

1 Kings xvi. 34. In his days did Hiel the Bethelite build Jericho: he laid the foundation thereof in Abiram his first-born, and set up the gates thereof in his youngest son Segub, according to the word of the Lord, which he spake by Joshua the son of Nun.

1 Chr. xix. 5. Then there went certain, and told David how the men were served: and he sent to meet them; for the men were greatly ashamed: and the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

6 And when the children of Ammon saw that they (h) stank before David, the children of Ammon sent and hired (i) the Syrians of Bethrehob, and the Syrians of Zoba, twenty thousand footmen, and of king (k) Maacah a thousand men, and of Ish-tob twelve thousand men.

(h) Gen. xxxiv. 30. And Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, Ye have troubled me, to make me to stink among the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites, and the Perizzites: and I being few in number, they shall gather themselves together against me, and slay me; and I shall be destroyed, I and my house.

Ex. v. 21. And they said unto them, The Lord look upon you, and judge; because ye have made our savour to be abhorred in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to slay us.

1 Sam. xiii. 4. And all Israel heard say, that Saul had smitten a garrison of the Philistines, and that Israel also was had in abomination with the Philistines. And the people were called together after Saul to Gilgal.

(k) Josh. xiii. 11. And Gilead, and the border of the Geshurites, and Maachathites, and all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan unto Salcah:

12. All the kingdom of Og in Bashan, which reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei, who remained of the remnant of the giants; for these did Moses smite, and cast them out.

13. Nevertheless the children of Israel expelled not the Geshurites, nor the Maachathites: but the Geshurites and the Maachathites dwell among the Israelites until this day.

7 And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and (l) all the host of the mighty men.

(l) 2 Sam. xxiii. 8. These be the names of the mighty men whom David had: The Tachmonite that sat in the seat, chief among the captains; the same was Adino the Eznite: he lifted up his spear against eight hundred whom he slew at one time.

1 Chr. xix. 8. And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men.

8 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the entering in of the gate: and the Syrians of Zoba, and of (m) Rehob, and Ish-tob, and Maacah, were by themselves in the field.

(m) Num. xiii. 21. So they went up, and searched the land from the wilderness of Zin unto Rehob, as men come to Hamath.

Judg. i. 31. Neither did Asher drive out the inhabitants of Accho, nor the inhabitants of Zidon, nor of Ahlab, nor of Achzib, nor of Helbah, nor of Aphek, nor of Rehob.

9 When Joab saw that (n) the front of the battle was against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians.

(n) Josh. viii. 22. And the other issued out of the city against them; so they were in the midst of Israel, some on this side, and some on that side: and they smote them, so that they let none of them remain or escape.

Judg. xx. 42. Therefore they turned their backs before the men of Israel unto the way of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them; and them which came out of the cities they destroyed in the midst of them.

43. Thus they inclosed the Benjamites round about, and chased them, and trod them down with ease, over against Gibeah toward the sunrising.

10 And the rest of the people he delivered into the hand of Abishai, his brother, that he might put them in array against the children of Ammon.

11 And he said, (o) If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will come and help thee.

(o) 1 Chr. xix. 9. And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array before the gate of the city; and the kings that were come were by themselves in the field.

10. Now when Joab saw that the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose out of all the choice of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians.

11. And the rest of the people he delivered unto the hand of Abishai his brother, and they set themselves in array against the children of Ammon.

12. And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will help thee.

28. And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God.

14 ¶ And it came to pass in the morning, that David (a) wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah.

(a) 1 Kings xxi. 8. So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters unto the elders, and to the nobles that were in his city dwelling with Naboth.

21. And Saul said, I will give him her, that she may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him. Wherefore Saul said to David, Thou shalt this day be my son-in-law in the one of the twain.

25. And Saul said, Thus shall ye say to David, The king desireth not any dowry, but an hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to be avenged of the king's enemies. But Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.

14. Deliver me from blood guiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation; and my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

(c) 2 Sam. xii. 9. Wherefore hast thou despised the commandment of the Lord, to do evil in his sight. Thou hast killed Uriah with the sword, and hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slain him with the sword of the children of Ammon.

16 And it came to pass, when Joab observed the city, that (d) he assigned Uriah unto a place where he knew that valiant men were.

(d) Prov. xxix. 12. If a ruler hearken to lies, all his servants are wicked.

Acts v. 29. Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men.

17 And the men of the city went out and fought with Joab: and there fell some of the people of the servants of David; and Uriah the Hittite, died also.

18 Then Joab sent, and told David all the things concerning the war;

19 And charged the messenger, saying, When thou hast made an end of telling the matters of the war unto the king;

20 And if so be that the king's wrath arise, and he say unto thee, Wherefore approached ye so nigh unto the city when ye did fight? knew ye not that they would shoot from the wall?

21 Who smote (e) Abimelech the son of (f) Jerub-besheth? did not a woman cast a piece of a mill-stone upon him from the wall, that he died in Thebez? why went ye nigh the wall? Then say thou, (g) Thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.

(e) Judg. ix. 53. And a certain woman cast a piece of a mill-stone upon Abimelech's head, and all to break his skull.

(g) 2 Sam. iii. 34. Thy hands were not bound, nor thy feet put into fetters: as a man falleth before wicked men, so fellest thou. And all the people wept again over him.

22 So the messenger went, and came and showed David all that Joab had sent him for.

23 And the messenger said unto David, Surely the men prevailed against us, and came out unto us into the field, and we were upon them even unto the entering of the gate.

24 And the shooters shot from off the wall upon thy servants, and some of the king's servants be dead, and thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.

25 Then David said unto the messenger, Thus shalt thou say unto Joab, Let not this thing displease thee; (h) for the sword devoureth one as well as another: make thy battle more strong against the city, and overthrow it; and encourage thou him.

(h) Ec. ix. 1. For all this I considered in my heart, even to declare all this, that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God: no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them.

2. All things come alike to all: there is one event to the righteous, and to the wicked; to the good, and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath.

3. This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event unto all: yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead.

11. I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all.

12. For man also knoweth not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare; so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them.

26 And when the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, (i) she mourned for her husband.

27 And when the mourning was past, David sent and fetched her to his house, and she became his wife, and bare him a son. (k) But the thing that David had done displeased the LORD.

(b) Judg. ix. 7 And when they told it to Jotham, he went and stood in the top of Mount Gerizim, and lifted up his voice and cried, and said unto them, Hearken unto me, ye men of Shechem, that God may hearken unto you.

8. The trees went forth on a time to anoint a king over them; and they said unto the olive-tree, Reign thou over us.

10. And the trees said to the fig-tree, Come thou, and reign over us.

11. But the fig-tree said unto them, Should I forsake my sweetness, and my good fruit, and go to be promoted over the trees?

Is. v. 1. Now will I sing to my well-beloved a song of my beloved touching his vineyard. My well-beloved hath a vineyard in a very fruitful hill:

2. And he fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also made a wine-press therein: and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes.

3. And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard.

4. What could have been done more to my vineyard that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes?

5. And now, go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be trodden down.

6. And I will lay it waste: it shall not be pruned nor digged; but there shall come up briers and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

42. Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite! cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye.

27 And Joab sent messengers to David, and said, I have fought against (a) Rabbah, and have taken the city of waters.

(a) Deut. iii. 11. For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of giants; behold, his bedstead was a bedstead of iron: is it not in Rabbath of the children of Ammon? nine cubits was the length thereof, and four cubits the breadth of it, after the cubit of a man.

Ez. xxi. 20. Appoint a way, that the sword may come to Rabbath of the Ammonites, and to Judah in Jerusalem the defenced.

28 Now therefore gather the rest of the people together, and encamp against the city, and take it; lest I take the city, and it be (b) called after my name.

(b) John vii. 18. He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.

29 And David gathered all the people together, and went to Rabbah, and fought against it, and took it.

30 And he (c) took their king's crown from off his head, (the weight whereof was a talent of gold, with the precious stones,) and it was set on David's head: and he brought forth the spoil of the city in great abundance.

(c) 1 Chr. xx. 2. And David took the crown of their king from off his head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it; and it was set upon David's head: and he brought also exceeding much spoil out of the city.

31 And he brought forth the people that were therein, and (d) put them under saws, and under harrows of iron, and under axes of iron, and made them pass through the brick-kiln: and thus did he unto all the cities of the children of Ammon. So David and all the people returned unto Jerusalem.

(d) 2 Sam. viii. 2. And he smote Moab, and measured them with a line, casting them down to the ground; even with two lines measured he to put to death, and with one full line to keep alive: and so the Moabites became David's servants, and brought gifts.

Ps. xxi. 8. Thine hand shall find out all thine enemies; thy right hand shall find out those that hate thee.

9. Thou shalt make them as a fiery oven in the time of thine anger: the Lord shall swallow them up in his wrath, and the fire shall devour them.

CHAPTER XIII.

AND it came to pass after this, that (a) Absalom, the son of David, had (b) a fair sister, whose name was (c) Tamar; and Amnon the son of David (d) loved her.

(a) 2 Sam. iii. 2. And unto David were sons born in Hebron: and his first-born was Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess;

1 Chr. iii. 2. The third Absalom, the son of Maachah, the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur; the fourth Adonijah the son of Haggith.

(b) Gen. vi. 2. That the sons of God saw the daughters of men, that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose.

xxxix. 6. And he left all that he had in Joseph's hand; and he knew not aught he had, save the bread which he did eat: and Joseph was a goodly person, and well-favoured.

7. And it came to pass, after these things, that his master's wife cast her eyes upon Joseph; and she said, lie with me.

2 Sam. xi. 2. And it came to pass, in an evening-tide, that David arose from off his bed, and walked upon the roof of the king's house: and from the roof he saw a woman washing herself; and the woman was very beautiful to look upon.

xxxi. 30. Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the Lord she shall be praised.

(c) 2 Sam. xiv. 27. And unto Absalom there were born three sons and one daughter, whose name was Tamar: she was a woman of a fair countenance.

1 Chr. iii. 9. These were all the sons of David, besides the sons of the concubines, and Tamar their sister.

(d) Gen. xxix. 18. And Jacob loved Rachel; and said, I will serve thee seven years for Rachel thy younger daughter.

20. And Jacob served seven years for Rachel; and they seemed unto him but a few days, for the love he had to her.

xxxiv. 3. And his soul clave unto Dinah, the daughter of Jacob; and he loved the damsel, and spake kindly unto the damsel.

1 Kings xi. 1. But king Solomon loved many strange women, together with the daughter of Pharaoh, women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonians, and Hittites.

2 And Amnon was so (e) vexed, that he fell sick for his sister Tamar; for she was a virgin: and Amnon thought it hard for him to do any thing to her.

(e) 1 Kings xxi. 4. And Ahab came into his house heavy and displeased, because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him; for he had said, I will not give thee the inheritance of my fathers: and he laid him down upon his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no bread.

2 Cor. vii. 10. For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of; but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

3 But Amnon had (f) a friend, whose name was Jonadab, the son of (g) Shimeah, David's brother: and Jonadab was a very (h) subtle man.

(f) Gen. xxxviii. 20. And Judah sent the kid by the hand of his friend the Adullamite, to receive his pledge from the woman's hand; but he found her not.

(h) Gen. iii. 1. Now the serpent was more subtile than any beast of the field which the Lord God had made: and he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?

Jer. iv. 22. For my people is foolish, they have not known me; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding: they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.

1 Chr. iii. 19. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God: for it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

James iii. 15. This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish.

4 And he said unto him, Why art thou, being the king's son, lean from day to day? wilt thou not tell me? And Amnon said unto him, (i) I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister.

(i) Is. iii. 9. The show of their countenance doth witness against them, and they declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not: wo unto their soul! for they have rewarded evil unto themselves.

Jer. viii. 12. Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore shall they fall among them that fall: in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down, saith the Lord.

Mic. vii. 3. That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, the prince asketh, and the judge asketh for a reward, and the great man he uttereth his mischievous desire: so they wrap it up.

5 And Jonadab said unto him, Lay thee down on thy bed, and make thyself sick: and when thy father cometh to see thee, say unto him, I pray thee, let my sister Tamar come, and give me meat, and dress the meat in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it at her hand.

6 So Amnon lay down, and made himself sick: and when the king was come to see him, Amnon said unto the king, I pray thee, let Tamar my sister come and (k) make me a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat at her hand.

(k) Gen. xviii. 6. And Abraham hastened into the tent unto Sarah, and said, Make ready quickly three measures of fine meal, knead it, and make cakes upon the hearth.

7 Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, Go now to thy brother Amnon's house, and dress him meat.

8 So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was laid down. And she took flour, and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and did bake the cakes.

9 And she took a pan, and poured them out before him, but he refused to eat. (l) And Amnon said, Have out all men from me: and they went out every man from him.

(l) Gen. xlv. 1. Then Joseph could not refrain himself before all them that stood by him, and he cried, Cause every man to go out from me: and there stood no man with him while Joseph made himself known unto his brethren.

Judg. iii. 19. But he himself turned again from the quarries that were by Gilgal, and said, I have a secret errand unto thee, O king: who said, Keep silence. And all that stood by him went out from him.

John iii. 20. For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.

10 And Amnon said unto Tamar, Bring the meat into the chamber, that I may eat of thine hand. And Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother.

11 And when she had brought them unto him to eat, he took hold of her, and said unto her, (m) Come, lie with me, my sister.

(m) Gen. xxxix. 7. And it came to pass, after these things, that his master's wife cast her eyes upon Joseph; and she said, Lie with me.

12. And she caught him by his garment, saying, Lie with me: and he left his garment in her hand, and fled, and got him out.

12 And she answered him, Nay, my brother, do not force me; for no such thing ought to be done in Israel: do not thou this (n) folly.

(n) Gen. xxxiv. 7. And the sons of Jacob came out of the field when they heard it: and the men were grieved, and they were very wroth, because he had wrought folly in Israel in lying with Jacob's daughter, which thing ought not to be done.

Judg. xix. 23. And the man the master of the house went out unto them, and said unto them, Nay, my brethren, nay, I pray you do not so wickedly; seeing that this man is come into mine house, do not this folly.

13 And I, whither shall I cause my shame to go? and as for thee, thou shalt be as one of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, I pray thee, speak unto the king; for he will not withhold me from thee.

14 Howbeit he would not hearken unto her voice; but, being stronger than she, (o) forced her, and lay with her.

(o) Deut. xxii. 25. But if a man find a betrothed damsel in the field, and the man force her, and lie with her; then the man only that lay with her shall die:

26. But upon the damsel thou shalt do nothing: there is in the damsel no sin worthy of death; for as when a man riseth against his neighbour, and slayeth him, even so is this matter:

27. For he found her in the field, and the betrothed damsel cried, and there was none to save her.

15 Then Amnon hated her exceedingly; so that the hatred wherewith he hated her was greater than the love wherewith he had loved her: and Amnon said unto her, Arise, be gone.

16 And she said unto him, There is no cause; this evil in sending me away is greater than the other that thou didst unto me: but he would not hearken unto her.

17 Then he called his servant that ministered unto him, and said, Put now this woman out from me, and bolt the door after her.

18 And she had (p) a garment of divers colours upon her: for with such robes were the king's daughters that were virgins apparelled. Then his servant brought her out, and bolted the door after her.

(p) Gen. xxxvii. 3. Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was the son of his old age: and he made him a coat of many colours.

32. And they sent the coat of many colours, and they brought it to their father, and said, This have we found: know now whether it be thy son's coat or no.

Judg. v. 30. Have they not sped? have they not divided the prey? to every man a damsel or two; to Sisera a prey of divers colours, a prey of divers colours of needle work, of divers colours of needle work on both sides, meet for the necks of them that take the the spoil.

Ps. xlv. 14. She shall be brought unto the king in raiment of needle work; the virgins her companions that follow her shall be brought unto thee.

19 And Tamar (q) put ashes on her head, and rent her garment of divers colours that was on her, and (r) laid her hand on her head, and went on crying.

(r) Jer. ii. 37. Yea, thou shalt go forth from him, and thine hands upon thine head; for the Lord hath rejected thy confidences, and thou shalt not prosper in them.

1 Sam. ii. 22. Now Eli was very old, and heard all that his sons did unto all Israel, and how they lay with the women that assembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

23. And he said unto them, Why do ye such things? for I hear of your evil dealings by all this people.

24. Nay, my sons: for it is no good report that I hear; ye make the Lord's people to transgress.

25. If one man sin against another, the judge shall judge him: but if a man sin against the Lord, who shall entreat for him? Notwithstanding, they hearkened not unto the voice of their father, because the Lord would slay them.

29. Wherefore kick ye at my sacrifice, and at mine offering, which I have commanded in my habitation, and honourest thy sons above me, to make yourselves fat with the chiefest of all the offerings of Israel my people?

(c) Gen. xix. 2. And he said, Behold now, my lords, turn in, I pray you, into your servant's house, and tarry all night, and wash your feet, and ye shall rise up early, and go on your ways. And they said, Nay; but we will abide in the street all night.

28 Now Absalom had (d) commanded his servants, saying, Mark ye now when Amnon's (e) heart is merry with wine, and when I say unto you, Smite Amnon; then kill him, fear not: have not I commanded you? be courageous, and be valiant.

Let us fetch the ark of the covenant of the Lord out of Shiloh unto us, that, when it cometh among us, it may save us out of the hand of our enemies.

4. So the people sent to Shiloh, that they might bring from thence the ark of the covenant of the Lord of hosts, which dwelleth between the cherubims: and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

5. And when the ark of the covenant of the Lord came into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang again.

6. And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, What meaneth the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews? and they understood that the ark of the Lord was come into the camp.

7. And the Philistines were afraid: for they said God is come into the camp. And they said, Wo unto us! for there hath not been such a thing heretofore.

8. Wo unto us! who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty Gods? these are the Gods that smote the Egyptians with all the plagues in the wilderness.

9. Be strong, and quit yourselves like men, O ye Philistines, that ye be not servants unto the Hebrews, as they have been to you: quit yourselves like men, and fight.

10. And the Philistines fought, and Israel was smitten, and they fled every man into his tent; and there was a very great slaughter: for there fell of Israel thirty thousand footmen.

11. And the ark of God was taken; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were slain.

4. Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee. Selah.

10. For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand: I had rather be a door-keeper in the house of my God than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

13. The princes of Zoan are become fools; the princes of Noph are deceived; they have also seduced Egypt, even they that are the stay of the tribes thereof.

thou passest on with me, (d) then thou shalt be a burden unto me:

(d) 2 Sam. xix. 35. I am this day fourscore years old; and can I discern between good and evil? can thy servant taste what I eat, or what I drink? can I hear any more the voice of singing-men and singing women? wherefore then should thy servant be yet a burden unto my lord the king?

34 But if thou (e) return to the city, and say unto Absalom, I will be thy servant, O king; (f) as I have been thy father's servant hitherto, so will I now also be thy servant; (g) then mayest thou for me defeat the counsel of Ahithophel.

(f) 2 Sam. xvi. 16. And it came to pass, when Hushai the Archite, David's friend, was come unto Absalom, that Hushai said unto Absalom, God save the king, God save the king.

17. And Absalom said to Hushai, Is this thy kindness to thy friend? why wentest thou not with thy friend?

18. And Hushai said unto Absalom, Nay; but whom the Lord, and this people, and all the men of Israel, choose, his will I be, and with him will I abide.

19. And again, whom should I serve? should I not serve in the presence of his son? As I have served in thy father's presence, so will I be in thy presence.

(g) 2 Sam. xvii. 5. Then said Absalom, Call now Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear likewise what he saith.

6. And when Hushai was come to Absalom, Absalom spake unto him, saying, Ahithophel hath spoken after this manner: shall we do after his saying? if not, speak thou.

7. And Hushai said unto Absalom, The counsel that Ahithophel hath given is not good at this time.

8. For, said Hushai, thou knowest thy father and his men, that they be mighty men, and they be chafed in their minds, as a bear robbed of her whelps in the field: and thy father is a man of war, and will not lodge with the people.

9. Behold, he is hid now in some pit, or in some other place: and it will come to pass, when some of them be overthrown at the first, that whosoever heareth it will say, There is a slaughter among the people that follow Absalom.

10. And he also that is valiant, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, shall utterly melt: for all Israel knoweth that thy father is a mighty man, and they which be with him are valiant men.

11. Therefore I counsel that all Israel be generally gathered unto thee, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, as the sand that is by the sea for multitude, and that thou go to battle in thine own person.

12. So shall we come upon him in some place where he shall be found, and we will light upon him as the dew falleth on the ground: and of him, and of all the men that are with him, there shall not be left so much as one.

13. Moreover, if he be gotten into a city, then shall all Israel bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, until there be not one small stone found there.

14. And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel: for the Lord had appointed to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that the Lord might bring evil upon Absalom.

35 And hast thou not there with thee Zadok and Abiathar the priests? therefore it shall be, that what thing soever thou shalt hear out of the king's house, (h) thou shalt tell it to Zadok and Abiathar the priests.

(h) 2 Sam. xvii. 15. Then said Hushai unto Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, Thus and thus did Ahithophel counsel Absalom and the elders of Israel; and thus and thus have I counselled.

16. Now, therefore, send quickly and tell David, saying, Lodge not this night in the plains of the wilderness, but speedily pass over; lest the king be swallowed up, and all the people that are with him.

36 Behold, they have there with them (i) their two sons, Ahimaaz Zadok's son, and Jonathan Abiathar's son; and by them ye shall send unto me every thing that ye can hear.

(i) 2 Sam. xvii. 17. Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz stayed by En-rogel; for they might not be seen to come into the city: and a wench went and told them: and they went and told king David.

10. Thou therefore, and thy sons, and thy servants, shall till the land for him, and thou shalt bring in the fruits, that thy master's son may have food to eat: but Mephibosheth thy master's son shall eat bread alway at my table. Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.

11. Then said Ziba unto the king, According to all that my lord the king hath commanded his servant, so shall thy servant do. As for Mephibosheth, said the king, he shall eat at my table, as one of the king's sons.

5 Then said Absalom, Call now Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear likewise what he saith.

6 And when Hushai was come to Absalom, Absalom spake unto him, saying, Ahithophel hath spoken after this manner: shall we do after his saying? if not, speak thou.

7 And Hushai said unto Absalom, The counsel that Ahithophel hath given is (g) not good at this time.

(g) Prov. xxxi. 8. Open thy mouth for the dumb in the cause of all such as are appointed to destruction.

8 For, said Hushai, thou knowest thy father and his men, that they be mighty men, and they be chafed in their minds, (h) as a bear robbed of her whelps in the field: and thy father is a man of war, and will not lodge with the people.

(h) 2 Kings ii. 24. And he turned back, and looked on them, and cursed them in the name of the Lord: and there came forth two she-bears out of the wood, and tare forty and two children of them.

xxviii. 15. As a roaring lion and a ranging bear; so is a wicked ruler over the poor people.

Hos. xiii. 8. I will meet them as a bear that is bereaved of her whelps, and will rend the caul of their heart, and there will I devour them like a lion: the wild beast shall tear them.

9 Behold, (i) he is hid in some pit, or in some other place: and it will come to pass, when (k) some of them be overthrown at the first, that whosoever heareth it, will say, There is a slaughter among the people that follow Absalom;

(i) Judg. xx. 33. And all the men of Israel rose up out of their place, and put themselves in array at Baal-tamar; and the liers in wait of Israel came forth out of their places, even out of the meadows of Gibeah.

(k) Josh. vii. 5. And the men of Ai smote of them about thirty and six men: for they chased them from before the gate even unto Shebarim, and smote them in the going down: wherefore the hearts of the people melted, and became as water.

viii. 6. For they will come out after us, till we have drawn them from the city: for they will say, They flee before us, as at the first; therefore we will flee before them.

Judg. xx. 32. And the children of Benjamin said, They are smitten down before us, as at the first. But the children of Israel said, Let us flee, and draw them from the city unto the highways.

10 And he also that is valiant, whose (l) heart is as the heart of a lion, shall (m) utterly melt: for all Israel knoweth that thy father is a mighty man, and they which be with him are valiant men.

(l) Gen. xlix. 9. Judah is a lion's whelp; from the prey, my son, thou art gone up: he stooped down; he couched as a lion, and as an old lion; who shall rouse him up?

9. He crouched, he lay down as a lion, and as a great lion: who shall stir him up? Blessed is he that blesseth thee, and cursed is he that curseth thee.

2 Sam. xxiii. 20. And Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, who had done many acts, he slew two lion-like men of Moab; he went down also and slew a lion in the midst of a pit in time of snow.

Josh. ii. 9. And she said unto the men, I know that the Lord hath given you the land, and that your terror is fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land faint because of you.

10. For we have heard how the Lord dried up the water of the Red sea for you, when ye came out of Egypt; and what ye did unto the two kings of the Amorites that were on the other side Jordan, Sihon and Og, whom ye utterly destroyed.

11. And, as soon as we had heard these things, our hearts did melt, neither did there remain any more courage in any man because of you: for the Lord your God, he is God in heaven above, and in earth beneath.

Is. xiii. 7. Therefore shall all hands be faint, and every man's heart shall melt.

xix. 1. The burden of Egypt. Behold, the Lord rideth upon a swift cloud, and shall come into Egypt: and the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence, and the heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it.

11 Therefore I counsel that (n) all Israel be generally gathered unto thee, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, (o) as the sand that is by the sea for multitude, and that thou go to battle (p) in thine own person.

(n) Judg. xx. 1. Then all the children of Israel went out, and the congregation was gathered together as one man, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, with the land of Gilead, unto the Lord in Mizpeh.

(q) 1 Sam. xxiii. 23. See, therefore, and take knowledge of all the lurking-places where he hideth himself, and come ye again to me with the certainty, and I will go with you: and it shall come to pass, if he be in the land, that I will search him out throughout all the thousands of Judah.

(r) 1 Kings xx. 10. And Ben-hadad sent unto him, and said, The gods do so unto me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people that follow me.

Is. x. 13. For he saith, By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I am prudent: and I have removed the bounds of the people, and have robbed their treasures, and I have put down the inhabitants like a valiant man.

14. And my hand hath found, as a nest, the riches of the people: and as one gathereth eggs that are left have I gathered all the earth; and there was none that moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or peeped.

Ob. 3. The pride of thine heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?

13 Moreover, if he be gotten into a city, then shall all Israel bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, until there be not (s) one small stone found there.

(s) Matt. xxiv. 2. And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? Verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

14 And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel: for (t) the LORD had appointed (u) to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that the LORD might bring evil upon Absalom.

20. But Amaziah would not hear; for it came of God, that he might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because they sought after the gods of Edom.

(u) 2 Sam. xv. 34. But if thou return to the city, and say unto Absalom, I will be thy servant, O king; as I have been thy father's servant hitherto, so will I now also be thy servant: then mayest thou for me defeat the counsel of Ahithophel.

15 ¶ Then said Hushai unto (x) Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, Thus and thus did Ahithophel counsel Absalom and the elders of Israel; and thus and thus have I counselled.

(x) 2 Sam. xv. 35. And hast thou not there with thee Zadok and Abiathar the priests? therefore it shall be that what thing soever thou shalt hear out of the king's house, thou shalt tell it to Zadok and Abiathar the priests.

18 Nevertheless a lad saw them, and told Absalom: but they went both of them away quickly, and came to a man's house in Bahurim, which had a well in his court, whither they went down.

19 And the woman took and spread a covering over the well's mouth, and spread ground corn thereon: and the thing was not known.

20. And they shall say unto the elders of his city, This our son is stubborn and rebellious; he will not obey our voice; he is a glutton and a drunkard.

21. And all the men of his city shall stone him with stones that he die: so shalt thou put evil away from among you; and all Israel shall hear, and fear.

5 So Amasa went to assemble the men of Judah; but he tarried longer than the set time which he had appointed him.

6 And David said to Abishai, Now shall Sheba the son of Bichri do us more harm than did Absalom: take thou thy lord's servants and pursue after him, lest he get him fenced cities and escape us.

7 And there went out after him Joab's men, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men: and they went out of Jerusalem, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

8 When they were at the great stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa went before them. And Joab's garment that he had put on was girded unto him, and upon it a girdle with a sword fastened upon his loins in the sheath thereof; and as he went forth it fell out.

9 And Joab said to Amasa, (d) Art thou in health, my brother? And Joab took Amasa by the beard with the right hand (e) to kiss him.

(d) Ps. lv. 21. The words of his mouth were smoother than butter, but war was in his heart: his words were softer than oil, yet were they drawn swords.

Prov. xxvi. 24. He that hateth, dissembleth with his lips, and layeth up deceit within him:

25. When he speaketh fair, believe him not: for there are seven abominations in his heart.

26. Whose hatred is covered by deceit, his wickedness shall be showed before the whole congregation.

Mic. vii. 2. The good man is perished out of the earth, and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his brother with a net.

(e) Matt. xxvi. 48. Now, he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; hold him fast.

49. And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, Master; and kissed him.

Luke xxii. 47. And while he yet spake, behold, a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus to kiss him.

48. But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?

10 But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was (f) in Joab's hand: so (g) he smote him therewith in the fifth rib, (h) and shed out his bowels to the ground, and struck him not again; and he died. So Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri.

(g) Gen. iv. 8. And Cain talked with Abel his brother: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and slew him.

2 Sam. ii. 23. Howbeit he refused to turn aside: wherefore Abner, with the hinder end of the spear, smote him under the fifth rib, that the spear came out behind him; and he fell down there, and died in the same place: and it came to pass, that as many as came to the place where Asahel fell down and died stood still.

iii. 27. And when Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside in the gate, to speak with him quietly; and smote him there under the fifth rib, that he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother.

(h) Acts i. 18. Now, this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.

11 And one of Joab's men stood by him, and said, He that favoureth Joab, and he that is for David, let him go after Joab.

12 And (i) Amasa wallowed in blood in the midst of the highway. And when the man saw that all the people stood still, he removed Amasa out of the highway into the field, and cast a cloth upon him, when he saw that every one that came by him stood still.

(i) Ps. ix. 16. The Lord is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. Higgaion Selah.

lv. 23. But thou, O God, shalt bring them down into the pit of destruction: bloody and deceitful men shall not live out half their days; but I will trust in thee.

13 When he was removed out of the highway, all the people went on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

14 ¶ And he went through all the tribes of Israel unto (k) Abel, and to Beth-maachah, and all the Berites: and they were gathered together, and went also after him.

(k) 1 Kings xv. 20. So Benhadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of the host which he had against the cities of Israel, and smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-beth-maachah, and all Cinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali.

15 And they came and besieged him in Abel of Beth-maachah, and they (l) cast up a bank against the city, and it stood in the trench: and all the people that were with Joab battered the wall to throw it down.

(l) 2 Kings xix. 32. Therefore thus saith the Lord concerning the king of Assyria. He shall not come into the city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shield, nor cast a bank against it.

Luke xix. 43. For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side.

16 Then cried (m) a wise woman out of the city, Hear, hear; say, I pray you, unto Joab, Come near hither, that I may speak with thee.

(m) Ec. ix. 14. There was a little city, and few men within it; and there came a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it:

15. Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man.

16. Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength, nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

17. The words of wise men are heard in quiet, more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools.

18. Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but one sinner destroyeth much good.

17 And when he was come near unto her, the woman said, Art thou Joab? And he answered, I am he. Then she said unto him, Hear the words of thine handmaid. And he answered, I do hear.

18 Then she spake, saying, They were wont to speak in old time, saying, They shall surely ask counsel at Abel: and so they ended the matter.

19 I am one of them that are (n) peaceable and faithful in Israel: thou seekest to destroy a city and (o) a mother in Israel: why wilt thou (p) swallow up the inheritance of the LORD?

(n) Gen. xviii. 23. And Abraham drew near, and said, Wilt thou also destroy the righteous with the wicked?

1 Tim. ii. 2. For kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.

(o) Judg. v. 7. The inhabitants of the villages ceased, they ceased in Israel, until that I Deborah arose, that I arose a mother in Israel.

(p) Num. xvi. 32. And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their houses, and all the men that appertained unto Korah, and all their goods.

2 Sam. xvii. 16. Now, therefore, send quickly, and tell David, saying, Lodge not this night in the plains of the wilderness, but speedily pass over; lest the king be swallowed up, and all the people that are with him.

Ps. cxxiv. 3. Then they had swallowed us up quick, when their wrath was kindled against us.

Jer. li. 44. And I will punish Bel in Babylon; and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed up: and the nations shall not flow together any more unto him; yea, the wall of Babylon shall fall.

1 Cor. xv. 54. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

2 Cor. v. 4. For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

20 And Joab answered and said, (q) Far be it, far be it from me, (r) that I should swallow up or destroy.

(q) 2 Sam. xxiii. 17. And he said, Be it far from me, O Lord, that I should do this: is not this the blood of the men that went in jeopardy of their lives? therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mighty men.

Job xxi. 16. Lo, their good is not in their hand: the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

xxii. 18. Yet he filled their houses with good things: but the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

(r) Prov. xxviii. 13. He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.

Jer. xvii. 9. The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?

21 The matter is not so: but (s) a man of Mount Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, hath (t) lifted up his hand against the king, even against David: deliver him only, and I will depart from the city. And the woman said unto Joab, Behold (u) his head shall be thrown to thee over the wall.

(s) Judg. ii. 9. And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnath-heres, in the mount of Ephraim, on the north side of the hill Gaash.

Jer. l. 19. And I will bring Israel again to his habitation, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied upon Mount Ephraim and Gilead.

(t) 1 Sam. xxiv. 6. And he said unto his men, The Lord forbid that I should do this thing unto my master, the Lord's anointed, to stretch forth mine hand against him, seeing he is the anointed of the Lord.

xxvi. 9. And David said to Abishai, Destroy him not: for who can stretch forth his hand against the Lord's anointed and be guiltless?

(u) 2 Kings x. 7. And it came to pass, when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons, and slew seventy persons, and put their heads in buckets, and sent him them to Jezreel.

22 Then the woman went unto all the people in her wisdom. And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and cast it out to Joab: and he blew a trumpet, and they retired from the city, every man to his tent. And Joab returned to Jerusalem unto the king.

23 ¶ Now Joab was over all the host of Israel: and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites, and over the Pelethites:

24 And Adoram was over the tribute: and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder:

25 And Sheva was scribe: and Zadok and Abiathar were the priests:

26 And Ira also the Jairite was a chief ruler about David.

CHAPTER XXI.

THEN there was (a) a famine in the days of David, three years, year after year: and David inquired of the LORD. And the LORD answered, (b) It is for Saul, and for his bloody house, because he slew the Gibeonites.

(a) Gen. xii. 10. And there was a famine in the land: and Abram went down into Egypt to sojourn there; for the famine was grievous in the land.

xxvi. 1. And there was a famine in the land, besides the first famine that was in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went unto Abimelech king of the Philistines, unto Gerar.

2 Kings vi. 25. And there was a great famine in Samaria: and, behold, they besieged it, until an ass's head was sold for fourscore pieces of silver, and the fourth part of a cab of doves' dung for five pieces of silver.

(b) Josh. vii. 1. But the children of Israel committed a trespass in the accursed thing: for Achan the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took of the accursed thing; and the anger of the Lord was kindled against the children of Israel.

12. Therefore the children of Israel could not stand before their enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies, because they were accursed; neither will I be with you any more, except ye destroy the accursed from among you.

2 And the king called the Gibeonites, and said unto them: (now (c) the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites; and the children of Israel had sworn unto them: and Saul sought to slay them, (d) in his zeal to the children of Israel and Judah.)

(c) Josh. ix. 3. And when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done unto Jericho, and to Ai,

4. They did work wilily, and went and made as if they had been ambassadors; and took old sacks upon their asses, and wine-bottles, old, and rent, and bound up;

5. And old shoes and clouted upon their feet, and old garments upon them; and all the bread of their provisions was dry and mouldy.

6. And they went to Joshua, unto the camp at Gilgal, and said unto him, and to the men of Israel, We be come from a far country; now, therefore, make ye a league with us.

15. And Joshua made peace with them, and made a league with them, to let them live: and the princes of the congregation sware unto them.

(d) Deut. vii. 16. And thou shalt consume all the people which the Lord thy God shall deliver thee; thine eye shall have no pity upon them: neither shalt thou serve their gods; for that will be a snare unto thee.

John xvi. 2. They shall put you out of the synagogues, yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service.

Rom. x. 2. For I bear them record, that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 Wherefore David said unto the Gibeonites, What shall I do for you? and (e) wherewith shall I make the atonement, that ye may bless the inheritance of the LORD?

(e) Ex. xxxii. 30. And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses said unto the people, Ye have sinned a great sin: and now I will go up unto the Lord; peradventure I shall make an atonement for your sin.

Mic. vi. 6. Wherewith shall I come before the Lord, and bow myself before the high God? shall I come before him with burnt-offerings, with calves of a year old?

7. Will the Lord be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? shall I give my first-born for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

4 And the Gibeonites said unto him, We will have (f) no silver nor gold of Saul, nor of his house; neither for us shalt thou kill any man in Israel. And he said, What ye shall say, that will I do for you.

(f) Ps. xlix. 7. None of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him;

8. For the redemption of their soul is precious, and it ceaseth for ever.

1 Pet. i. 18. Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers;

19. But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish, and without spot.

5 And they answered the king, (g) The man that consumed us, and that devised against us, that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the coasts of Israel,

(g) Esth. ix. 24. Because Haman, the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, (that is, the lot) to consume them, and to destroy them:

25. But when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters, that his wicked device, which he devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

6 Let seven men of his sons be delivered unto us, and we will (h) hang them up unto the LORD in Gibeah of Saul, whom the LORD did choose. And the king said, I will give them.

(h) Gen. xl. 22. But he hanged the chief baker, as Joseph had interpreted to them.

Num. xxv. 4. And the Lord said unto Moses, Take all the heads of the people, and hang them up before the Lord against the sun, that the fierce anger of the Lord may be turned away from Israel.

Ezra vi. 11. Also I have made a decree, that whosoever shall alter this word, let timber be pulled down from his house, and being set up, let him be hanged thereon; and let his house be made a dunghill for this.

Esth. ix. 13. Then said Esther, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shushan to do to-morrow also according unto this day's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged upon the gallows.

14. And the king commanded it so to be done: and the decree was given at Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons.

Matt. xxvii. 5. And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself.

7 But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, (i) because of the LORD's oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul.

(i) 1 Sam. xviii. 3. Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul.

15. But also thou shalt not cut off thy kindness from my house for ever; no, not when the Lord hath cut off the enemies of David, every one from the face of the earth.

16. So Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, saying, Let the Lord even require it at the hand of David's enemies.

17. And Jonathan caused David to swear again, because he loved him as he loved his own soul.

xxiii. 18. And they two made a covenant before the Lord. And David abode in the wood, and Jonathan went to his house.

8 But the king took the two sons of Kizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bare unto Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth: and the five sons of Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she brought up for Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite:

9 And he delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them in the hill before the LORD: and they fell all seven together, and were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, (k) in the beginning of barley-harvest.

(k) Ruth i. 22. So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter-in-law, with her, which returned out of the country of Moab: and they came to Beth-lehem in the beginning of barley-harvest.

10 And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah (l) took sackcloth, and spread it for her upon the rock, from the beginning of harvest (m) until water dropped upon them out of heaven, and suffered neither (n) the birds of the air to rest on them by day, nor the beasts of the field by night.

(l) 1 Kings xxi. 27. And it came to pass, when Ahab heard these words, that he rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went softly.

Joel i. 13. Gird yourselves, and lament, ye priests; howl, ye ministers of the altar: come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for the meat-offering and the drink-offering is withholden from the house of your God.

(m) Deut. xi. 14. That I will give you the rain of your land in his due season, the first rain, and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil.

Jer. v. 24. Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the Lord our God that giveth rain, both the former and the latter in his season: he reserveth unto us the appointed weeks of the harvest.

Hos. vi. 3. Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the Lord: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.

Zech. x. 1. Ask ye of the Lord rain in the time of the latter rain; so the Lord shall make bright clouds, and give them showers of rain, to every one grass in the field.

(n) Gen. xl. 19. Yet within three days shall Pharaoh lift up thy head from off thee, and shall hang thee on a tree; and the birds shall eat thy flesh from off thee.

Ez. xxxix. 4. Thou shalt fall upon the mountains of Israel, thou, and all thy bands, and the people that is with thee: I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field, to be devoured.

11 And it was (o) told David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done.

(o) 2 Sam. ii. 4. And the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah. And they told David, saying, That the men of Jabesh-gilead were they that buried Saul.

12 And David went and took (p) the bones of Saul, and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men of Jabesh-gilead, which had stolen them from the street of Beth-shan, where the Philistines had hanged them; when the Philistines had slain Saul in Gilboa.

(p) 1 Sam. xxxi. 11. And when the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead heard of that which the Philistines had done to Saul, 12. All the valiant men arose, and went all night, and took the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, from the wall of Beth-shan, and came to Jabesh, and burnt them there.

13. And they took their bones, and buried them under a tree at Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

13 And he brought up from thence the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son; and they gathered the bones of them that were hanged.

14 And the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son (q) buried they in the country of Benjamin in Zelah, in the sepulchre of Kish his father: and they performed all that the king commanded. And after that (r) God was intreated for the land.

(q) 2 Sam. iii. 32. And they buried Abner in Hebron: and the king lifted up his voice, and wept at the grave of Abner; and all the people wept.

iv. 12. And David commanded his young men, and they slew them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged them up over the pool in Hebron: but they took the head of Ish-bosheth, and buried it in the sepulchre of Abner in Hebron.

(r) 2 Sam. xxiv. 25. And David built there an altar unto the Lord, and offered burnt-offerings and peace-offerings. So the Lord was entreated for the land, and the plague was stayed from Israel.

Joel ii. 18. Then will the Lord be jealous for his land, and pity his people.

19. Yea, the Lord will answer, and say unto his people, Behold, I will send you corn, and wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith: and I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen.

Jonah i. 15. So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea; and the sea ceased from her raging.

15 ¶ Moreover, the Philistines had yet war again with Israel; and David went down, and his servants with him, and fought against the Philistines: (s) and David waxed faint.

(s) Ps. lxxi. 9. Cast me not off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my strength faileth.

lxxiii. 26. My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever.

Ec. xii. 3. In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows be darkened.

Is. xl. 28. Hast thou not known, hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the Lord, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of his understanding.

29. He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength.

30. Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall.

16 And Ishbi-benob, which was (t) of the sons of the giant, (the weight of whose spear weighed three hundred shekels of brass in weight,) he, being girdled with a new sword, (u) thought to have slain David.

(t) Gen. vi. 4. There were giants in the earth in those days: and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men, which were of old men of renown.

(u) 1 Sam. xvii. 44. And the Philistine said to David, Come unto me, and I will give thy flesh unto the fowls of the air, and to the beasts of the field.

17 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah succoured him, and smote the Philistine, and killed him. Then the men of David sware unto him, saying, Thou shalt go no more out with us to battle, that thou (x) quench not the light of Israel.

(x) 1 Kings xi. 36. And unto his son will I give one tribe, that David my servant may have a light alway before me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen me to put my name there.

Ps. cxxxii. 17. There will I make the horn of David to bud: I have ordained a lamp for mine anointed.

John i. 8. He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

9. That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

v. 35. He was a burning and a shining light; and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.

18 And it came to pass after this, that there was again a battle with the Philistines at Gob: then Sibbechai the Hushathite slew Saph, which was of the sons of the giant.

19 And there was again a battle in Gob with the Philistines, where Elhanan the son of Jaareoregim, a Bethlehemite, slew the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

20 And there was yet a battle in Gath, where was a man of great stature, that had on every hand six fingers, and on every foot six toes, four and twenty in number; and he also was born to the giant.

21 And when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimeah the brother of David slew him.

CHAPTER XXII.

AND (a) David spake unto the LORD (b) the words of this song, (c) in the day that the LORD had delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and (d) out of the hand of Saul:

(a) Ps. cxvi. 1. I love the Lord, because he hath heard my voice and my supplications.

2. Because he hath inclined his ear unto me, therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.

(b) Ex. xv. 1. Then sang Moses and the children of Israel this song unto the Lord, and spake, saying, I will sing unto the Lord, for he hath triumphed gloriously: the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

Judg. v. 1. Then sung Deborah, and Barak the son of Ahinoam, on that day, saying.

(c) Ps. xxxiv. 19. Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the Lord delivereth him out of them all.

2 Cor. i. 10. Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us.

2 Tim. iv. 18. And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

(d) 1 Sam. xxiii. 14. And David abode in the wilderness in strong holds, and remained in a mountain in the wilderness of Ziph: and Saul sought him every day; but God delivered him not into his hand.

xxiv. 15. The Lord, therefore, be judge, and judge between me and thee, and see, and plead my cause, and deliver me out of thy hand.

2 And he said, (e) The LORD is my Rock, and my Fortress, and my Deliverer;

(e) Deut. xxxii. 4. He is the Rock, his work is perfect; for all his ways are judgment: a God of truth and without iniquity, just and right is he.

1 Sam. ii. 2. There is none holy as the Lord: for there is none besides thee; neither is there any rock like our God.

Ps. xviii. 2. The Lord is my Rock, and my Fortress, and my Deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.

xxxi. 3. For thou art my Rock and my Fortress: therefore, for thy name's sake, lead me and guide me.

lxxi. 3. Be thou my strong habitation, whereunto I may continually resort: thou hast given commandment to save me; for thou art my rock and my fortress.

3 The God of my rock, (f) in him will I trust; he is my (g) Shield, and (h) the Horn of my salvation, (i) my high Tower, and (k) my Refuge, (l) my Saviour; (m) thou savest me from violence.

(f) Heb. ii. 13. And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, Behold I and the children which God hath given me.

(g) Gen. xv. 1. After these things the word of the Lord came unto Abram in a vision, saying, Fear not, Abram: I am thy Shield, and thy exceeding great reward.

Ps. iii. 3. But thou, O Lord, art a Shield for me; my glory, and the lifter up of my head.

v. 12. For thou, Lord, will bless the righteous; with favour wilt thou compass him as with a shield.

Prov. xxx. 5. Every word of God is pure; he is a Shield unto them that put their trust in him.

(h) Luke i. 69. And hath raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David.

(i) Ps. lxi. 3. For thou hast been a shelter for me, and a strong Tower from the enemy.

cxliv. 2. My Goodness, and my Fortress, my high Tower, and my Deliverer; my Shield, and he in whom I trust; who subdueth my people under me.

Prov. xviii. 10. The name of the Lord is a strong Tower; the righteous runneth into it, and is safe.

(k) Ps. ix. 9. The Lord also will be a Refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble.

xxxii. 7. Thou art my Hiding-place; thou shalt preserve me from trouble; thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance. Selah.

Is. xxxii. 2. And a man shall be as an hiding-place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place; as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.

(l) Is. xii. 2. Behold, God is my Salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid: for the LORD JEHOVAH is my Strength and my Song; he also is become my Salvation.

(a) Gen. xlix. 1. And Jacob called unto his sons, and said, Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you that which shall befall you in the last days.

15. Moreover, I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance.

(b) 2 Sam. vii. 8. Now therefore so shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, I took thee from the sheep-cote, from following the sheep, to be ruler over my people, over Israel:

19 Was he not most honourable of three? therefore he was their captain: howbeit (o) he attained not unto the first three.

(o) 1 Chr. xi. 25. Behold, he was honourable among the thirty, but attained not to the first three: and David set him over his guard.

20 And (p) Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of (q) Kabzeel, who had done many acts, he slew two lion-like men of Moab: he went down also and (r) slew a lion in the midst of a pit in time of snow:

(p) 2 Sam. viii. 18. And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over both the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were chief rulers.

(q) Josh. xv. 21. And the uttermost cities of the tribe of the children of Judah, toward the coast of Edom southward, were Kabzeel, and Eder, and Jagur.

(r) Judg. xiv. 5. Then went Samson down, and his father and his mother, to Timnath, and came to the vineyards of Timnath: and, behold, a young lion roared against him.

6. And the Spirit of the Lord came mightily upon him, and he rent him as he would have rent a kid, and he had nothing in his hand: but he told not his father or his mother what he had done.

21 And he slew an Egyptian, a goodly man: and the Egyptian had a spear in his hand; but he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and (s) slew him with his own spear.

(s) 1 Sam. xvii. 51. Therefore David ran, and stood upon the Philistine, and took his sword, and drew it out of the sheath thereof, and slew him, and cut off his head therewith. And when the Philistines saw their champion was dead, they fled.

Col. ii. 15. And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

22 These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoida, and had the name among three mighty men.

23 He was more honourable than the thirty, but he attained not to the first three. And David set him over his guard.

24 Asahel the brother of Joab was one of the thirty; Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem,

25 Shammah the Harodite, Elika the Harodite,

39 Uriah the Hittite: thirty and seven in all.

CHAPTER XXIV.

AND again the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and (a) he (b) moved David against them to say, (c) Go, number Israel and Judah.

(a) 1 Chr. xxi. 1. And Satan stood up against Israel, and provoked David to number Israel.

Jam. i. 13. Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man:

14. But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

(b) 1 Kings xxii. 20. And the Lord said, Who shall persuade Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramothgilead? And one said on this manner, and another said on that manner.

21. And there came forth a spirit, and stood before the Lord, and said, I will persuade him.

22. And the Lord said unto him, Wherewith? And he said, I will go forth, and I will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he said, Thou shalt persuade him, and prevail also: go forth and do so.

23. Now therefore, behold, the Lord hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these thy prophets, and the Lord hath spoken evil concerning thee.

2 Thes. ii. 11. And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie.

(c) 1 Chr. xxvii. 23. But David took not the number of them from twenty years old and under: because the Lord had said he would increase Israel like to the stars of the heavens.

24. Joab the son of Zeruiah, began to number, but he finished not, because there fell wrath for it against Israel, neither was the number put in the account of the chronicles of king David.

2 For the king said to (d) Joab the captain of the host, which was with him, Go now through all the tribes of Israel, (e) from Dan even to Beer-sheba, and number ye the people, (f) that I may know the number of the people.

(d) 2 Sam. viii. 16. And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the host; and Jehosaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder.

xx. 23. Now Joab was over all the host of Israel; and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites, and over the Pelethites.

(e) Judg. xx. i. Then all the children of Israel went out, and the congregation was gathered together as one man, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, with the land of Gilead, unto the Lord in Mizpeh.

2 Sam. iii. 10. To translate the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to set up the throne of David over Israel, and over Judah, from Dan even to Beer-sheba.

(f) Deut. viii. 13. And when thy herds and thy flocks multiply, and thy silver and thy gold is multiplied, and all that thou hast is multiplied;

14. Then thy heart be lifted up, and thou forget the Lord thy God, which brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

Prov. xxix. 23. A man's pride shall bring him low: but honour shall uphold the humble in spirit.

Jer. xvii. 5. Thus saith the Lord, Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his own, and whose heart departeth from the Lord.

3 And Joab said unto the king, (g) Now the LORD thy God add unto the people, how many soever they be, an hundred fold, and that the eyes of my lord the king may see it: but why doth my lord the king delight in this thing?

(g) Ps. cxv. 14. The Lord shall increase you more and more, you and your children.

Prov. xiv. 28. In the multitude of people is the king's honour: but in the want of people is the destruction of the prince.

Is. lx. 5. Then thou shalt see, and flow together, and thy heart shall fear, and be enlarged, because the abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee.

4 Notwithstanding, (h) the king's word prevailed against Joab, and against the captains of the host. And Joab and the captains of the host (i) went out from the presence of the king to number the people of Israel.

(h) 1 Chr. xxi. 4. Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab: wherefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem.

Ec. viii. 4. Where the word of a king is, there is power; and who may say unto him what doest thou?

(i) Acts v. 29. Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than man.

5 And they passed over Jordan, and pitched in Aroer, on the right side of the city that lieth in the midst of the river of Gad, and towards Jazer:

6 Then they came to Gilead, and to the land of Tahtim-hodshi; and they came to Dan-jaan, and about to Zidon,

7 And came to the strong hold of Tyre, and to all the cities of the Hivites, and of the Canaanites: and they went out to the south of Judah, even to Beer-sheba.

8 So when they had gone through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

9 And Joab gave up the sum of the number of the people unto the king: and there were in Israel (k) eight hundred thousand valiant men that drew the sword; and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

(k) 1 Chr. xxi. 5. And Joab gave the sum of the number of the people unto David. And all they of Israel were a thousand thousand and a hundred thousand men that drew sword: and Judah was four hundred threescore and ten thousand men that drew sword.

6. But Levi and Benjamin counted he not among them; for the king's word was abominable to Joab.

10 ¶ And (l) David's heart smote him after that he had numbered the people. And David said unto the LORD, (m) I have sinned greatly in that I have done; and now, I beseech thee, O LORD, (n) take away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very (o) foolishly.

(l) 1 Sam. xxiv. 5. And it came to pass afterward, that David's heart smote him, because he had cut off Saul's skirt.

1 John iii. 20. For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.

21. Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God.

(m) Job xxxiii. 27. He looketh upon men: and if any say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not;

28. He will deliver his soul from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light.

Ps. xxxii. 5. I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid. I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin. Selah.

Prov. xxviii. 13. He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.

1 John i. 9. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

(n) Job vii. 21. And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

Hos. xix. 2. Take with you words, and turn to the Lord: say unto him, Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously: so will we render the calves of our lips.

(o) 2 Chr. xvi. 9. For the eyes of the Lord run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to show himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect towards him. Herein thou hast done foolishly; therefore from henceforth thou shalt have wars.

Mark vii. 22. Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness.

11 For when David was up in the morning, the word of the LORD came unto the prophet (p) Gad, David's seer, saying,

(p) 1 Sam. xxii. 5. And the prophet Gad said unto David, Abide not in the hold; depart, and get thee into the land of Judah. Then David departed, and came into the forest of Hareth.

1 Chr. xxi. 9. And the Lord spake unto Gad, David's seer, saying, xxix. 29. Now the acts of David the king, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of Samuel the seer, and in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the book of Gad the seer.

12 Go, and say unto David, Thus saith the LORD, (q) I offer thee three things; choose thee one of them, (r) that I may do it unto thee.

(q) 1 Chr. xxi. 10. Go and tell David, saying, Thus saith the Lord, I offer thee three things: choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee.

(r) Lev. xxvi. 41. And that I also have walked contrary unto them, and have brought them into the land of their enemies; if then their uncircumcised hearts be humbled, and they then accept of the punishment of their iniquity.

Job v. 17. Behold, happy is the man whom God correcteth: therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty.

Prov. iii. 12. For whom the Lord loveth, he correcteth, even as a father the son in whom he delighteth.

Rev. iii. 19. As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.

13 So Gad came to David, and told him, and said unto him, Shall (s) seven years of famine come unto thee in thy land? or wilt thou (t) flee three months before thine enemies, while they pursue thee? or that there be (u) three days' pestilence in thy land? now advise, and see what answer I shall return to him that sent me.

(s) Lev. xxvi. 20. And your strength shall be spent in vain: for your land shall not yield her increase, neither shall the trees of the land yield their fruits.

Ez. xiv. 13. Son of man, when the land sinneth against me, by trespassing grievously, then will I stretch out my hand upon it, and will break the staff of the bread thereof, and will send famine upon it, and will cut off man and beast from it.

21. For thus saith the Lord God, How much more when I send my fourscore judgments upon Jerusalem, the sword, and the famine, and the noisome beast, and the pestilence, to cut off from it man and beast?

(t) Lev. xxvi. 17. And I will set my face against you, and ye shall be slain before your enemies: they that hate you shall reign over you, and ye shall flee when none pursueth you.

Deut. xxviii. 25. The Lord shall cause thee to be smitten before thine enemies: thou shalt go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them: and shalt be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

52. And he shall besiege thee in all thy gates, until thy high and fenced walls come down, wherein thou trustedst, throughout all thy land: and he shall besiege thee in all thy gates throughout all thy land, which the Lord thy God hath given thee.

(u) Lev. xxvi. 16. I also will do this unto you; I will even appoint over you terror, consumption, and the burning ague, that shall consume the eyes, and cause sorrow of heart: and ye shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it.

Ps. xci. 6. Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness, nor for the destruction that wasteth at noon-day.

14 And David said unto Gad, (x) I am in a great strait: let us fall now into the hand of the LORD; (y) for his mercies are great: and (z) let me not fall into the hand of man.

(x) 1 Sam. xiii. 6. When the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait, (for the people were distressed,) then the people did hide themselves in caves, and in thickets, and in rocks, and in high places, and in pits.

Phil. i. 23. For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better.

(y) Ps. li. 1. Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy loving-kindness; according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

lxxxvi. 5. For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive; and plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee.

cxix. 156. Great are thy tender mercies, O Lord; quicken me according to thy judgments.

cxlv. 9. The Lord is good to all; and his tender mercies are over all his works.

Mic. vii. 18. Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger forever, because he delighteth in mercy.

(z) 2 Kings xiii. 3. And the anger of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and he delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael, all their days.

Prov. xii. 10. A righteous man regardeth the life of his beast: but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.

15 So (a) the LORD sent a pestilence upon Israel from the morning even to the time appointed: and there died of the people from Dan even to Beer-sheba seventy thousand men.

(a) 1 Sam. vi. 19. And he smote the men of Beth-shemesh, because they had looked into the ark of the Lord, even he smote of the people fifty thousand and threescore and ten men. And the people lamented, because the Lord had smitten many of the people with a great slaughter.

1 Chr. xxi. 14. So the Lord sent pestilence upon Israel: and there fell of Israel seventy thousand men.

Matt. xxiv. 7. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.

Rev. vi. 8. And I looked, and, behold, a pale horse; and his name that sat on him was Death, and hell followed with him: and power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

16 And when (b) the angel stretched out his hand upon Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD (c) repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed the people, (d) It is enough: stay now thine hand. And the angel of the LORD was by the threshing-place of Araunah the Jebusite.

(b) Ex. xii. 23. For the Lord will pass through to smite the Egyptians; and when he seeth the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side-posts, the Lord will pass over the door, and will not suffer the destroyer to come in unto your houses to smite you.

Joel ii. 13. And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil.

14. Who knoweth if he will return and repent, and leave a blessing behind him, even a meat-offering, and a drink-offering, unto the Lord your God?

Am. vii. 3. The Lord repented for this: it shall not be, saith the Lord.

(d) 1 Kings xix. 4. But he (Elijah) himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper-tree: and he requested for himself that he might die; and said, It is enough; now, O Lord, take away my life; for I am not better than my fathers.

2 Cor. ii. 6. Sufficient to such a man is this punishment, which was inflicted of many.

17 And David spake unto the LORD, when he saw the angel that smote the people, and said (e) Lo, I have sinned, and I have done wickedly: but (f) these sheep, what have they done? (g) let thine hand, I pray thee, be against me, and against my father's house.

(e) Job vii. 20. I have sinned; what shall I do unto thee, O thou Preserver of men? why hast thou set me as a mark against thee, so that I am a burden to myself?

xlii. 6. Wherefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes.

Is. vi. 5. Then said I, Wo is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts.

(f) 1 Kings xxii. 17. And he said, I saw all Israel scattered upon the hills, as sheep that have not a shepherd; and the Lord said, These have no master; let them return every man to his house in peace.

Ps. xliv. 11. Thou hast given us like sheep appointed for meat; and hast scattered us among the heathen.

(g) Gen. xliv. 33. Now therefore, I pray thee, let thy servant abide instead of the lad a bondman to my lord; and let the lad go up with his brethren.

John x. 11. I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.

12. But he that is a hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.

1 Pet. ii. 24. Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed.

18 ¶ And (h) Gad came that day to David, and said unto him, Go up, rear an altar unto the LORD, in the threshing-floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

(h) 1 Chr. xxi. 18. Then the angel of the Lord commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go up, and set up an altar unto the Lord in the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

19 And David, according to the saying of Gad, went up (i) as the LORD commanded.

(i) Gen. vi. 22. Thus did Noah; according to all that God commanded him, so did he.

Heb. xi. 8. By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

20 And Araunah looked, and saw the king and his servants coming on toward him: and Araunah went out, and bowed himself before the king on his face upon the ground.

21 And Araunah said, Wherefore is my lord the king come to his servant? And David said, (k) To buy the threshing-floor of thee, to build an altar unto the LORD, that (l) the plague may be stayed from the people.

(k) 1 Chr. xxi. 22. Then David said to Ornan, Grant me the place of this threshing-floor, that I may build an altar therein unto the Lord; thou shalt grant it me for the full price, that the plague may be stayed from the people.

(l) Ps. cvi. 30. Then stood up Phinehas, and executed judgment: and so the plague was stayed.

22 And Araunah said unto David, (m) Let my lord the king take and offer up what seemeth good unto him: behold here be (n) oxen for burnt-sacrifice, and threshing-instruments, and other instruments of the oxen for wood.

(m) Gen. xxiii. 11. Nay, my lord, hear me: The field give I thee, and the cave that is therein, I give it thee: in the presence of the sons of my people give I it thee: bury thy dead.

(n) 1 Sam. vi. 14. And the cart came into the field of Joshua, a Bethshemite, and stood there, where there was a great stone: and they clave the wood of the cart, and offered the kine a burnt-offering unto the Lord.

1 Kings xix. 21. And he (Elisha) returned back from him, and took a yoke of oxen, and slew them, and boiled their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gave unto the people, and they did eat: then he arose, and went after Elijah, and ministered unto him.

23 All these things did Araunah, (o) As a king, give unto the king. And Araunah said unto the king, (p) The LORD thy God accept thee.

(o) Is. xxxii. 8. But the liberal deviseth liberal things; and by liberal things shall he stand.

(p) Ps. xx. 3. Remember all thy offerings, and accept thy burnt-sacrifice. Selah.

4. Grant thee according to thine own heart, and fulfil all thy counsel.

Is. lx. 7. All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together unto thee, the rams of Nebaioth shall minister unto thee: they shall come up with acceptance on mine altar, and I will glorify the house of my glory.

24 And the king said unto Araunah, (q) Nay; but I will surely buy it of thee at a price: neither will I offer burnt-offerings unto the LORD my God, of that which doth cost me nothing. (r) So David bought the threshing-floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver.

(q) 1 Chr. xxi. 24. And king David said to Ornan, Nay; but I will verily buy it for the full price: for I will not take that which is thine for the Lord, nor offer burnt-offerings without cost.

(r) 1 Chr. xxi. 25. So David gave to Ornan for the place six hundred shekels of gold by weight.

25 And David (s) built there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt-offerings and peace-offerings. (t) So the LORD was entreated for the land, and the plague was stayed from Israel.

Lam. iii. 32. But though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion according to the multitude of his mercies.

33. For he doth not afflict willingly, nor grieve the children of men.

THE FIRST BOOK OF THE KINGS, COMMONLY CALLED THE THIRD BOOK OF THE KINGS.

CHAPTER I.

NOW king David was (a) old, (b) and stricken in years; and they covered him with clothes, but he gat no heat.

(a) 2 Sam. v. 4. David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years.

1 Chr. xxiii. 1. So when David was old and full of days, he made Solomon his son king over Israel.

Ps. xc. 10. The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

(b) Gen. xviii. 11. Now Abraham and Sarah were old, and well stricken in age; and it ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women.

xxiv. 1. And Abraham was old, and well stricken in age: and the Lord had blessed Abraham in all things.

Luke i. 7. And they had no child, because that Elizabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years.

2 Wherefore his servants said unto him, Let there be sought for my lord the king a young virgin: and let her (c) stand before the king, and let her cherish him, and let her (d) lie in thy bosom, that my lord the king may (e) get heat.

(c) 1 Sam. xvi. 21. And David came to Saul, and stood before him: and he loved him greatly; and he became his armour-bearer.

22. And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, Let David, I pray thee, stand before me; for he hath found favour in my sight.

(d) Gen. xvi. 5. And Sarai said unto Abram, My wrong be upon thee: I have given my maid into thy bosom; and when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her eyes: the Lord judge between me and thee.

2 Sam. xii. 3. But the poor man had nothing save one little ewe lamb, which he had brought and nourished up; and it grew up together with him, and with his children, it did eat of his own meat, and drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was unto him as a daughter.

Mic. vii. 5. Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide; keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom.

(e) Ec. iv. 11. Again, if two lie together, then they have heat: but how can one be warm alone?

3 So (f) they sought for a fair damsel throughout all the coasts of Israel, and found (g) Abishag a (h) Shunammite, and brought her to the king.

(f) Esth. ii. 2. Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, Let there be fair young virgins sought for the king.

3. And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, unto the custody of Hege the king's chamberlain, keeper of the women; and let their things for purification be given them:

4. And let the maiden which pleaseth the king be queen instead of Vashti. And the thing pleased the king, and he did so.

(g) 1 Kings ii. 17. And he [Adonijah] said, Speak, I pray thee, unto Solomon the king, (for he will not say thee nay,) that he give me Abishag the Shunammite to wife.

18. And Bath-sheba said, Well, I will speak for thee unto the king.

19. Bath-sheba, therefore, went unto king Solomon, to speak unto him for Adonijah. And the king rose up to meet her, and bowed himself unto her, and sat down on his throne, and caused a seat to be set for the king's mother; and she sat on his right hand.

20. Then she said, I desire one small petition of thee, I pray thee, say me not nay. And the king said unto her, Ask on, my mother; for I will not say thee nay.

21. And she said, Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah thy brother to wife.

22. And king Solomon answered and said unto his mother, And why dost thou ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? ask for him the kingdom also; (for he is mine elder brother;) even for him, and for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah.

36. Thy servant will go a little way over Jordan with the king: and why should the king recompense it me with such a reward?

37. Let thy servant, I pray thee, turn back again, that I may die in mine own city, and be buried by the grave of my father, and of my mother: but, behold, thy servant Chimham, let him go over with my lord the king; and do to him what shall seem good unto thee.

38. And the king answered, Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do to him that which shall seem good unto thee: and whatsoever thou shalt require of me, that will I do for thee.

8 And, behold, thou hast with thee (c) Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite of Bahurim, which cursed me with a grievous curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim: but (d) he came down to meet me at Jordan, and I sware to him by the LORD, saying, I will not put thee to death with the sword.

3. And shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the Lord: and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears.

4. But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.

5. And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins.

6. The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf, and the young lion, and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them.

9. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.

9. Then said Abishai, the son of Zeruiah, unto the king, Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? let me go over, I pray thee, and take off his head.

10. And the king said, What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah? so let him curse, because the Lord hath said unto him, Curse David. Who shall then say, Wherefore hast thou done so?

11. And David said to Abishai, and to all his servants, Behold, my son which came forth of my bowels, seeketh my life: how much more now may this Benjamite do it? Let him alone, and let him curse: for the Lord hath bidden him.

12. It may be that the Lord will look on mine affliction, and that the Lord will requite me good for his cursing this day.

13. And as David and his men went by the way, Shimei went along on the hill's side over against him, and cursed as he went, and threw stones at him, and cast dust.

7. Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice, from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this.

46 So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; which went out and fell upon him, that he died. And (z) the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

(z) 2 Chr. i. 1. And Solomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and the Lord his God was with him, and magnified him exceedingly.

CHAPTER III.

AND Solomon (a) made affinity with Pharaoh king of Egypt, (b) and took Pharaoh's daughter, and brought her into (c) the city of David, until he had made an end of building (d) his own house, and (e) the house of the LORD, and (f) the wall of Jerusalem round about.

(a) 2 Chr. xviii. 1. Now Jehoshaphat had riches and honour in abundance, and joined affinity with Ahab.

Ezra ix. 14. Should we again break thy commandments, and join in affinity with the people of these abominations, wouldest not thou be angry with us till thou hadst consumed us, so that there should be no remnant nor escaping?

(b) 1 Kings vii. 8. And his house where he dwelt had another court within the porch, which was of the like work. Solomon made also a house for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had taken to wife, like unto this porch.

ix. 24. But Pharaoh's daughter came up out of the city of David unto her house which Solomon had built for her: then did he build Millo.

(c) 2 Sam. v. 7. Nevertheless David took the strong hold of Zion: the same is the city of David.

1 Chr. xi. 7. And David dwelt in the castle; therefore they called it The city of David.

Ezra v. 11. And thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and build the house that was builded these many years ago, which a great king of Israel builded and set up.

(f) 1 Kings ix. 15. And this is the reason of the levy which king Solomon raised, For to build the house of the Lord, and his own house, and Millo, and the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazor, and Megiddo, and Gezer.

2 Only (g) the people sacrificed in high places, because there (h) was no house built unto the name of the LORD until those days.

(g) Lev. xxvi. 30. And I will destroy your high places and cut down your images, and cast your carcasses upon the carcasses of your idols, and my soul shall abhor you.

2 Chr. xxxiii. 17. Nevertheless, the people did sacrifice still in the high places, yet unto the Lord their God only.

(h) 1 Kings v. 3. Thou knowest how that David my father could not build a house unto the name of the Lord his God, for the wars which were about him on every side, until the Lord put them under the soles of his feet.

1 Chr. xvii. 4. Go and tell David my servant, Thus saith the Lord, Thou shalt not build me a house to dwell in:

5. For I have not dwelt in an house since the day that I brought up Israel unto this day; but have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another.

6. Wheresoever I have walked with all Israel, spake I a word to any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my people, saying, Why have ye not built me an house of cedars?

Acts vii. 47. But Solomon built him an house.

48. Howbeit, the most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands; as saith the prophet,

49. Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool: what house will ye build me? saith the Lord; or what is the place of my rest?

3 And Solomon (i) loved the LORD, (k) walking in the statutes of David his father: (l) only he sacrificed and burned incense in high places.

(i) Deut. vi. 5. And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might.

x. 12. And now, Israel, what doth the Lord thy God require of thee, but to fear the Lord thy God, to walk in all his ways, and to love him, and to serve the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul.

Ps. xxxi. 23. O love the Lord, all ye his saints: for the Lord preserveth the faithful, and plentifully rewardeth the proud doer.

1 John iv. 19. We love him, because he first loved us.

(k) 1 Kings ii. 3. And keep the charge of the Lord thy God, to walk in his ways, to keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his judgments, and his testimonies, as it is written in the law of Moses, that thou mayest prosper in all that thou doest, and whithersoever thou turnest thyself;

4. That the Lord may continue his word, which he spake concerning me, saying, If thy children take heed to their way, to walk before me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, there shall not fail thee (said he) a man on the throne of Israel.

1 Chr. xxviii. 8. Now therefore, in the sight of all Israel, the congregation of the Lord, and in the audience of our God, keep and seek for all the commandments of the Lord your God, that ye may possess the good land, and leave it for an inheritance for your children after you for ever.

9. And thou Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart, and with a willing mind: for the Lord searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever.

2 Chr. xvii. 3. And the Lord was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the first ways of his father David, and sought not unto Baalim;

4. But sought to the Lord God of his father, and walked in his commandments, and not after the doings of Israel.

5. Therefore the Lord established the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah brought to Jehoshaphat presents; and he had riches and honour in abundance.

(l) 2 Kings xii. 3. But the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places.

xiv. 4. Howbeit the high places were not taken away: as yet the people did sacrifice and burnt incense on the high places.

xv. 4. Save that the high places were not removed: the people sacrificed and burnt incense still on the high places.

4 And the king went to (m) Gibeon to sacrifice there; for that was the great high place. (n) A thousand burnt-offerings did Solomon offer upon that altar.

(m) Josh. x. 2. That they feared greatly, because Gibeon was a great city, as one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all the men thereof were mighty.

1 Kings ix. 2. That the Lord appeared to Solomon the second time, as he had appeared unto him at Gibeon.

2 Chr. i. 3. So Solomon, and all the congregation with him, went to the high place that was at Gibeon; for there was the tabernacle of the congregation of God, which Moses, the servant of the Lord, had made in the wilderness.

(n) 1 Kings viii. 63. And Solomon offered a sacrifice of peace-offerings, which he offered unto the Lord, two and twenty thousand oxen, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of the Lord.

5 In Gibeon the Lord appeared to Solomon (o) in a dream by night: and God said, (p) Ask what I shall give thee.

(o) Num. xii. 6. And he said, Hear now my words: If there be a prophet among you, I the Lord will make myself known unto him in a vision, and will speak unto him in a dream.

6. But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth, is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.

1 John v. 14. And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us:

15. And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

6 And Solomon said, Thou hast showed unto (q) thy servant David my father (r) great mercy, (s) according as he walked before thee in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with thee; and thou hast kept for him this great kindness, that (t) thou hast given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day.

(q) Num. xii. 7. My servant Moses is not so, who is faithful in all my house?

(r) 1 Chr. xxix. 12. Both riches and honour come of thee, and thou reignest over all; and in thy hand is power and might, and in thy hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all.

Ps. lxxviii. 70. He chose David also his servant, and took him from the sheep-folds:

71. From following the ewes great with young, he brought him to feed Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.

72. So he fed them according to the integrity of his heart, and guided them by the skilfulness of his hands.

(s) 1 Kings ix. 4. And if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked, in integrity of heart, and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded thee, and will keep my statutes and my judgments.

23. I was also upright before him, and I kept myself from mine iniquity.

24. Therefore hath the Lord recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in his eye-sight.

(t) 1 Kings i. 48. And also thus said the king, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, which hath given one to sit on my throne this day, mine eyes even seeing it.

7 And now, O Lord my God, (u) thou hast made thy servant king instead of David my father; and I am but (x) a little child: I know not how (y) to go out or come in.

v. 18. O thou king, the most high God gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father a kingdom and majesty, and glory, and honour.

19. And for the majesty that he gave him, all people, nations, and languages, trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew, and whom he would he kept alive, and whom he would he set up, and whom he would he put down.

20. But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him:

21. And he was driven from the sons of men; and his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses: they fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; till he knew that the most high God ruled in the kingdom of men, and that he appointeth over it whomsoever he will.

22. And thou his son, O Belshazzar, hast not humbled thine heart, though thou knewest all this;

23. But hast lifted up thyself against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou and thy lords, thy wives and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified.

(x) Job xxxii. 6. And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite, answered and said, I am young, and ye are very old; wherefore I was afraid, and durst not show you mine opinion.

8 And thy servant is in the midst of (z) thy people which thou hast chosen, a great people, that (a) cannot be numbered nor counted for multitude.

(z) Ex. xix. 5. Now therefore, If ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine.

6. And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and an holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

xxii. 17. That in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea-shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies.

15. Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man.

16. Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

17. The words of wise men are heard in quiet, more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools.

18. Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but one sinner destroyeth much good.

16. And Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was over the host, and Jehoshaphat, the son of Ahilud, was recorder;

17. And Zadok, the son of Ahitub, and Ahimelech, the son of Abiathar, were the priests; and Seraiah was the scribe;

18. And Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, was over both the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were chief rulers.

4. And there came a traveller unto the rich man; and he spared to take of his own flock, and of his own herd, to dress for the way-faring man that was come unto him; but took the poor man's lamb, and dressed it for the man that was come to him.

5. And David's anger was greatly kindled against the man; and he said to Nathan, As the Lord liveth, the man that hath done this thing shall surely die:

6. And he shall restore the lamb four-fold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity.

7. And Nathan said to David, Thou art the man. Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I anointed thee king over Israel, and I delivered thee out of the hand of Saul;

8. And I gave thee thy master's house, and thy master's wives into thy bosom, and gave thee the house of Israel and of Judah; and if that had been too little, I would moreover have given unto thee such and such things.

15. And the Levites took down the ark of the Lord, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the jewels of gold were, and put them on the great stone: and the men of Beth-shemesh offered burnt-offerings, and sacrificed sacrifices, the same day unto the Lord.

19. And he smote the men of Beth-shemesh, because they had looked into the ark of the Lord, even he smote of the people fifty thousand and threescore and ten men. And the people lamented, because the Lord had smitten many of the people with a great slaughter.

20. And the men of Beth-shemesh said, Who is able to stand before this holy Lord God? and to whom shall he go up from us.

Behold, I build a house to the name of the Lord my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before him sweet incense, and for the continual show-bread, and for the burnt-offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts of the Lord our God. This is an ordinance for ever to Israel.

(i) 2 Sam. vii. 12. And when thy days be fulfilled, and thou shalt sleep with thy fathers, I will set up thy seed after thee, which shall proceed out of thy bowels, and I will establish his kingdom.

13. He shall build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom for ever.

1 Chr. xvii. 12. He shall build me a house, and I will establish his throne for ever.

xxii. 10. He shall build a house for my name, and he shall be my son, and I will be his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever.

xxviii. 6. And he said unto me, Solomon thy son, he shall build my house and my courts: for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father.

10. Take heed now; for the Lord hath chosen thee to build a house for the sanctuary: be strong, and do it.

6 Now therefore command thou, that they hew me (k) cedar-trees out of Lebanon; and my servants shall be with thy servants: and unto thee (l) will I give hire for thy servants, according to all that thou shalt appoint: for thou knowest (m) that there is not among us any that can skill to hew timber like unto the (n) Zidonians.

(k) 1 Kings vi. 9. So he built the house, and finished it; and covered the house with beams and boards of cedar.

10. And then he built chambers against all the house, five cubits high: and they rested on the house with timber of cedar.

16. And he built twenty cubits on the sides of the house, both the floor and the walls, with boards of cedar: he even built them for it within, even for the oracle, even for the most holy place.

20. And the oracle in the forepart was twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in the height thereof: and he overlaid it with pure gold; and so covered the altar which was of cedar.

2 Chr. ii. 8. Send me also cedar-trees, fir-trees, and algum-trees, out of Lebanon; (for I know that thy servants can skill to cut timber in Lebanon;) and, behold, my servants shall be with thy servants.

Ps. xxix. 5. The voice of the Lord breaketh the cedars; yea, the Lord breaketh the cedars of Lebanon.

(l) Rom. xii. 17. Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

(m) Eph. iv. 7. But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

(n) Ezra iii. 7. They gave money also unto the masons, and to the carpenters; and meat, and drink, and oil, unto them of Zidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring cedar-trees from Lebanon to the sea of Joppa, according to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia.

7 And it came to pass, when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly, and said, (o) Blessed be the LORD this day, (p) which hath given unto David (q) a wise son over this great people.

(o) 1 Kings x. 9. Blessed be the Lord thy God, which delighted in thee, to set thee on the throne of Israel: because the Lord loved Israel for ever, therefore made he thee king, to do judgment and justice.

2 Chr. ii. 12. Huram said moreover, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, that made heaven and earth, who hath given to David the king a wise son, endued with prudence and understanding, that might build an house for the Lord, and an house for his kingdom.

(p) Gen. xxxiii. 5. And he lifted up his eyes and saw the women and the children, and said, Who are those with thee? And he said, The children which God hath graciously given thy servant.

Is. viii. 18. Behold, I and the children whom the Lord hath given me, are for signs and for wonders in Israel, from the Lord of hosts, which dwelleth in Mount Zion.

xv. 20. A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish man despiseth his mother.

xxiii. 24. The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice: and he that begetteth a wise child shall have joy of him.

8 And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, I have considered the things which thou sentest to me for: and I will do all thy desire, concerning timber of cedar, and concerning (r) timber of fir.

(r) 2 Sam. vi. 5. And David and all the house of Israel played before the Lord on all manner of instruments of fir-wood, even on harps, and on psalteries, and on timbrels, and on cornets, and on cymbals.

1 Kings vi. 34. And the two doors were of fir-tree: the two leaves of the one door were folding: and the two leaves of the other door were folding.

2 Chr. iii. 5. And the greater house he ceiled with fir-tree, which he overlaid with fine gold, and set thereon palm-trees and chains.

9 My servants shall bring them down from (s) Lebanon unto the sea; and (t) I will convey them by sea in floats unto the place that thou shalt appoint me, and will cause them to be discharged there, and thou shalt receive them; and thou shalt accomplish my desire in (u) giving food for my household.

(s) Deut. iii. 25. I pray thee let me go over, and see the good land that is beyond Jordan, that goodly mountain, and Lebanon.

(t) 2 Chr. ii. 16. And we will cut wood out of Lebanon, as much as thou shalt need; and we will bring it to thee in floats by sea to Joppa, and thou shalt carry it up to Jerusalem.

(u) 2 Chr. ii. 15. Now therefore the wheat, and the barley, the oil, and the wine which my lord hath spoken of, let him send unto his servants.

Ez. xxvii. 17. Judah and the land of Israel, they were thy merchants: they traded in thy market wheat of Minnith and Pannag, and honey, and oil, and balm.

10 So Hiram gave Solomon cedar-trees, and fir-trees according to all his desire.

11 And Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand measures of wheat for food to his household, and twenty measures of pure oil: thus gave Solomon to Hiram year by year.

12 And the LORD gave Solomon wisdom, (x) as he promised him: and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon; and (y) they two made a league together.

(x) 1 Kings iv. 29. And God gave Solomon wisdom and understanding exceeding much, and largeness of heart, even as the sand that is on the sea-shore.

2 Chr. i. 12. Wisdom and knowledge is granted unto thee; and I will give thee riches, and wealth, and honour, such as none of the king's have had that have been before thee, neither shall there any after thee have the like.

13 ¶ And king Solomon raised a levy out of all Israel; and (z) the levy was thirty thousand men.

(z) 1 Kings ix. 15. And this is the reason of the levy which king Solomon raised, For to build the house of the Lord, and his own house, and Millo, and the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazor, and Megiddo, and Gezer.

14 And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month by courses; a month they were in Lebanon, and two months at home: and (a) Adoniram was over the levy.

(a) 1 Kings iv. 6. And Ahishar was over the household; and Adoniram the son of Abda was over the tribute.

15 And Solomon had (b) threescore and ten thousand that bare burdens, and fourscore thousand hewers in the mountains;

(b) 1 Kings ix. 20. And all the people that were left of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, which were not of the children of Israel;

21. Their children that were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel also were not able utterly to destroy, upon those did Solomon levy a tribute of bond-service unto this day.

22. But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no bond-men: but they were men of war, and his servants, and his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots, and his horsemen.

23. These were the chief of the officers that were over Solomon's work, five hundred and fifty which bear rule over the people that wrought in the work.

2 Chr. ii. 17. And Solomon numbered all the strangers that were in the land of Israel, after the numbering wherewith David his father had numbered them; and they were found an hundred and fifty thousand and three thousand and six hundred.

18. And he set threescore and ten thousand of them to be bearers of burdens, and fourscore thousand to be hewers in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred overseers to set the people a work.

Ezra ii. 58. All the Nethinims, and the children of Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety and two.

16 Beside the chief of Solomon's officers, which were over the work, three thousand and three hundred, which ruled over the people that wrought in the work.

(c) 1 Kings vii. 9. All these were of costly stones, (according to the measures of hewed stones, sawed with saws,) within and without, even from the foundation unto the coping, and so on the outside toward the great court.

1 Chr. xxii. 2. And David commanded to gather together the strangers that were in the land of Israel; and he set masons to hew wrought stones to build the house of God.

Is. xxviii. 16. Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner-stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste.

1 Cor. iii. 11. For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

12. Now if any man build upon this foundation, gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble.

1 Pet. ii. 6. Wherefore it is contained in the scripture, Behold I lay in Zion a chief corner-stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.

7. Unto you therefore which believe, he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner.

Rev. xxi. 14. And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15. And he that talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16. And the city lieth four-square, and the length is as large as the breadth. And he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs: the length, and the breadth, and the height of it are equal.

17. And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

18. And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

19. And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper, the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald.

20. The fifth, sardonix; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst.

21. And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

18 And Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders did hew them, and the stone-squares: so they prepared timber and stones to build the house.

CHAPTER VI.

AND (a) it came to pass in the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, (b) in the month Zif, which is the second month, that he began to (c) build the house of the Lord.

(a) Judg. xi. 26. While Israel dwelt in Heshbon and her towns, and in Aroer and her towns, and in all the cities that be along by the coasts of Arnon, three hundred years? why therefore did ye not recover them within that time?

2 Chr. iii. 1. Then Solomon began to build the house of the Lord at Jerusalem in Mount Moriah, where the Lord appeared unto David his father, in the place that David had prepared in the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

2. And he began to build in the second day of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign.

(b) Num. i. 1. And the Lord spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the tabernacle of the congregation, on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying.

(c) Zech. vi. 12. And speak unto him, saying, Thus speaketh the Lord of hosts, saying, Behold the man, whose name is The BRANCH: and he shall grow up out of his place, and he shall build the temple of the Lord:

13. Even he shall build the temple of the Lord; and he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule upon his throne; and he shall be a priest upon his throne: and the counsel of peace shall be between them both.

15. And they that are far off shall come and build in the temple of the Lord; and ye shall know that the Lord of hosts hath sent me unto you. And this shall come to pass, if ye will diligently obey the voice of the Lord your God.

John ii. 19. Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

20. Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?

21. But he spake of the temple of his body.

1 Cor. vi. 19. What! know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God; and ye are not your own?

Heb. ix. 11. But Christ being come a high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building.

1 Pet. ii. 5. Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

2 And the house which king Solomon built for the Lord, the length thereof was (d) threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits.

(d) Ez. xli. 1. Afterward he brought me to the temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the tabernacle.

2. And the breadth of the door was ten cubits; and the sides of the door were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured the length thereof, forty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits.

3. Then went he inward, and measured the post of the door two cubits, and the door six cubits, and the breadth of the door seven cubits.

4. So he measured the length thereof, twenty cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits, before the temple: and he said unto me, This is the most holy place.

5. After he measured the wall of the house six cubits; and the breadth of every side-chamber, four cubits, round about the house on every side.

6. And the side chambers were three, one over another, and thirty in order: and they entered into the wall which was of the house for the side-chambers round about, that they might have hold, but they had not hold in the wall of the house.

7. And there was an enlarging and a winding about still upward to the side-chambers; for the winding about of the house went still upward round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house was still upward, and so increased from the lowest chamber to the highest by the midst.

8. I saw also the height of the house round about: the foundations of the side chambers were a full reed of six great cubits.

9. The thickness of the wall, which was for the side-chamber without, was five cubits; and that which was left, was the place of the side-chambers that were within.

10. And between the chambers was the wideness of twenty cubits round about the house on every side.

11. And the doors of the side-chambers were toward the place that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits round about.

12. Now the building that was before the separate place, at the end toward the west, was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof ninety cubits.

13. So he measured the house, an hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with the walls thereof, an hundred cubits long;

14. Also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, an hundred cubits.

15. And he measured the length of the building over against the separate place which was behind it, and the galleries thereof on the one side, and on the other side, an hundred cubits, with the inner temple, and the porches of the court;

16. The door-posts, and the narrow windows, and the galleries round about on their three stories, over against the door, ceiled with wood round about, and from the ground up to the windows, and the windows were covered;

17. To that above the door, even unto the inner-house and without, and by all the wall round about, within and without, by measure.

3 And the (e) porch before the temple of the house, twenty cubits was the length thereof, according to the breadth of the house, and ten cubits was the breadth thereof before the house.

(e) 1 Chr. xxviii. 11. Then David gave to Solomon his son the pattern of the porch, and of the houses thereof, and of the treasuries thereof, and of the upper chambers thereof, and of the inner parlours thereof, and of the place of the mercy seat.

2 Chr. iii. 3. Now these are the things wherein Solomon was instructed for the building of the house of God. The length by cubits, after the first measure, was threescore cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits.

4. And the porch that was in the front of the house, the length of it was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the height was a hundred and twenty: and he overlaid it within with pure gold.

Ez. xli. 15. And he measured the length of the building over against the separate place which was behind it, and the galleries thereof on the one side, and on the other side, a hundred cubits, with the inner temple, and the porches of the court.

Matt. iv. 5. Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple.

John x. 23. And Jesus walked in the temple in Solomon's porch.

Acts iii. 10. And they knew that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

11. And, as the lame man which was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them, in the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering.

4 And for the house he made windows of narrow lights.

5 And against the wall of the house he (f) built chambers round about, against the walls of the house round about, both of the temple and of the (g) oracle: and he made chambers round about.

(f) 2 Chr. xxxi. 11. Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare chambers in the house of the Lord; and they prepared them.

Cant. i. 4. Draw me, we will run after thee. The King hath brought me into his chambers: we will be glad and rejoice in thee; we will remember thy love more than wine: the upright love thee.

Jer. xxxv. 4. And I brought them into the house of the Lord, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan, the son of Igdaliah, a man of God, which was by the chamber of the princes, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah, the son of Shallum, the keeper of the door.

Ez. xl. 44. And without the inner gate were the chambers of the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south; one at the side of the east gate, having the prospect toward the north.

(g) Ps. xxviii. 2. Hear the voice of my supplications, when I cry unto thee, when I lift up my hands toward thy holy oracle.

6 The nethermost chamber was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad: for without in the wall of the house he made narrowed rests round about, that the beams should not be fastened in the walls of the house.

7 And the house, when it was in building, was (h) built of stone made ready before it was brought thither: so that there was (i) neither hammer, nor axe, nor any tool of iron, heard in the house while it was in building.

(h) Prov. xxiv. 27. Prepare thy work without, and make it fit for thyself in the field; and afterwards build thy house.

1 Pet. ii. 5. Ye, also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

(i) Jam. iii. 18. And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.

8 The door for the middle chamber was in the right side of the house: and they (k) went up with winding stairs into the middle chamber, and out of the middle into the third.

(k) Ez. xli. 6. And the side-chambers were three, one over another, and thirty in order; and they entered into the wall, which was of the house for the side-chambers round about, that they might have hold, but they had not hold in the wall of the house.

7. And there was an enlarging and a winding about still upward to the side-chambers; for the winding about of the house went still upward round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house was still upward, and so increased from the lowest chamber to the highest by the midst.

9 So he built the house, and finished it; and covered the house with beams and boards of cedar.

10 And then he built chambers against all the house, five cubits high: and they rested on the house with timber of cedar.

11 ¶ And the word of the LORD came to Solomon, saying,

12 Concerning this house which thou art in building, (l) if thou wilt walk in my statutes, and execute my judgments, and keep all my commandments to walk in them; (m) then will I perform my word with thee, which I spake unto David thy father:

(l) 1 Sam. xii. 14. If ye will fear the Lord, and serve him, and obey his voice, and not rebel against the commandment of the Lord, then shall both ye and also the king that reigneth over you, continue following the Lord your God:

15. But if ye will not obey the voice of the Lord, but rebel against the commandment of the Lord, then shall the hand of the Lord be against you, as it was against your fathers.

1 Kings iii. 14. And if thou wilt walk in my ways, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as thy father David did walk, then I will lengthen thy days.

1 Chr. vii. 17. And as for thee, If thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked, and do according to all that I have commanded thee, and shalt observe my statutes and my judgments;

18. Then will I establish the throne of thy kingdom, according as I have covenanted with David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man to be ruler in Israel.

Ps. cxxxii. 12. If thy children will keep my covenant, and my testimony that I shall teach them, thy children also shall sit upon thy throne for evermore.

(m) 2 Sam. vii. 13. He shall build a house for my name, and I will stablish the throne of his kingdom for ever.

1 Chr. xxii. 10. He shall build a house for my name, and he shall be my son, and I will be his father, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever.

13 And (n) I will dwell among the children of Israel, and (o) will not forsake my people Israel.

(n) Ex. xxv. 8. And let them make me a sanctuary, that I may dwell among them.

cxxxii. 13. For the Lord hath chosen Zion: he hath desired it for his habitation.

Is. lvii. 15. For thus saith the high and lofty One, that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

2 Cor. vi. 16. And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

Rev. xxi. 3. And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

(o) Deut. xxxi. 6. Be strong, and of a good courage, fear not, nor be afraid of them: for the Lord thy God, he it is that doth go with thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee.

8. And the Lord, he it is that doth go before thee; he will be with thee, he will not fail thee, neither forsake thee: fear not, neither be dismayed.

1 Sam. xii. 22. For the Lord will not forsake his people for his great name's sake; because it hath pleased the Lord to make you his people.

(p) Acts vii. 47. But Solomon built him an house.

48. Howbeit, the Most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands, as saith the prophet.

15 And he built the walls of the house within with boards of cedar, both the floor of the house, and the walls of the ceiling: and he covered them on the inside with wood, and covered the floor of the house with planks of fir.

16 And he built twenty cubits on the sides of the house, both the floor and the walls, with boards of cedar: he even (q) built them for it within, even for the most holy place.

(q) Ex. xxvi. 33. And thou shalt hang up the vail under the taches, that thou mayest bring in thither within the vail the ark of the testimony: and the vail shall divide unto you between the holy place and the most holy.

Lev. xvi. 2. And the Lord said unto Moses, Speak unto Aaron thy brother, that he come not at all times into the holy place within the vail, before the mercy-seat, which is upon the ark, that he die not: for I will appear in the cloud upon the mercy-seat.

Heb. ix. 3. And after the second vail, the tabernacle, which is called The Holiest of all.

17 And the house, that is, the temple before it, was forty cubits long.

18 And the cedar of the house within was carved with knops and open flowers: all was cedar; there was no stone seen.

19 And (r) the oracle he prepared in the house within, (s) to set there the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

(r) 2 Chr. iv. 20. Moreover the candlesticks with their lamps, that they should burn after the manner, before the oracle, of pure gold.

(s) Ex. xl. 21. And he brought the ark into the tabernacle, and set up the vail of the covering, and covered the ark of the testimony; as the Lord commanded Moses.

1 Kings viii. 6. And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the Lord unto his place, into the oracle of the house, to the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubims.

7. For the cherubims spread forth their two wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark, and the staves thereof above.

8. And they drew out the staves, that the ends of the staves were seen out in the holy place before the oracle, and they were not seen without: and there they are unto this day.

9. There was nothing in the ark save the two tables of stone, which Moses put there at Horeb, when the Lord made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt.

10. And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place, that the cloud filled the house of the Lord,

11. So that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud: for the glory of the Lord had filled the house of the Lord.

2 Chr. v. 7. And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the Lord unto his place, to the oracle of the house, unto the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubims.

Heb. ix. 3. And after the second vail, the tabernacle, which is called the Holiest of all.

20 And the oracle in the forepart was twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in the height thereof; and he overlaid it with pure gold; and so covered the altar which was of cedar.

21 So Solomon overlaid the house within with pure gold; and he made a partition by the chains of gold before the oracle, and he overlaid it with gold.

22 And the whole house he overlaid with gold, until he had finished all the house: also the whole altar that was by the oracle he overlaid with gold.

23 And within the oracle he made (t) two cherubims of olive-tree; each ten cubits high.

(t) Gen. iii. 24. So he drove out the man: and he placed at the east of the garden of Eden, Cherubims, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to keep the way of the tree of life.

Ex. xxv. 18. And thou shalt make two cherubims of gold, of beaten work shalt thou make them, in the two ends of the mercy-seat.

19. And make one cherub on the one end, and the other cherub on the other end; even of the mercy-seat shall ye make the cherubims on the two ends thereof.

20. And the cherubims shall stretch forth their wings on high, covering the mercy-seat with their wings, and their faces shall look one to another; toward the mercy-seat shall the faces of the cherubims be.

21. And thou shalt put the mercy-seat above upon the ark; and in the ark thou shalt put the testimony that I shall give thee.

22. And there I will meet with thee, and I will commune with thee from above the mercy-seat, from between the two cherubims which are upon the ark of the testimony, of all things which I will give thee in commandment unto the children of Israel.

Ps. xviii. 10. And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly; yea, he did fly upon the wings of the wind.

Is. xxxvii. 16. O Lord of hosts, God of Israel, that dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; thou hast made heaven and earth.

24 And five cubits was the one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the other wing of the cherub; from the uttermost part of the other were ten cubits.

25 And the other cherub was ten cubits: both the cherubims were of one measure, and one size.

26 The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was it of the other cherub.

27 And he set the cherubims within the inner house: (u) and they stretched forth the wings of the cherubims, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; and their wings touched one another in the midst of the house.

(u) Ex. xxv. 20. And the cherubims shall stretch forth their wings on high, covering the mercy-seat with their wings, and their faces shall look one to another; toward the mercy-seat shall the faces of the cherubims be.

xxxvii. 9. And the cherubims spread out their wings on high, and covered with their wings over the mercy-seat, with their faces one to another; even to the mercy-seat-ward were the faces of the cherubims.

2 Chr. v. 8. For the cherubims spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark and the staves thereof above.

28 And he overlaid the cherubims with gold.

14. They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be fat and flourishing;

15. To show that the Lord is upright: he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

Rev. vii. 9. After this, I beheld, and lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands.

30 And (z) the floor of the house he overlaid with gold, within and without.

(z) Is. liv. 11. O thou afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted, behold, I will lay thy stones with fair colours, and lay thy foundations with sapphires.

12. And I will make thy windows of agates, and thy gates of carbuncles, and all thy borders of pleasant stones.

17. For brass I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron: I will also make thy officers peace, and thine exactors righteousness.

Rev. xxi. 18. And the building of the wall of it was of jasper; and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

19. And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald;

20. The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst.

21. And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

31 And for the entering of the oracle he made (a) doors of olive-tree: the lintel and side-posts were a fifth part of the wall.

(a) John x. 9. I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

20. By a new and living way which he hath consecrated for us, through the vail, that is to say, his flesh.

32 The two doors also were of olive-tree; and he carved upon them carvings of cherubims, and palm-trees, and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold, and spread upon the cherubims, and upon the palm-trees.

33 So also made he for the door of the temple, posts of olive-tree, a fourth part of the wall.

(c) Ez. xli. 23. And the temple and the sanctuary had two doors.

24. And the doors had two leaves apiece, two turning leaves; two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other door.

36 And he built (d) the inner court with three rows of hewed stone, and a row of cedar beams.

(d) 2 Chr. iv. 9. Furthermore, he made the court of the priests, and the great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid the doors of them with brass.

(b) 1 Kings x. 17. And he made three hundred shields of beaten gold; three pounds of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.

Cant. vii. 4. Thy neck is as a tower of ivory; thine eyes like the fish-pools in Heshbon, by the gate of Bath-rabbim: thy nose is as the tower of Lebanon, which looketh toward Damascus.

3 And it was covered with cedar above upon the beams, that lay on forty-five pillars, fifteen in a row.

4 And there were (c) windows in three rows, and light was against light in three ranks.

(c) 1 Kings vi. 4. And for the house he made windows of narrow lights.

5 And all the doors and posts were square with the windows: and light was against light in three ranks.

6 And he made a porch of pillars; the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth thereof thirty cubits: and the porch was before them; and the other pillars and the thick beam were before them.

7 Then he made (d) a porch (e) for the throne, where he might judge, even the porch (f) of judgment: and it was covered with cedar from one side of the floor to the other.

(d) 1 Kings vi. 3. And the porch before the temple of the house, twenty cubits was the length thereof, according to the breadth of the house; and ten cubits was the breadth thereof before the house.

(e) 1 Kings x. 18. Moreover, the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with the best gold.

19. The throne had six steps, and the top of the throne was round behind: and there were stays on either side on the place of the seat, and two lions stood beside the stays.

20. And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps: there was not the like made in any kingdom.

(f) Prov. xx. 8. A king that setteth on the throne of judgment scattereth away all evil with his eyes.

8 And to his house where he dwelt had (g) another court within the porch, which was of the like work. Solomon made also (h) an house for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had taken to wife, like unto this porch.

(g) 2 Kings xx. 4. And it came to pass, afore Isaiah was gone out into the middle court, that the word of the Lord came to him, saying.

2 Chr. viii. 11. And Solomon brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the city of David unto the house that he had built for her: for he said, My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places are holy whereunto the ark of the Lord hath come.

9 All these were of (i) costly stones, according to the measures of hewed stones, sawed with saws, within and without, even from the foundation unto the coping, and so on the outside toward the great court.

(i) 1 Kings v. 17. And the king commanded, and they brought great stones, costly stones, and hewed stones, to lay the foundation of the house.

10 And (k) the foundation was of costly stones, even great stones; stones of ten cubits, and stones of eight cubits.

1 Cor. iii. 10. According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise master builder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

(l) Eph. ii. 20. And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone;

21. In whom all the building, fitly formed together, groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord:

22. In whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit.

12 And the great court round about was with (m) three rows of hewed stones, and a row of cedar-beams, both for the inner court of the house of the LORD, and for (n) the porch of the house.

13 ¶ And king Solomon sent, and fetched (o) Hiram out of Tyre.

(o) 2 Chr. ii. 13. And now I have sent a cunning man, endued with understanding, of Huram my father's.

iv. 11. And Huram made the pots, and the shovels, and the basins. And Huram finished the work that he was to make for king Solomon for the house of God.

14 He was a widow's son of the tribe of (p) Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in brass: and (q) he was filled with wisdom and understanding, and cunning to work all works in brass. And he came to king Solomon, and wrought all his work.

(q) Ex. xxxi. 2. See, I have called by name Bezaleel, the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah:

3. And I have filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship,

4. To devise cunning works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass,

5. And in cutting of stones to set them, and in carving of timber, to work in all manner of workmanship.

6. And I, behold, I have given with him Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan; and in the hearts of all that are wise-hearted I have put wisdom, that they may make all that I have commanded thee:

xxxv. 30. And Moses said unto the children of Israel, See, the Lord hath called by name Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah.

32. And to devise curious works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass,

33. And in the cutting of stones, to set them, and in carving of wood, to make any manner of cunning work.

34. And he hath put in his heart that he may teach, both he, and Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan.

35. Them hath he filled with wisdom of heart, to work all manner of work, of the engraver, and of the cunning workman, and of the embroiderer, in blue, and in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen, and of the weaver, even of them that do any work, and of those that devise cunning work.

17 And nets of checker-work, and wreaths of chain-work, for the chapiters which were upon the top of the pillars: seven for the one chapiter, and seven for the other chapiter.

19 And the chapiters that were upon the top of the pillars, were of lily-work in the porch, four cubits.

20 And the chapiters upon the two pillars had pomegranates also above, over against the belly which was by the net-work: and the pomegranates were two hundred in rows round about upon the other chapiter.

21 And (s) he set up the pillars in (t) the porch of the temple: and he set up the right pillar, and called the name thereof Jachin; and he set up the left pillar, and called the name thereof Boaz.

20. When they go into the tabernacle of the congregation, they shall wash with water, that they die not; or when they come near to the altar to minister, to burn offering made by fire unto the Lord.

15. Now as I beheld the living creatures, behold one wheel upon the earth by the living creatures, with his four faces.

16. The appearance of the wheels and their work was like unto the colour of a beryl; and they four had one likeness: and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel in the middle of a wheel.

17. When they went, they went upon their four sides; and they returned not when they went.

18. As for their rings, they were so high that they were dreadful; and their rings were full of eyes round about them four.

19. And when the living creatures went, the wheels went by them; and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up.

20. Whithersoever the spirit was to go, they went, thither was their spirit to go; and the wheels were lifted up over against them; for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

21. When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up over against them; for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

iii. 13. I heard also the noise of the wings of the living creatures that touched one another, and the noise of the wheels over against them, and a noise of a great rushing.

x. 10. And as for their appearances, they four had one likeness, as if a wheel had been in the midst of a wheel.

11. When they went, they went upon their four sides; they turned not as they went, but to the place whither the head looked they followed it; they turned not as they went.

12. And their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes round about, even the wheels that they four had.

13. As for the wheels, it was cried unto them in my hearing, O wheel!

31 And the mouth of it, within the chapiter and above, was a cubit: but the mouth thereof was round, after the work of the base, a cubit and a half; and also upon the mouth of it were gravings with their borders, four-square, not round.

32 And under the borders were four wheels: and the axle-trees of the wheels were joined to the base, and the height of a wheel was a cubit and half a cubit.

33 And the work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot-wheel; their axle-trees, and their naves, and their felloes, and their spokes, were all molten.

34 And there were four undersetters to the four corners of one base: and the undersetters were of the very base itself.

35 And in the top of the base was there a round compass of half a cubit high: and on the top of the base, the ledges thereof, and the borders thereof, were of the same.

36 For on the plates of the ledges thereof, and on the borders thereof, he (f) graved cherubims, lions, and palm-trees, according to the proportion of every one, and additions round about.

(f) Ez. xl. 31. And the arches thereof were toward the outer court; and palm-trees were upon the posts thereof; and the going up to it had eight steps.

xli. 18. And it was made with cherubims and palm-trees, so that a palm-tree was between a cherub and a cherub; and every cherub had two faces;

19. So that the face of a man was toward the palm-tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side: it was made through all the house round about.

20. From the ground unto above the door were cherubims and palm-trees made, and on the wall of the temple.

26. And there were narrow windows and palm-trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch, and upon the side-chambers of the house, and thick planks.

37 After this manner he made the ten bases: all of them had one casting, one measure and one size.

38 Then made he (g) ten lavers of brass: one laver containing forty baths; and every laver was four cubits: and upon every one of the ten bases one laver.

(g) Ex. xxx. 17. And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

18. Thou shalt also make a laver of brass, and his foot also of brass, to wash withal: and thou shalt put it between the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar, and thou shalt put water therein.

19. For Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands and their feet thereat.

20. When they go into the tabernacle of the congregation, they shall wash with water, that they die not; or when they come near to the altar to minister, to burn offering made by fire unto the Lord.

21. So they shall wash their hands and their feet, that they die not: and it shall be a statute for ever to them, even to him and to his seed throughout their generations.

2 Chr. iv. 6. He made also ten lavers, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them: such things as they offered for the burnt-offering they washed in them; but the sea was for the priests to wash in.

Zech. xiii. 1. In that day there shall be a fountain opened to the house of David, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for uncleanness.

Heb. ix. 10. Which stood only in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

x. 22. Let us draw near with a true heart, in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water.

1 John i. 7. But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

Rev. vii. 14. And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said unto me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

39 And he put five bases on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house; and he set the sea on the right side of the house eastward, over against the south.

40 ¶ And Hiram made (h) the lavers, and the shovels, and (i) the basins: (k) so Hiram made an end of doing all the work that he made king Solomon for the house of the LORD:

(h) 2 Chr. iv. 8. He made also ten tables, and placed them in the temple, five on the right side, and five on the left: and he made an hundred basins of gold.

Jer. lii. 18. The caldrons also, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the bowls, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass, wherewith they ministered, took they away.

19. And the basins, and the fire-pans, and the bowls, and the caldrons, and the candlesticks, and the spoons, and the cups; that which was of gold in gold, and that which was of silver in silver, took the captain of the guard away.

(i) Ex. xxiv. 6. And Moses took half of the blood, and put it in basins; and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar.

(k) Ex. xxxix. 32. Thus was all the work of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation finished: and the children of Israel did according to all that the Lord commanded Moses, so did they.

41 The (l) two pillars and the two bowls of the chapiters that were on the top of the two pillars; and the two net-works, to cover the two bowls of the chapiters which were upon the top of the pillars;

(l) 2 Chr. iv. 12. To wit, the two pillars, and the pommels, and the chapiters, which were on the top of the two pillars, and the two wreaths to cover the two pommels of the chapiters which were on the top of the pillars.

13. And four hundred pomegranates on the two wreaths; two rows of pomegranates on each wreath, to cover the two pommels of the chapiters which were upon the pillars.

14. He made also bases, and lavers made he upon the bases;

15. One sea and twelve oxen under it.

16. The pots also, and the shovels, and the flesh-hooks, and all their instruments, did Huram his father make to king Solomon, for the house of the Lord, of bright brass.

42 And four hundred pomegranates for the two net-works, even two rows of pomegranates for one net-work, to cover the two bowls of the chapiters that were upon the pillars;

43 And the ten bases, and ten lavers on the bases;

44 And one sea, and twelve oxen under the sea.

45 And (m) the pots, and the shovels, and the basins: and all these vessels, which Hiram made to king Solomon for the house of the LORD, were of bright brass.

xxxviii. 3. And he made all the vessels of the altar, the pots, and the shovels, and the basins, and the flesh-hooks, and the fire-pans; all the vessels thereof made he of brass.

Ez. xlvi. 20. Then said he unto me, This is the place where the priests shall boil the trespass-offering and the sin-offering, where they shall bake the meat-offering; that they bare them not out into the outer court, to sanctify the people.

21. Then he brought me forth into the outer court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and, behold, in every corner of the court there was a court.

22. In the four corners of the court there were courts joined of forty cubits long, and thirty broad: these four corners were of one measure.

23. And there was a row of building round about in them, round about them four, and it was made with boiling-places under the rows round about.

24. Then said he unto me, These are the places of them that boil, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people.

Zech. xiv. 20. In that day there shall be upon the bells of the horses, HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD; and the pots in the Lord's house shall be like the bowls before the altar.

21. Yea, every pot in Jerusalem, and in Judah, shall be Holiness unto the Lord of hosts: and all they that sacrifice shall come and take of them, and seethe therein: and in that day there shall be no more the Canaanite in the house of the Lord of hosts.

46 In the plain of Jordan did the king cast them, in the clay-ground between (n) Succoth and (o) Zarthan.

(n) Gen. xxxiii. 17. And Jacob journeyed to Succoth, and built him an house, and made booths for his cattle: therefore the name of the place is called Succoth.

(o) Josh. iii. 16. That the waters which came down from above stood and rose up upon an heap very far from the city Adam, that is beside Zaretan: and those that came down toward the sea of the plain, even the salt sea, failed, and were cut off: and the people passed over right against Jericho.

47 And Solomon left all the vessels unweighed, because they were exceeding many: neither was the weight of the brass found out.

48 ¶ And Solomon made all the vessels that pertained unto the house of the LORD: (p) the altar of gold, and (q) the table of gold, whereupon the show-bread was.

(p) Ex. xxx. 1. And thou shalt make an altar to burn incense upon; of shittim-wood shalt thou make it.

2. A cubit shall be the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof; four-square shall it be; and two cubits shall be the height thereof: the horns thereof shall be of the same.

3. And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, the top thereof, and the sides thereof round about, and the horns thereof: and thou shalt make unto it a crown of gold round about.

4. And two golden wings shalt thou make to it under the crown of it, by the two corners thereof, upon the two sides of it shalt thou make it; and they shall be for places for the staves to bear it withal.

5. And thou shalt make the staves of shittim-wood, and overlay them with gold.

2 Chr. iv. 19. And Solomon made all the vessels that were for the house of God, the golden altar also, and the tables whereon the show-bread was set.

(q) Ex. xxv. 23. Thou shalt also make a table of shittim-wood: two cubits shall be the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and an half the height thereof.

24. And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, and make thereto a crown of gold round about.

25. And thou shalt make unto it a border of an hand-breadth round about, and thou shalt make a golden crown to the border thereof round about.

26. And thou shalt make for it four rings of gold, and put the rings in the four corners that are on the four feet thereof.

27. Over against the border shall the rings be for places of the staves to bear the table.

28. And thou shalt make the staves of shittim-wood, and overlay them with gold, that the table may be borne with them.

29. And thou shalt make the dishes thereof, and spoons thereof, and covers thereof, and bowls thereof, to cover withal: of pure gold shalt thou make them.

xxxix. 36. The tables and all the vessels thereof, and the show-bread.

xl. 22. And he put the table in the tent of the congregation, upon the side of the tabernacle northward, without the vail.

23. And he set the bread in order upon it before the Lord; as the Lord had commanded Moses.

Mal. i. 12. But ye have profaned it, in that ye say, The table of the Lord is polluted; and the fruit thereof, even his meat, is contemptible.

1 Cor. x. 21. Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.

49 And (r) the candlesticks of pure gold, five on the right side, and five on the left, before the oracle with the flowers and the lamps, and (s) the tongs of gold;

(r) Ex. xxvi. 31. And thou shalt make a candlestick of pure gold; of beaten work shall the candlestick be made: his shaft, and his branches, his bowls, his knops, and his flowers, shall be of the same.

Zech. iv. 1. And the angel that talked with me came again and waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep,

2. And said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold a candlestick all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, and his seven lamps thereon, and seven pipes to the seven lamps which were upon the top thereof;

3. And two olive-trees by it; one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof.

Rev. i. 20. The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest, are the seven churches.

ii. 1. Unto the angel of the church of Ephesus write; These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks.

(s) Num. ix. 9. And they shall take a cloth of blue, and cover the candlestick of the light, and his lamps, and his tongs, and his snuff-dishes, and all the oil-vessels thereof, wherewith they minister unto it.

50 And the bowls, and the snuffers, and the basins, and the spoons, and the censers, of pure gold; and the hinges of gold, both for the doors of the inner-house, the most holy place, and for the doors of the house, to wit, of the temple.

51 So was ended all the work that king Solomon made for the house of the LORD. And Solomon brought in the things (t) which David his father had dedicated; even the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, did he put among the treasures of the house of the LORD.

(t) 2 Sam. viii. 7. And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8. And from Betah, and from Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, king David took exceeding much brass.

9. When Toi king of Hamath heard that David had smitten all the host of Hadadezer,

10. Then Toi sent Joram his son unto king David, to salute him, and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer, and smitten him: (for Hadadezer had wars with Toi.) And Joram brought with him vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and vessels of brass:

11. Which also king David did dedicate unto the Lord, with the silver and gold that he had dedicated of all nations which he subdued.

1 Chr. xxix. 1. Furthermore, David the king said unto all the congregation, Solomon my son, whom alone God hath chosen, is yet young and tender, and the work is great: for the palace is not for man, but for the Lord God.

2. Now I have prepared with all my might: for the house of my God, the gold for things to be made of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and the brass for things of brass, the iron for things of iron, and wood for things of wood; onyx-stones, and stones to be set, glistering stones, and of divers colours, and all manner of precious stones, and marble stones in abundance.

3. Moreover, because I have set my affection to the house of my God, I have of mine own proper good, of gold and silver, which I have given to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house,

4. Even three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses withal:

5. The gold for things of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and for all manner of work to be made by the hands of artificers. And who then is willing to consecrate his service this day unto the Lord?

6. Then the chief of the fathers and princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with the rulers over the king's work, offered willingly,

7. And gave for the service of the house of God, of gold, five thousand talents and ten thousand drams; and of silver, ten thousand talents; and of brass, eighteen thousand talents; and one hundred thousand talents of iron.

8. And they with whom precious stones were found gave them to the treasure of the house of the Lord, by the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite.

2 Chr. v. 1. Thus all the work that Solomon made for the house of the Lord was finished: and Solomon brought in all the things that David his father had dedicated; and the silver, and the gold, and all the instruments, put he among the treasures of the house of God.

CHAPTER VIII.

THEN (a) Solomon (b) assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Israel, unto king Solomon in Jerusalem, (c) that they might bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD, (d) out of the city of David, which is Zion.

(a) 2 Chr. v. 2. Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Israel, unto Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the Lord out of the city of David, which is Zion.

(b) Josh. xxiii. 2. And Joshua called for all Israel, and for their elders, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers, and said unto them, I am old and stricken in age.

xxiv. 1. And Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called for the elders of Israel, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers; and they presented themselves before God.

Ezra iii. 1. And when the seventh month was come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together as one man to Jerusalem.

(c) 2 Sam. vi. 1. Again, David gathered together all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand.

2. And David arose, and went with all the people that were with him from Baale of Judah, to bring up from thence the ark of God, whose name is called by the name of the Lord of hosts, that dwelleth between the cherubims.

12. And it was told king David, saying, The Lord hath blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that pertaineth unto him, because of the ark of God. So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom into the city of David with gladness.

1 Chr. xiii. 1. And David consulted with the captains of thousands and hundreds, and with every leader.

2. And David said unto all the congregation of Israel, If it seem good unto you, and that it be of the Lord our God, let us send abroad unto our brethren every where, that are left in all the land of Israel, and with them also to the priests and Levites which are in their cities and suburbs, that they may gather themselves unto us:

3. And let us bring again the ark of our God to us: for we inquired not at it in the days of Saul.

4. And all the congregation said that they would do so: for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

5. So David gathered all Israel together, from Shihor of Egypt even unto the entering of Hemath, to bring the ark of God from Kirjath-jearim.

xv. 3. And David gathered all Israel together to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the Lord unto his place which he had prepared for it.

(d) 2 Sam. v. 7. Nevertheless David took the strong-hold of Zion: the same is the city of David.

8. And David said on that day, Whosoever getteth up to the gutter and smiteth the Jebusites, and the lame and the blind, that are hated of David's soul, he shall be chief and captain: wherefore they said, The blind and the lame shall not come into the house.

9. So David dwelt in the fort, and called it,

The city of David: and David built round about from Millo and inward.

Ps. cii. 21. To declare the name of the Lord in Zion, and his praise in Jerusalem:

Is. xxviii. 16. Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner-stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste.

2 And all the men of Israel assembled themselves unto king Solomon, (e) at the feast, in the month Ethanim, which is the seventh month.

(e) Lev. xxiii. 34. Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, The fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be the feast of tabernacles for seven days unto the Lord.

Deut. xvi. 13. Thou shalt observe the feast of tabernacles seven days, after that thou hast gathered in thy corn and thy wine.

Ezra iii. 4. They kept also the feast of tabernacles, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt-offerings by number, according to the custom, as the duty of every day required.

Neh. viii. 14. And they found written in the law which the Lord had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the second month.

15. And that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, Go forth unto the mount, and fetch olive-branches, and pine-branches, and myrtle-branches, and palm-branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written.

16. So the people went forth, and brought them, and made themselves booths, every one upon the roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the street of the water-gate, and in the street of the gate of Ephraim.

17. And all the congregation of them that were come again out of the captivity made booths, and sat under the booths: for since the days of Jeshua the son of Nun, unto that day, had not the children of Israel done so. And there was very great gladness.

18. Also day by day, from the first day unto the last day, he read in the book of the law of God. And they kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was a solemn assembly, according unto the manner.

Zech. xiv. 16. And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem, shall even go up from year to year to worship the King, the Lord of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles.

17. And it shall be, that whoso will not come up of all the families of the earth unto Jerusalem to worship the King, the Lord of hosts, even upon them shall be no rain.

18. And if the family of Egypt go not up, and come not, that have no rain, there shall be the plague wherewith the Lord will smite the heathen that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

19. This shall be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all nations that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

John vii. 2. Now the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand.

37. In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me and drink.

38. He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

3 And all the elders of Israel came, and (f) the priests took up the ark.

(f) Deut. xxxi. 9. And Moses wrote this law, and delivered it unto the priests the sons of Levi, which bare the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and unto all the elders of Israel.

Josh. iii. 3. And they commanded the people, saying, When ye see the ark of the covenant of the Lord your God, and the priests the Levites bearing it, then ye shall remove from your place, and go after it.

6. And Joshua spake unto the priests, saying, Take up the ark of the covenant, and pass over before the people. And they took up the ark of the covenant, and went before the people.

1 Chr. xv. 11. And David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab.

12. And said unto them, Ye are the chief of the fathers of the Levites; sanctify yourselves, both ye and your brethren, that ye may bring up the ark of the Lord God of Israel unto the place that I have prepared for it.

13. For because ye did it not at the first, the Lord our God made a breach upon us, for that we sought him not after the due order.

14. So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the Lord God of Israel.

15. And the children of the Levites bare the ark of God upon their shoulders, with the staves thereon, as Moses commanded, according to the word of the Lord.

4 And they brought up the ark of the LORD, and the (g) tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, even those did the priests and the Levites bring up.

(g) 2 Chr. i. 3. So Solomon, and all the congregation with him, went to the high place that was at Gibeon; for there was the tabernacle of the congregation of God, which Moses, the servant of the Lord, had made in the wilderness.

5 And king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel that were assembled unto him, were with him before the ark (h) sacrificing sheep and oxen, that could not be told nor numbered for multitude.

(h) 2 Sam. vi. 13. And it was so, that when they that bare the ark of the Lord had gone six paces, he sacrificed oxen and fatlings.

1 Chr. xvi. 1. So they brought the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it: and they offered burnt sacrifices and peace offerings before God.

6 And (i) the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD unto (k) his place, into the oracle of the house, to the most holy place, even (l) under the wings of the cherubims.

(i) 2 Chr. v. 7. And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the Lord unto his place, to the oracle of the house, into the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubims.

(k) Ex. xxvi. 33. And thou shalt hang up the vail under the taches, that thou mayest bring in thither within the vail the ark of the testimony: and the vail shall divide unto you between the holy place and the most holy.

34. And thou shalt put the mercy-seat upon the ark of the testimony in the most holy place.

(l) 1 Sam. iv. 4. So the people sent to Shiloh, that they might bring from thence the ark of the covenant of the Lord of hosts, which dwelleth between the cherubims: and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

2 Sam. vi. 2. And David arose, and went with all the people that were with him from Baale of Judah, to bring up from thence the ark of God, whose name is called by the name of The Lord of hosts, that dwelleth between the cherubims.

Ps. lxxx. 1. Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, thou that leadest Joseph like a flock; thou that dwellest between the cherubims, shine forth.

xcix. 1. The Lord reigneth; let the people tremble: he sitteth between the cherubims; let the earth be moved.

Is. xxxvii. 16. O Lord of hosts, God of Israel, that dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone of all the kingdoms of the earth; thou hast made heaven and earth.

Ez. x. 5. And the sound of the cherubims' wings was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of the Almighty God when he speaketh.

7 For the cherubims spread forth their two wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark and the staves thereof above.

8 And they (m) drew out the staves, that the ends of the staves were seen out in the holy place before the oracle, and they were not seen without: and there they are (n) unto this day.

(m) Ex. xxv. 14. And thou shalt put the staves into the rings by the sides of the ark, that the ark may be borne with them.

15. The staves shall be in the rings of the ark: they shall not be taken from it.

xxxvii. 4. And he made staves of shittim-wood, and overlaid them with gold.

5. And he put the staves into the rings by the sides of the ark, to bear the ark.

xl. 20. And he took and put the testimony into the ark, and set the staves on the ark, and put the mercy-seat above upon the ark.

(n) Josh. iv. 9. And Joshua set up twelve stones in the midst of Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests which bare the ark of the covenant stood: and they are there unto this day.

Matt. xxviii. 15. So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

9 There was (o) nothing (p) in the ark save the two tables of stone, which Moses (q) put there at Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt.

(o) Ex. xxv. 21. And thou shalt put the mercy-seat above upon the ark; and in the ark thou shalt put the testimony that I shall give thee.

Deut. x. 2. And I will write on the tables the words that were in the first tables, which thou breakest, and thou shalt put them in the ark.

2 Chr. v. 10. There was nothing in the ark save the two tables which Moses put therein at Horeb, when the Lord made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt.

(f) 2 Chr. xxx. 9.
